

20TH YEAR. NO. 101.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., WEDNESDAY, APRIL 29, 1903.

TWO CENTS

JOHN WYMAN THOUGHT TO BE THE MAN WHO WILL BE CHOSEN AS THE CITY'S CHIEF OF POLICE

The Appointment, If Made by Mayor Weaver,
Will Inspire Terror Among All
Classes of Evil Doers.

It has been generally understood in certain circles for some time that special care would be taken by the new mayor to place a man at the head of the police department who would be feared and respected by evil doers. Either John Wyman or Charles Gill, both Republicans, well known to be such men, are considered likely to fill the office, and for several weeks—ever since the election—friends of both have been active in their behalf with the new administration.

Mayor-elect Weaver has nothing to say on the subject, and has told the News Review repeatedly that he has not yet made a selection. It can be stated at this time with a reasonable degree of certainty, however, that John Wyman will be named. Not that there has been any lack of effort on the part of Gill's supporters, for the have worked every string that is known to politics. It will be a plain case of the Wyman pull being the stronger. His record of a few years ago is still fresh in the minds of many good citizens, and it is presumed that his friends are more numerous and a trifle nearer the mayor.

John Wyman is a Republican and a man with a public record of which he can feel proud. Years ago when a member of the local police force his name was a terror to violators of the law in every walk of life. When he became sheriff of Columbiana county he took up the duties of the office and to the very end of his second term did his full duty in a manner most creditable to both himself and his party. "They all look alike to Wyman," remarked a prominent business man last night, "and if Mr. Weaver makes his selections in other departments with the same good judgment, I guess he will do."

The board of public safety composition is still being speculated upon, and to the present but one man can be said to have a dead sure hold on the job. The News Review is able to say almost to a certainty that Christian Mettsch will be a member of the board, and strange as it may seem, he is also a life-long Republican. Who the other members of this department will be can only be guessed at.

MAIN'S BIG CIRCUS ATTRACTS CROWDS

An Imposing Street Parade Followed by a Most Attractive Performance.

MANY NEW FEATURES SEEN

Clear, sunny weather marked this circus day—one of the days always looked forward to with joyful anticipation in the Crockery City. The little boy and girl, the young man and woman and the father and mother alike await it with pleasurable forethought. It is the day when there is a great falling off in the school attendance. Labor in the leading industry is practically suspended and the business man also falls in line. Is there another city in the United States indeed that so royally supports a circus? "The great difference," a showman says, "is that in East Liverpool the circus depends almost altogether on the patronage of the citizens, and in other cities they look to the surrounding country and villages for support."

The first train of the big circus arrived in the city at 7:20 this morning. It was greeted by scores of urchins and many grown people who stood at the foot of Broadway and watched intently the unloading. From the railroad to the West End park the wagons were followed, and during all the morning a great crowd watched the maneuvers of the show people, their animals and their followers. It is a sight well worth seeing and East Liverpool people never let the opportunity slip by.

The well arranged street parade, starting from the grounds shortly before 12 o'clock, brought crowds from all parts of the city to the principal thoroughfares, and as the several bands of music in chariots, on horseback and otherwise played popular selections the enthusiasm broadened. It was one of the most interesting and attractive parades ever seen in the city and many who had no intention of seeing the show made up their minds to do so after watching the exceptionally fine and inviting parade. The steam piano merrily tooted a series of familiar roundelays in the rear of the procession, and its strains echoed over many blocks.

The afternoon exhibition opened at 2 o'clock and the big tent was well filled when the first program was produced. Every arrangement was like clock work from the first performance. The side-splitting comedy features were without precedent in the city. The exhibition was so arranged that

TEAMSTERS THREATEN TO GO ON A STRIKE

THEY DEMAND $2 FOR WORKING
NINE HOURS.

Unless the New Scale Is Agreed to
They Will Quit Work
May 1.

The progress of building operations in East Liverpool may be still further retarded before the week is out by the threatened strike of the teamsters, who will undoubtedly quit work Friday if their demands are not acceded to.

The teamsters have been organized less than a year, but have met with extraordinary success in the matter of interesting the team drivers of the city to affiliate. Now there are few men engaged at this class of work who do not belong to the teamsters' union. Several weeks ago the members of the union concluded to ask a change in the working conditions. The matter was thoroughly discussed, and when the new scale was finally formed it was presented to the bosses.

The new scale provided for a nine-hour day and $2. Formerly the drivers had been working ten hours and receiving whatever pay they could get. The wages asked will be but a slight increase over what they are generally receiving, but the advantage to be gained through its uniformity was thought to be great.

A conference was held last Saturday night, but the only team owner to put in an appearance was a representative of the Pilgrim Bros. coal dealers. He proposed to grant the $2 a day, but desired that the men waive the nine-hour clause. This they refused to do, and the conference ended.

Meantime a committee has been at work making a canvas among the other employers, and a second conference has been arranged for Thursday evening at city hall. At that time the entire question will be gone over, and an effort made by the men to induce their bosses to agree to the terms. In case they refuse the men assert they will strike Friday morning.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT ARRIVES AT ST. LOUIS

There to Dedicate Exposition Buildings—Crowds Give Him Welcome.

St. Louis, April 29.—(Special)—President Roosevelt entered the state of Missouri from Keokuk this morning and was welcomed there by Governor Dickey and staff. The party then came directly to this city where the president will take part in the dedication of the exposition buildings.

Thousands of visitors are in the city to witness the ceremonies.

RUSSIA ENTERS A FLAT DENIAL

Claims It Is Not the Czar's Purpose to Monopolize Manchuria.

Washington, April 29.—(Special)—The state department, through the Russian embassy, has received a flat denial of the report from Peking that it was the intention of the Russian government to secure exclusion privileges in Manchuria.

Appealed from Justice's Court.
Lisbon, April 29.—(Special)—The case of Louis Milbourn against Job Reeder, in which judgment was rendered by default in favor of the plaintiff for $330.96 and costs has been appealed from Justice Joel Winder's court in Hanover township. Milbourn sued for $300 and interest, held to be due. He said the defendant had deposited with the Minerva Banking company this amount in certificates payable to him.

Two-Story City Hall.
Lisbon, April 29.—(Special)—W. E. Hunt, of Toledo, the architect who made the plans for the projected new Lisbon city hall, was here last evening in consultation with city officials. It was decided to reduce the cost to $10,000 by dispensing with the third story. New plans will be drawn.

Getting Acquainted.
Lisbon, April 29.—(Special)—James Kennedy, of Youngstown, was in town today making the acquaintance of Columbiana county Republican leaders.

Leave to Answer Given.
Lisbon, April 29.—(Special)—In the case of Mary J. Burt versus M. J. Smalley, leave is given the defendant to answer by June 1. Leave to answer by May 15 has been given in the case of Paul Metzger versus Ellis Roberts, of East Palestine.

No Court Today.
Lisbon, April 29.—(Special)—None of the cases assigned being ready for trial today, court adjourned until tomorrow.

CITY SOLICITORS SEARCH FOR LIGHT

Convention at Columbus Makes
Many Points in the New Code Clear.

INTELLIGENT DISCUSSION

Assisted By Special Counsel Smith W.
Bennett Will Be of Great Assistance —Half the Solicitors Without Previous Experience.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, April 29.—The city solicitors' convention held in this city yesterday and today was well attended and will undoubtedly be productive of much good, because of the new light obtained by those present as a result of the discussions on the code. The subjects prepared for discussion by Smith W. Bennett, code expert, were divided and apportioned among sub-committees. Several municipal officers were made members of the convention. Smith Bennett called the gathering to order, after which an organization was perfected by choosing U. G. Denman, former member of the house of representatives from Lucas county, chairman, and Phil B. Smythe, of Newark, secretary.

The committees appointed to divide the subjects and distribute them for a more intelligent discussion were as follows: Safety, service, finance, executive and council. A poll showed about one-half of the solicitors present never had experience in municipal affairs. The register showed eastern Ohio to be represented as follows: George E. Davidson, East Liverpool; Charles Boyd, Wellsburg; Joseph Smith, Niles; William Dixon, Martin's Ferry; Cash Danforth, Belaire; J. S. Miller, Alliance; Denver C. Hughes, Canton; S. McGowan, Steubenville. Solicitor Hughes, of Canton, was put on the executive committee. Many disputed points of the code were made clear, and altogether as a result of the meeting the solicitors have a better conception of its provisions and will be able to advise more intelligently regarding its operation.

HANNA INTERESTED IN THE CENTENNIAL

The Senator Would Not Miss the Lisbon Celebration for Anything.

Lisbon, April 29.—(Special)—At the Salem banquet Monday evening, Senator U. C. Connell had some conversation with Senator Hanna concerning the centennial celebration to be held in June. Senator Hanna manifested the greatest interest and said he would esteem it a great privilege to attend and that he would not miss it for anything. He expressed a wish that as many as possible of the old residents might be present.

The senator will be entertained at the home of ex-Congressman Taylor while here.

Petition for Partition.
Lisbon, April 29.—(Special)—Emma M. Swearingen, plaintiff in the divorce suit against James B. Swearingen, of West township, has also brought partition proceedings against her husband, asking that her interest in their 161 acre farm be set off to her. Allen Wickersham, in whose favor Mr. and Mrs. Swearingen executed a $547 mortgage November 9, 1901, is made a party defendant.

Two Cases Disposed Of.
Lisbon, April 29.—(Special)—The case of Henry Vohwinkel against the American Steel and Wire company, of Salem, assigned in court today, has been settled. The terms are not given out. The case of Margaret Deer against the village of Hanover-town has been passed out of this assignment.

Memorial Day Orator.
Lisbon, April 29.—(Special)—Rev. George Fowler, pastor of the Lisbon Christian church, has accepted the invitation of Starr post, G. A. R., to deliver the Memorial day address here. He had a like invitation from the Rogers G. A. R.

Licensed to Wed.
Lisbon, April 29.—(Special)—Harry Kaufman, of Salem, and Edna C. Aldridge, of Salem township, have been licensed to marry.

John Robon, of Pittsburgh, and Miss Mary Dandar, of Washingtonville, and Leon R. Strobel and Margaretta Vogel, both of East Liverpool, have been licensed to marry.

Stricken With Paralysis.
Lisbon, April 29.—(Special)—A. B. King, of Lisbon, aged 72, had a slight stroke of paralysis yesterday which has affected his left side to such a degree that he is unable to get about. Mr. King is the father of Ed A. King, secretary to Congressman James Kennedy, of Youngstown. He is also the father of U. G. King, of East Liverpool.

KEEPING CLOSE WATCH UPON ALL CROOKS

POLICE WILL DO THEIR BEST TO PREVENT THEIVING.

Warning Given That Suspicious Characters
Have Been Following
Up the Circus.

In anticipation of the arrival of crooks that usually follow a circus, Chief of Police Thompson issued special orders to the police last evening and every member of the force was on duty today. Some were detailed to watch the crowds at the railroad while the trains were being unloaded, some were at the show grounds all day and some were in the central portion of the city. Special officers were also on duty and if there were any acts of criminal nature enacted by the sharpers it was due to no negligence of the police.

The street cars were guarded more closely than ever before as a result of a tip offered by Mr. Hines, an official of the show, who informed Mayor Davidson early this morning that a crowd had been following the circus that made its prey out of street car passengers. At times suspicious characters were seen to board the cars but no loss of pocketbooks, loose change or jewelry was reported. While the throngs were surging around the Diamond and on other principal thoroughfares tricky-looking individuals were also noticed but they did nothing that would warrant arrest.

One attempted steal was reported at central station this morning. A well known resident of the city stated that a smooth looking man had been trying to pass a check on a farmer appearing man, corner of Second and Washington streets. The rustic gentleman had evidently read of gold brick operations and threatened to have the trickster run in. It is thought that the unusual scarcity of depredations reported is due to the warning given the public by the newspapers. The statement was made in the News Review of the coming of the crooks and every one has been wide awake not allowing any stranger to get in very close range with them. Housewives have also benefited by the warning, locking their back doors securely while the parade was in line.

Monday, May 4, 1 o'clock p. m.—Thomas Layden, an infant, vs. George Charlton et al.

Tuesday—E. W. Hill vs. W. H. Adams; In re claim of Charles E. Smith, treasurer, for fees on taxes; Frederick W. Miller vs. Arthur W. Thomas.

Wednesday—Jerry Creedon et al. vs. Mary McKay et al.; Isaac Williams vs. Bill Williams.

Thursday—The Vulcan Clay company vs. John Lyth & Sons; Anna Everts vs. Freda Wasbutzky; Thomas E. Duncan vs. George Daniels; William A. Calhoun vs. the West End Pottery company.

Friday—J. W. Usleton vs. Hannah Mayer; Mary A. McCoy vs. Aaron McCoy.

THE ATTENDANCE SMALL AND IMPORTANT MATTERS COULD NOT BE CONSIDERED

An Ordinance Introduced Proposing More Salary
For the City Auditor—The Light
Question Again.

On account of the indifference of several of the members of council, the regular meeting of that body last night was so poorly attended that several important matters will have to be brought up at a later date.

Those in attendance were Mr. Howell, presiding, and Messrs. Peach, Orr, McConnell, Bullock and Johnston.

The ordinance providing for a steam water sewer on Braishaw avenue was put on its third reading and passed. The clerk was authorized to advertise for bids. An ordinance establishing grade lines on Maple street was read for the second time, and the measure granting to the C. C. Thompson Pottery company permission to use a portion of the county road also got its second reading.

A petition from the property owners on an unnamed alley on the north side asked that grade lines be fixed. No action was taken in that case, but a like petition from the residents of Martin street was favorably considered.

An ordinance granting to the East Liverpool Brick Manufacturing company permission to use a 20-foot alley near its works received its first reading.

THE RAILROAD AND THE CITY

QUESTIONS INTERESTING BOTH
TO BE DISCUSSED.

Supt. Scriven, of the C. & P., Will Meet Councilmanic Committee Friday.

Councilman George Peach received word last evening from Supt. Scriven, of the C. & P., stating that he would be in the city Friday to meet the railroad committee of council and perhaps the entire council. Mr. Scriven was notified a few days ago by City Clerk Davidson that council was ready to confer with him on the many matters that have arisen during the past few months, and his ready compliance in arranging to come to the city for that purpose shows that he is willing to have all matters settled amicably and anxiously for an early meeting.

It is not known what the most important topics of discussion will be on the day of the conference. Mr. Peach predicts that the meeting will be one of harmony, and that the demands of council will at least be given fair and just consideration.

CHARGE ENTERED AGAINST MERCHANT

E. D. Shive, Who Left
Lisbon Late.

Lisbon, April 29.—(Special)—Lena D. Carlisle, of Lisbon, has preferred a charge against Edwin D. Shive, until recently a member of the firm of Cope & Shive, who conducted a notion store here. She seeks to attach property of Shive, said to be now in his former partner, L. R. Cope's, possession.

Miss Carlisle has been a clerk in the store for some months. Shive disappeared last week and the authorities have been unable to locate him.

INSANE PATIENT HAS ESCAPED

Center Township Man Runs Away from Massillon After 20 Years.

Lisbon, April 29.—(Special)—Probate Judge J. A. Martin has received word from Dr. Henry C. Eymann that Jesse Deitrich, an insane patient from this county, has escaped from the Massillon asylum.

Deitrich was sent from Center township in 1881.

Taken to the Workhouse.
Lisbon, April 29.—(Special)—Samuel T. Conkle, the Salem gambling house keeper, was taken to the workhouse by Deputy Daniel Eells this morning to begin his 30-days' workhouse sentence.

ing, and though the company was very anxious to have the matter finally disposed of, there were not enough members present to suspend the rules.

Clerk Davidson read an ordinance providing for and fixing the bond of the city tax commission. The board will consist of four members and the bond of each will be $1,000.

An ordinance increasing the salary of the auditor and allowing the solicitor his expenses while out of town on the city's business received its first reading. The salary of the auditor had been fixed at $1,000 and the ordinance fixed it at $1,200. Upon looking carefully over the new code it had been found that the auditor's duties would be more arduous than had been anticipated at the time the salaries were fixed. It was decided by motion to instruct the solicitor to prepare a repealing ordinance to do away with the measure providing for a clerk for the mayor. This official was to receive $40 per month, and it was found the auditor could perform a part of these duties. The raise in the auditor's salary and the abolishing of the

THE LISTS GROW WITH RAPIDITY

The Votes For Candidates in the Race For Prizes Pile Up
Surprisingly.

SEND IN SERIES B COUPONS

Watch them grow! Surprising, isn't it, the way the votes are piling up for some of the candidates in the News Review's popularity contest. The end of the month comes tomorrow, and there may be more surprises in store. At any rate, the speed with which the lists are growing is abundant evidence of the popular interest in the race. The prizes appear even more desirable as hot weather approaches. An ocean voyage to Europe, or a lake trip, on a free ticket, is certainly something worth striving for, and it is no wonder the competition is keen.

Don't forget that Series B coupons expire tomorrow. Send or bring them in before it is too late.

The vote stands as follows:

Stricken With Paralysis.

Lisbon, April 29.—(Special.)—A. B. King, of Lisbon, aged 72 had a slight stroke of paralysis yesterday which has affected his left side to such a degree that he is unable to get about. Mr. King is the father of Ed A. King, secretary to Congressman James Kennedy, of Youngstown. He is also the father of U. G. King, of East Liverpool.

THE ATTENDANCE SMALL AND IMPORTANT MATTERS COULD NOT BE CONSIDERED

An Ordinance Introduced Proposing More Salary
Question Again.

On account of the indifference of several of the members of council, the regular meeting of that body last night was so poorly attended that several important matters will have to be brought up at a later date.

Those in attendance were Mr. Horwell presiding, and Messrs. Peach, Orr, McConnell, Bullock and Johnston.

The ordinance providing for a steam water sewer on Bradshaw avenue was put on its third reading and passed. The clerk was authorized to advertise for bids. An ordinance establishing grade lines on Maple street was read for the second time, and the measure granting to the C. C. Thompson Pottery company permission to use a portion of the county road also got its second reading.

A petition from the property owners on an unnamed alley on the north side asked that grade lines be fixed. No action was taken in that case, but a like petition from the residents of Martin street was favorably considered.

An ordinance granting to the East Liverpool Brick Manufacturing company permission to use a 20-foot alley near its works received its first reading.

ing, and though the company was very anxious to have the matter finally disposed of, there were not enough members present to suspend the rules.

Clerk Davidson read an ordinance providing for and fixing the bond of the city tax commission. The board will consist of four members and the bond of each will be $1,000.

An ordinance increasing the salary of the auditor and allowing the solicitor his expenses while out of town on the city's business received its first reading. The salary of the auditor had been fixed at $1,000 and the ordinance fixed it at $1,200. Upon looking carefully over the new code it had been found that the auditor's duties would be more arduous than had been anticipated at the time the salaries were fixed. It was decided by motion to instruct the solicitor to prepare a repealing ordinance to do away with the measure providing for a clerk for the mayor. This official was to receive $40 per month, and it was found the auditor could perform a part of these duties. The raise in the auditor's salary and the abolishing of the

MANY NEW FEATURES SEEN

Clear, sunny weather marked this circus day—one of the days always looked forward to with joyful anticipation in the Crockery City. The little boy and girl, the young man and woman and the father and mother alike await it with pleasurable forethought. It is the day when there is a great falling off in the school attendance. Labor in the leading industry is practically suspended and the business men also falls in line. Is there another city in the United States indeed that so royally supports a circus? "The great difference," a showman says, "is that in East Liverpool the circus depends almost altogether on the patronage of the citizens, and in other cities they look to the surrounding country and villages for support."

The first train of the big circus arrived in the city at 7:20 this morning. It was greeted by scores of urchins and many grown people who stood at the foot of Broadway and watched intently the unloading. From the railroad to the West End park the wagons were followed, and during all the morning a great crowd watched the maneuvers of the show people, their animals and their followers. It is a sight well worth seeing and East Liverpool people never let the opportunity slip by.

The well arranged street parade, starting from the grounds shortly before 12 o'clock, brought crowds from all parts of the city to the principal thoroughfares, and as the several bands of music in chariots, on horseback and otherwise played popular selections the enthusiasm broadened. It was one of the most interesting and attractive parades ever seen in the city and many who had no intention of seeing the show made up their minds to do so after watching the exceptionally fine and inviting parade. The steam piano merrily tooted a series of familiar roundelays in the rear of the procession, and its strains echoed over many blocks.

The afternoon exhibition opened at 2 o'clock and the big tent was well filled when the first program was produced. Every arrangement was like clock work from the first performance. The side-splitting comedy features were without precedent in the city. The exhibition was so arranged that

MULE GOT IN THE WAY OF MOVING STREET CAR

A Circus Animal Had a Leg Badly Hurt And Will Probably Be Killed.

A valuable mule, owned by the circus company, was so badly injured on Market street, near the city hall, this morning that it is thought it will be necessary to kill the animal. It was one of a team of six attached to a big wagon and was being driven up Market street. When at the intersection of Washington street a street car of the East Liverpool line was seen to be approaching. The driver attempted to turn the course of the team, but before he succeeded in doing so the car was so close to the animal that one of them became frightened and backed until it fell and the front wheel of the huge wagon rolled over its leg.

The limb was mashed terribly a few inches above the hoof, and as there is no remedy for such injuries the mule will likely be dispatched. A big crowd assembled at the place of the accident and it was with extreme pity that all witnessed the suffering of the animal.

Lisbon, April 29.—(Special.)—In the case of Mary J. Burt versus M. J. Smalley, leave is given the defendant to answer by June 1. Leave to answer by May 15 has been given in the case of Paul Metzger versus Ellis Roberts, of East Palestine.

THE LISTS GROW WITH RAPIDITY

The Votes For Candidates in the
Race For Prizes Pile Up
Surprisingly.

SEND IN SERIES B COUPONS

Watch them grow! Surprising, isn't it, the way the votes are piling up for some of the candidates in the News Review's popularity contest. The end of the month comes tomorrow, and there may be more surprises in store. At any rate, the speed with which the lists are growing is abundant evidence of the popular interest in the race. The prizes appear even more desirable as hot weather approaches. An ocean voyage to Europe, or a lake trip, on a free ticket, is certainly something worth striving for, and it is no wonder the competition is keen.

Don't forget that Series B coupons expire tomorrow. Send or bring them in before it is too late.

20TH YEAR. NO. 101.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., WEDNESDAY, APRIL 29, 1903.

JOHN WYMAN THOUGHT TO BE THE MAN WHO WILL BE CHOSEN AS THE CITY'S CHIEF OF POLICE

The Appointment, If Made by Mayor Weaver,
Will Inspire Terror Among All
Classes of Evil Doers.

It has been generally understood in certain circles for some time that special care would be taken by the new mayor to place a man at the head of the police department who would be feared and respected by evil doers. Either John Wyman or Charles Gill, both Republicans, well known to be such men, are considered likely to fill the office, and for several weeks—ever since the election—friends of both have been active in their behalf with the new administration.

Mayor-elect Weaver has nothing to say on the subject, and has told the News Review repeatedly that he has not yet made a selection. It can be stated at this time with a reasonable degree of certainty, however, that John Wyman will be named. Not that there has been any lack of effort on the part of Gill's supporters, for the have worked every string that is known to politics. It will be a plain case of the Wyman pull being the stronger. His record of a few years ago is still fresh in the minds of many good citizens, and it is presumed that his friends are more numerous and a trifle nearer the mayor.

John Wyman is a Republican and a man with a public record of which he can feel proud. Years ago when a member of the local police force his name was a terror to violators of the law in every walk of life. When he became sheriff of Columbiana county he took up the duties of the office and to the very end of his second term did his full duty in a manner most creditable to both himself and his party. "They all look alike to Wyman," remarked a prominent business man last night, "and if Mr. Weaver makes his selections in other departments with the same good judgment, I guess he will do."

The board of public safety composition is still being speculated upon, and to the present but one man can be said to have a dead sure hold on the job. The News Review is able to say almost to a certainty that Christian Metch will be a member of the board, and strange as it may seem, he is also a life-long Republican. Who the other members of this department will be can only be guessed at.

TEAMSTERS THREATEN TO GO ON A STRIKE

THEY DEMAND $2 FOR WORKING NINE HOURS.

Unless the New Scale Is Agreed to They Will Quit Work May 1.

The progress of building operations in East Liverpool may be still further retarded before the week is out by the threatened strike of the teamsters, who will undoubtedly quit work Friday if their demands are not acceded to.

The teamsters have been organized less than a year, but have met with extraordinary success in the matter of interesting the team drivers of the city to affiliate. Now there are few men engaged at this class of work who do not belong to the teamsters' union. Several weeks ago the members of the union concluded to ask a change in the working conditions. The matter was thoroughly discussed, and when the new scale was finally formed it was presented to the bosses.

The new scale provided for a nine-hour day and $2. Formerly the drivers had been working ten hours and receiving whatever pay they could get. The wages asked will be but a slight increase over what they are generally receiving, but the advantage to be gained through its uniformity was thought to be great. A conference was held last Saturday night, but the only team owner to put in an appearance was a representative of the Pilgrim Bros., coal dealers. He proposed to grant the $2 a day, but desired that the men waive the nine-hour clause. This they refused to do, and the conference ended.

Meantime a committee has been at work making a canvas among the other employers, and a second conference has been arranged for Thursday evening at city hall. At that time the entire question will be gone over, and an effort made by the men to induce their bosses to agree to the terms. In case they refuse the men assert they will strike Friday morning.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT ARRIVES AT ST. LOUIS

There to Dedicate Exposition Buildings—Crowds Give Him Welcome.

St. Louis, April 29.—(Special)—President Roosevelt entered the state of Missouri from Keokuk this morning and was welcomed there by Governor Dockery and staff. The party then came directly to this city where the president will take part in the dedication of the exposition buildings.

Thousands of visitors are in the city to witness the ceremonies.

Claims It Is Not the Czar's Purpose to Monopolize Manchuria.

Washington, April 29.—(Special)—The state department, through the Russian embassy, has received a flat denial of the report from Peking that it was the intention of the Russian government to secure exclusion privileges in Manchuria.

Appealed from Justice's Court.

Lisbon, April 29.—(Special)—The case of Louis Milbourn against Job Reeder, in which judgment was rendered by default in favor of the plaintiff for $330.95 and costs has been appealed from Justice Joel Winder's court in Hanover township. Milbourn sued for $300 and interest, held to be due. He said the defendant had deposited with the Minerva Banking company this amount in certificates payable to him.

Two-Story City Hall.

Lisbon, April 29.—(Special)—W. E. Hunt, of Toledo, the architect who made the plans for the proposed new Lisbon city hall, was here last evening in consultation with city officials. It was decided to reduce the cost to $10,000 by dispensing with the third story. New plans will be drawn.

Getting Acquainted.

Lisbon, April 29.—(Special)—James Kennedy, of Youngstown, was in town today making the acquaintance of Columbiana county Republican leaders.

No Court Today.

Lisbon, April 29.—(Special)—None of the cases assigned being ready for trial today, court adjourned until tomorrow.

CITY SOLICITORS SEARCH FOR LIGHT

Convention at Columbus Makes Many Points in the New Code Clear.

INTELLIGENT DISCUSSION

Assisted By Special Counsel Smith W. Bennett Will Be of Great Assistance—Half the Solicitors Without Previous Experience.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, April 29.—The city solicitors' convention held in this city yesterday and today was well attended and will undoubtedly be productive of much good, because of the new light obtained by those present as a result of the discussions on the code. The subjects prepared for discussion by Smith W. Bennett, code expert, were divided and apportioned among subcommittees. Several municipal officers were made members of the convention. Smith Bennett called the gathering to order, after which an organization was perfected by choosing U. G. Denman, former member of the house of representatives from Lucas county, chairman, and Phil B. Smythe, of Newark, secretary.

The committees appointed to divide the subjects and distribute them for a more intelligent discussion were as follows: Safety, service, finance, executive and council. A poll showed about one-half of the solicitors present never had experience in municipal affairs. The register showed eastern Ohio to be represented as follows: George E. Davidson, East Liverpool; Charles Boyd, Wellsville; Joseph Smith, Niles; William Dixon, Martin's Ferry; Cash Danforth, Bellaire; J. S. Miller, Alliance; Denver C. Hughes, Canton; S. McGowan, Steubenville. Solicitor Hughes, of Canton, was put on the executive committee. Many disputed points of the code were made clear, and altogether as a result of the meeting the solicitors have a better conception of its provisions and will be able to advise more intelligently regarding its operation.

Five suits were filed in the United States district court in this city against Isaac De Vaux, a ship lumber dealer of Cambridge, Guernsey county, who is charged with the importation of foreigners and aliens, under contract, to perform labor in the United States. The action is for the collection of penalties aggregating $5,000. It is alleged he brought five individuals here from Canada. The penalty is $1,000 for each violation.

The Grand Tribunal, Knights of Pythias of Ohio, is in session here considering appeals filed by lodges and individuals from subordinate bodies. The case of a Martin's Ferry member, who is charged with immorality, is to be heard.

Petition for Partition.

Lisbon, April 29.—(Special)—Emma M. Swearingen, plaintiff in the divorce suit against James B. Swearingen, of West township, has also brought partition proceedings against her husband, asking that her interest in their 161 acre farm be set off to her. Allen Wickersham, in whose favor Mr. and Mrs. Swearingen executed a $547 mortgage November 9, 1901, is made a party defendant.

Two Cases Disposed Of.

Lisbon, April 29.—(Special)—The case of Henry Vohwinkel against the American Steel and Wire company, of Salem, assigned in court today, has been settled. The terms are not given out. The case of Margaret Deer against the village of Hanover has been passed out of this assignment.

Memorial Day Orator.

Lisbon, April 29.—(Special)—Rev. George Fowler, pastor of the Lisbon Christian church, has accepted the invitation of Starr post, G. A. R., to deliver the Memorial day address here. He had a like invitation from the Rogers G. A. R.

Licensed to Wed.

Lisbon, April 29.—(Special)—Harry Kaufman, of Salem, and Edna C. Aldridge, of Salem township, have been licensed to marry.

John Bohon, of Pittsburg, and Miss Mary Dandar, of Washingtonville, and Leon R. Strobel and Margaretta Vogel, both of East Liverpool, have been licensed to marry.

KEEPING CLOSE WATCH UPON ALL CROOKS

POLICE WILL DO THEIR BEST TO PREVENT THEIVING.

Warning Given That Suspicious Characters Have Been Following Up the Circus.

In anticipation of the arrival of crooks that usually follow a circus, Chief of Police Thompson issued special orders to the police last evening and every member of the force was on duty today. Some were detailed to watch the crowds at the railroad while the trains were being unloaded, some were at the show grounds all day and some were in the central portion of the city. Special officers were also on duty and if there were any acts of criminal nature enacted by the sharpers it was due to no negligence of the police.

The street cars were guarded more closely than ever before as a result of a tip offered by Mr. Hines, an official of the show, who informed Mayor Davidson early this morning that a crowd had been following the circus that made its prey out of street car passengers. At times suspicious characters were seen to board the cars but to loss of pocketbooks, loose change or jewelry was reported. While the throngs were surging around the Diamond and on other principal thoroughfares tricky looking individuals were also noticed but they did nothing that would warrant arrest.

One attempted steal was reported at central station this morning. A well known resident of the city stated that a smooth looking man had been trying to pass a check on a farmer appearing man, corner of Second and Washington streets. The rustic gentleman had evidently read of gold brick operations and threatened to have the trickster run in. It is thought that the unusual scarcity of depredations reported is due to the warning given the public by the newspapers. The statement was made in the News Review of the coming of the crooks and every one has been wide awake, not allowing any stranger to get in very close range with them. Housewives have also benefited by the warning, locking their back doors securely while the parade was in line.

HANNA INTERESTED IN THE CENTENNIAL

The Senator Would Not Miss the Lisbon Celebration for Anything.

Lisbon, April 29.—(Special)—At the Salem banquet Monday evening, Senator C. C. Connell had some conversation with Senator Hanna, concerning the centennial celebration to be held in June. Senator Hanna manifested the greatest interest and said he would esteem it a great privilege to attend and that he would not miss it for anything. He expressed a wish that as many as possible of the old residents might be present.

The senator will be entertained at the home of ex-Congressman Taylor while here.

IN COURT NEXT WEEK

Several Cases of Local Interest Scheduled for a Hearing.

Lisbon, April 29.—(Special)—The following is the assignment of cases for next term in court:

Tuesday—E. W. Hill vs. W. E. Adams; in re claim of Charles E. Smith, treasurer, for fees on taxes; Frederick W. Miller vs. Arthur W. Thomas.

THE RAILROAD AND THE CITY

QUESTIONS INTERESTING BOTH TO BE DISCUSSED.

Supt. Scriven, of the C. & P., Will Meet Councilmanic Committee Friday.

Councilman George Peach received word last evening from Supt. Scriven, of the C. & P., stating that he would be in the city Friday to meet the railroad committee of council and perhaps the entire council. Mr. Scriven was notified a few days ago by City Clerk Davidson that council was ready to confer with him on the many matters that have arisen during the past few months, and his ready compliance in arranging to come to the city for that purpose shows that he is willing to have all matters settled amicably and anxious for an early meeting.

It is not known what the most important topics of discussion will be on the day of the conference. Mr. Peach predicts that the meeting will be one of harmony, and that the demands of council will at least be given fair and just consideration.

Lisbon, April 29.—(Special)—Lena D. Carlisle, of Lisbon, has preferred a charge against Edwin D. Shive, until recently a member of the firm of Cope & Shive, who conducted a notion store here. She seeks to attach property of Shive, said to be now in his former partner, L. R. Cope's, possession.

Miss Carlisle has been a clerk in the store for some months. Shive disappeared last week and the authorities have been unable to locate him.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

NEW POTTERY AT KOKOMO.

The Columbia Pottery & Manufacturing company, of Kokomo, Ind., was incorporated last week with a capital stock of $50,000. The incorporators are: President I. U. Miller; secretary, H. C. Waldman; treasurer, W. W. Drinkwater; superintendent, William Kurlow; assistant superintendent, Charles F. Bourne. Other stockholders are W. A. Russell, C. A. Dolman, B. F. Harbster and George Critchlow. The company will manufacture sanitary and general ware, and operations for the establishment of the plant have already begun. A two-story brick building is already on the site and with little difficulty can be converted into a factory. The main building will be 50x500 feet. Another building, which will be erected at once, is 84x126 feet.

President Miller and Manager Kurlow arrived in East Liverpool last night, and will spend several days here looking over the machinery in the local foundries. They may place the order for the equipment of the new plant in this city.

The company will employ upwards of 200 men, a number of whom will be secured from East Liverpool. Messrs. Kurlow and Bourne are well known practical potters. H. C. Waldman, secretary of the new company, has been an office man in the Great Western pottery at Kokomo for several years.

NEW YORK MARKETS.

While business in the local ware-rooms has fallen off somewhat during the last week, the dullness is generally looked upon as a circumstance to be expected at this season of the year. There are still enough buyers in town, however, to keep everybody quite busy and during this week, a resumption of the former brisk demand is anticipated. Mail orders have been coming in quite freely and a good inquiry is reported by the traveling men. It will soon be time for the summer hotels and cottages to place their orders for supplies, and altogether a good trade from now on may be expected.

Domestic crockery is more than ever in demand and the factories are reported to have more orders on their hands than they can attend to for some time. All the potteries are running on full time and some are even work-

A FLESH FORMING FOOD

When you buy a package of Mi-o-na, the great flesh-forming food and dyspepsia cure, weigh yourself and see how much you gain in the first week's use.

Druggist Will Reed will tell you of many of his customers who a month or so ago were thin, pale, haggard and dyspeptic, but who are now, through the use of Mi-o-na, plump, strong and happy, with perfect health and good digestion. He has seen so many instances of the wonderful power of Mi-o-na to restore the sick to health that he gives his personal guarantee with every package of Mi-o-na he sells to refund the money if the remedy does not prove satisfactory.

Mi-o-na is a purely vegetable preparation that can be used with absolute confidence by the most delicate. It gives remarkable results with children who are weak, run down and without appetite. It builds up the thin, pale, puny girl and woman to perfect plumpness and health. It is the only flesh-forming food of its kind, and in addition it strengthens the digestive organs, aids the food to digest, and makes complete and permanent cures of the worst cases of dyspepsia.

ing over time. There seems to be a special demand for the better grades of American ware and this in itself should prove an incentive to the manufacturers to turn out a grade of goods which should compete more favorably with the foreign article.

The same demand as last reported exists for English wares. Sales have been quite heavy, with some importers reporting an increased demand over that of last year. Decorated goods especially have been in marked demand, while English china has found a more profitable market here this year than ever before.

NO. 12 MET.

Jiggermen's local No. 12 met last night in Brotherhood hall to give the delegates to the national convention final instructions and transact much other important business. The attendance was large, evidencing the great interest that is being manifested by the men in the affairs of the trade. The candidacy of Frank Gratton, secretary of the local, for national secretary, is meeting with great favor among the men, with whom he is popular. His friends claim for him that a better qualified man for the position cannot be found in the organization.

IMPORT VALUATIONS.

Our importations of dutiable china, porcelain, parian and bisque ware, not decorated or ornamented, for the year ending June 30, 1902, amounted to $955,517 in value as compared with $1,894,577 on the same class of merchandise in 1892. The importations of decorated or ornamental ware for 1902 amount to $8,309,911, while in 1892 the value was $6,344,708. Importations of all other kinds of earthen and china-ware amounted to $414,728 in 1902 and to $469,313 in 1892.

NEW TINTING MACHINE.

An additional tinting machine will be installed at the Severs to better handle the increasing amount of business for this line of ware. The fan for the machine has been received and it will be ready for operation within a few days. The demand for the Severs decorated lines continues and the plant is in full operation.

FELL DOWN STAIRS.

Edward Beardmore, employed as a handmaker at the K. T. & K., fell down a flight of stairs at the plant yesterday morning and was rendered unconscious. He was taken to his home in an ambulance, where he soon recovered. He was not injured, aside from a few bruises and will be able to resume work in a few days.

PAINFULLY BURNED.

Orlando Ralston, decorating kiln fireman at the Severs, is working with his right forearm bandaged on account of severe burns received several days ago. He was taking down the door of one of the kilns when one of the bricks, intensely hot, fell, striking him on the arm, burning him painfully.

BRIEGLER RECOVERING.

Theodore Briegler, who was recently shot by Robert Surles at Sebring, has so far recovered as to be able to resume work, he taking his place at the bench in the French Monday. No arrests were made in the matter of the shooting, and it is not likely that any action of the kind will be taken.

SEBRING WEDDING.

Miss Myrtle Harrington, of Sebring, and James C. Speakman, of Alliance, were married one day last week by Rev. Morris Floyd, of the Sebring M. E. church. Mrs. Speakman was an employee of one of the Sebring plants and has many friends here.

AMONG THE WORKERS.

Charles Malone, of the Severs sagger shop, is laid up with a felon on his hand.

Mrs. Maggie Orr, of the biscuit warehouse at the Severs, is working out her notice.

John Webb, Jiggerman at the Severs, was leaving yesterday, owing to the illness of his mouldrunner.

Rafe O'Brien, mouldrunner at the Severs, has been laid up for the past two weeks with the mumps.

Thomas Fulmer, of the Severs, was off duty yesterday owing to the serious illness of a near relative.

FIERCE FOREST FIRES RAGING

Northern Michigan Threatened With Great Loss from Flames—Havoc Is General.

Alpena, Mich., April 29.—Reports from the surrounding country state that forest fires are raging more vigorously than ever, and that if rain does not fall soon the damage will be great. Many small towns along the line of the northern extension of the Detroit and Mackinac railroad are in immediate danger of destruction.

The atmosphere in the vicinity of Alpena and the surrounding country is almost unbearable. A call was sent to Alpena from Onaway for a fire engine to assist in fighting the flames. Dispatches from Traverse City state that the fire is threatening the summer resort's cottages in that vicinity. Word also comes from Cheboygan that forest fires in that county are raging and many small places are threatened. Both sides of Mullen lake are encompassed with fire. Fierce fires are raging 25 miles from Ishpeming and is doing great damage to farm buildings.

PRACTICAL TEMPERANCE

The most confirmed drunkards have been and are being reclaimed and fully cured by the Oppenheimer Treatment. Our claims are based on ten years' experience in the successful treatment of cases of alcoholism of all kinds.

Patient sleeps normally in three or five days. His system is restored to its normal condition after a few days' treatment, and all craving for whiskey or alcoholic stimulant is absolutely removed. His general health is positively improved. No hypodermics are employed. The patient's occupation is not interfered with. Residence at the Institute is optional in cases of alcoholism.

Drug additions are treated with equal success.

No. 720 Seventeenth St., WASHINGTON, D. C.

"If every suffering woman has the same experience with Wine of Cardui that I had, your medicine will be most popular. About a year ago I began to have a worn out tired feeling with lassitude, pains in the back and head which kept increasing every month. I felt that I needed something, but to get the right medicine was the trouble. I finally decided on your Wine of Cardui and only needed to take three bottles when I was fully recovered."

Miss Rose Owens.

WHEN Miss Rose Owens, who has a responsible position in the Government service at Washington, D. C., decided to try Wine of Cardui, she made a wise choice. Over a million women have been relieved of female weakness by this same Wine of Cardui. It is not a strong medicine but may be taken every day in the year by any woman with benefit. It does not force results, but corrects derangements of the menstrual system. It strengthens the nervous organs, gives tone to the bodily functions, acts directly on the genital organs, and is the finest tonic for women known to the science of medicine.

If you are a suffering woman we would say to you that Wine of Cardui seldom fails to completely cure any case of female ills. We say emphatically, it never fails to benefit. Every day hundreds of sufferers are writing to our Ladies' Advisory Department. The letters are opened by persons competent to give advice. Mrs. Jones was cured by following her by the Ladies' Advisory Department. Miss Owens was cured without advice by just buying a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui from her druggist and taking this great medicine in the privacy of her home. No doctor's examination, treatment or advice is necessary. You have read what these two cured women have written. Is this not enough to lead you to determine to be rid of suffering?

August 13, 1900, Mrs. W. H. Jones, of Cameron, Mo., writes: "I suffered terribly at monthly periods for three years. I would sometimes go for seven months with no flow at all. Now I have my health back again and am expecting to be confined in January. I cannot praise your medicine enough."

WINE of CARDUI

A million suffering women have found relief in Wine of Cardui.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

NEW POTTERY AT KOKOMO.

The Columbia Pottery & Manufacturing company, of Kokomo, Ind., was incorporated last week with a capital stock of $50,000. The incorporators are: President I. U. Miller; secretary, H. C. Waldman; treasurer, W. W. Drinkwater; superintendent, William Kurlow; assistant superintendent, Charles F. Bourne. Other stockholders are W. A. Russell, C. A. Dolman, B. F. Harbster and George Critchlow. The company will manufacture sanitary and general ware, and operations for the establishment of the plant have already begun. A two-story brick building is already on the site and with little difficulty can be converted into a factory. The main building will be 50x500 feet. Another building, which will be erected at once, is 8x126 feet.

President Miller and Manager Kurlow arrived in East Liverpool last night, and will spend several days here looking over the machinery in the local foundries. They may place the order for the equipment of the new plant in this city.

The company will employ upwards of 200 men, a number of whom will be secured from East Liverpool. Messrs. Kurlow and Bourne are well known practical potters. H. C. Waldman, secretary of the new company, has been an office man in the Great Western pottery at Kokomo for several years.

NEW YORK MARKETS.

While business in the local ware-houses has fallen off somewhat during the last week, the dullness is generally looked upon as a circumstance to be expected at this season of the year. There are still enough buyers in town, however, to keep everybody quite busy and during this week, a resumption of the former brisk demand is anticipated. Mail orders have been coming in quite freely and a good inquiry is reported by the traveling men. It will soon be time for the summer hotels and cottages to place their orders for supplies, and altogether a good trade from now on may be expected.

Domestic crockery is more than ever in demand and the factories are reported to have more orders on their hands than they can attend to for some time. All the potteries are running on full time and some are even working over time. There seems to be a special demand for the better grades of American ware and this in itself should prove an incentive to the manufacturers to turn out a grade of goods which should compete more favorably with the foreign article.

The same demand as last reported exists for English wares. Sales have been quite heavy, with some importers reporting an increased demand over that of last year. Decorated goods especially have been in marked demand, while English china has found a more profitable market here this year than ever before.

NO. 12 MET.

Jiggersmen's local No. 12 met last night in Brotherhood hall to give the delegates to the national convention final instructions and transact much other important business. The attendance was large, evidencing the great interest that is being manifested by the men in the affairs of the trade. The candidacy of Frank Gratton, secretary of the local, for national secretary, is meeting with great favor among the men, with whom he is popular. His friends claim for him that a better qualified man for the position cannot be found in the organization.

IMPORT VALUATIONS.

Our importations of dutiable china, porcelain, parian and bisque ware, not decorated or ornamented, for the year ending June 30, 1902, amounted to $355,517 in value as compared with $1,894,577 on the same class of merchandise in 1902. The importations of decorated or ornamented ware for 1902 amount to $8,309,911, while in 1902 the value was $6,344,708. Importations of all other kinds of earthen and china-ware amounted to $414,728 in 1902 and to $469,313 in 1902.

NEW TINTING MACHINE.

An additional tinting machine will be installed at the Sevres to better handle the increasing amount of business for this line of ware. The fan for the machine has been received and it will be ready for operation within a few days. The demand for the Sevres decorated lines continues and the plant is in full operation.

FELL DOWN STAIRS.

Edward Beardmore, employed as a handmaker at the K. T. & K., fell down a flight of stairs at the plant yesterday morning and was rendered unconscious. He was taken to his home in an ambulance, where he soon recovered. He was not injured, aside from a few bruises and will be able to resume work in a few days.

PAINFULLY BURNED.

Orlando Ralston, decorating kiln fireman at the Sevres, is working with his right forearm bandaged on account of severe burns received several days ago. He was taking down the door of one of the kilns when one of the bricks, intensely hot, fell, striking him on the arm, burning him painfully.

BRIEGLER RECOVERING.

Theodore Briegler, who was recently shot by Robert Surles at Sebring, has so far recovered as to be able to resume work, he taking his place at the bench in the French Monday. No arrests were made in the matter of the shooting, and it is not likely that any action of the kind will be taken.

SEBRING WEDDING.

Miss Myrtle Harrington, of Sebring, and James C. Speakman, of Alliance, were married one day last week by Rev. Morris Floyd, of the Sebring M. E. church. Mrs. Speakman was an employee of one of the Sebring plants and has many friends here.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

NEW POTTERY AT KOKOMO.

The Columbia Pottery & Manufacturing company, of Kokomo, Ind., was incorporated last week with a capital stock of $50,000. The incorporators are: President I. U. Miller; secretary, H. C. Waldman; treasurer, W. W. Drinkwater; superintendent, William Kurlow; assistant superintendent, Charles F. Bourne. Other stockholders are W. A. Russell, C. A. Dolman, B. F. Harbster and George Critchlow. The company will manufacture sanitary and general ware, and operations for the establishment of the plant have already begun. A two-story brick building is already on the site and with little difficulty can be converted into a factory. The main building will be 50x500 feet. Another building, which will be erected at once, is 8x125 feet.

President Miller and Manager Kurlow arrived in East Liverpool last night, and will spend several days here looking over the machinery in the local foundries. They may place the order for the equipment of the new plant in this city.

The company will employ upwards of 200 men, a number of whom will be secured from East Liverpool. Messrs. Kurlow and Bourne are well known practical potters. H. C. Waldman, secretary of the new company, has been an office man in the Great Western pottery at Kokomo for several years.

NEW YORK MARKETS.

While business in the local ware-rooms has fallen off somewhat during the last week, the dullness is generally looked upon as a circumstance to be expected at this season of the year. There are still enough buyers in town, however, to keep everybody quite busy and during this week, a resumption of the former brisk demand is anticipated. Mail orders have been coming in quite freely and a good inquiry is reported by the traveling men. It will soon be time for the summer hotels and cottages to place their orders for supplies, and altogether a good trade from now on may be expected.

Domestic crockery is more than ever in demand and the factories are reported to have more orders on their hands than they can attend to for some time. All the potteries are running on full time and some are even work-

A FLESH FORMING FOOD

When you buy a package of Mi-na, the great flesh-forming food and dyspepsia cure, weigh yourself and see how much you gain in the first week's use.

Druggist Will Reed will tell you of many of his customers who a month or so ago were thin, pale, haggard and dyspeptic, but who are now, through the use of Mi-na, plump, strong and happy, with perfect health and good digestion. He has seen so many instances of the wonderful power of Mi-na to restore the sick to health that he gives his personal guarantee with every package of Mi-na he sells to refund the money if the remedy does not prove satisfactory.

Mi-na is a purely vegetable preparation that can be used with absolute confidence by the most delicate. It gives remarkable results with children who are weak, run down and without appetite. It builds up the thin, pale, puny girl and woman to perfect plumpness and health. It is the only flesh-forming food of its kind, and in addition it strengthens the digestive organs, aids the food to digest, and makes complete and permanent cures of the worst cases of dyspepsia.

ing over time. There seems to be a special demand for the better grades of American ware and this in itself should prove an incentive to the manufacturers to turn out a grade of goods which should compete more favorably with the foreign article.

The same demand as last reported exists for English wares. Sales have been quite heavy, with some importers reporting an increased demand over that of last year. Decorated goods especially have been in marked demand, while English china has found a more profitable market here this year than ever before.

NO. 12 MET.

Jiggersmen's local No. 12 met last night in Brotherhood hall to give the delegates to the national convention final instructions and transact much other important business. The attendance was large, evidencing the great interest that is being manifested by the men in the affairs of the trade. The candidacy of Frank Gratton, secretary of the local, for national secretary, is meeting with great favor among the men, with whom he is popular. His friends claim for him that a better qualified man for the position cannot be found in the organization.

IMPORT VALUATIONS.

Our importations of dutiable china, porcelain, parian and bisque ware, not decorated or ornamented, for the year ending June 30, 1902, amounted to $955,517 in value as compared with $1,894,577 on the same class of merchandise in 1892. The importations of decorated or ornamental ware for 1902 amount to $8,309,911, while in 1892 the value was $6,344,708. Importations of all other kinds of earthen and china-ware amounted to $414,728 in 1902 and to $469,313 in 1892.

NEW TINTING MACHINE.

An additional tinting machine will be installed at the Sevres to better handle the increasing amount of business for this line of ware. The fan for the machine has been received and it will be ready for operation within a few days. The demand for the Sevres decorated lines continues and the plant is in full operation.

FELL DOWN STAIRS.

Edward Beardsmore, employed as a handmaker at the K. T. & K., fell down a flight of stairs at the plant yesterday morning and was rendered unconscious. He was taken to his home in an ambulance, where he soon recovered. He was not injured, aside from a few bruises and will be able to resume work in a few days.

PAINFULLY BURNED.

Orlando Ralston, decorating kiln fireman at the Sevres, is working with his right forearm bandaged on account of severe burns received several days ago. He was taking down the door of one of the kilns when one of the bricks, intensely hot, fell, striking him on the arm, burning him painfully.

BRIEGLER RECOVERING.

Theodore Briegler, who was recently shot by Robert Surles at Sebring, has so far recovered as to be able to resume work, he taking his place at the bench in the French Monday. No arrests were made in the matter of the shooting, and it is not likely that any action of the kind will be taken.

SEBRING WEDDING.

Miss Myrtle Harrington, of Sebring, and James C. Speakman, of Alliance, were married one day last week by Rev. Morris Floyd, of the Sebring M. E. church. Mrs. Speakman was an employee of one of the Sebring plants and has many friends here.

AMONG THE WORKERS.

Charles Malone, of the Sevres sagger shop, is laid up with a felon on his hand.

Mrs. Maggie Orr, of the biscuit warehouse at the Sevres, is working out her notice.

John Webb, Jiggerman at the Sevres, was leaving yesterday, owing to the illness of his mouldrunner.

Rafe O'Brien, mouldrunner at the Sevres, has been laid up for the past two weeks with the mumps.

Thomas Fulmer, of the Sevres, was off duty yesterday owing to the serious illness of a near relative.

FIERCE FOREST FIRES RAGING

Northern Michigan Threatened With Great Loss from Flames—Havoc Is General.

Alpena, Mich., April 29.—Reports from the surrounding country state that forest fires are raging more vigorously than ever, and that if rain does not fall soon the damage will be great. Many small towns along the line of the northern extension of the Detroit and Mackinaw railroad are in immediate danger of destruction.

The atmosphere in the vicinity of Alpena and the surrounding country is almost unbearable. A call was sent to Alpena from Onaway for a fire engine to assist in fighting the flames.

Dispatches from Traverse City state that the fire is threatening the summer resort's cottages in that vicinity. Wood also comes from Cheboygan that forest fires in that county are raging and many small places are threatened. Both sides of Mullen lake are encompassed with fire. Fierce fires are raging 25 miles from Ishpeming and is doing great damage to farm buildings.

MISS ROSE OWENS,

No. 720 Seventeenth St., WASHINGTON, D. C.

"If every suffering woman has the same experience with Wine of Cardui that I had, your medicine will be most popular. About a year ago I began to have a worn out tired feeling with lassitude, pains in the back and head which kept increasing every month. I felt that I needed something, but to get the right medicine was the trouble. I finally decided on your Wine of Cardui and only needed to take three bottles when I was fully recovered."

Miss Rose Owens.

WHEN Miss Rose Owens, who has a responsible position in the Government service at Washington, D. C., decided to try Wine of Cardui, she made a wise choice. Over a million women have been relieved of female weakness by this same Wine of Cardui. It is not a strong medicine but may be taken every day in the year by any woman with benefit. It does not force results, but corrects derangements of the menstrual organs. It strengthens the nervous system, gives tone to the bodily functions, acts directly on the genital organs, and is the finest tonic for women known to the science of medicine.

If you are a suffering woman we would say to you that Wine of Cardui seldom fails to completely cure any case of female ills. We say emphatically, it never fails to benefit. EAST END

SEWERAGE SYSTEM IS A PERPLEXING QUESTION

Street Paving Must Wait Until This More Important Matter Is Settled, Say Property Owners.

So great has been the growth of the East End, both in population and business enterprises, that the question of permanent improvements for the principal streets is receiving a great deal of attention. There is a strong sentiment for street paving among the property owners, but not under the present conditions, and any move in this direction will be bitterly opposed until the more important matter of a sewerage system is disposed of.

The topography of the section is such as to demand a system. The entire territory is almost as level as a floor, and there is not a single outlet for sewage. Numerous violations of the health laws of the city are reported to the sanitary officer, but in a great many cases he is powerless to act. These laws contemplate a sewerage system, and as the East End has none they are almost inoperative.

No satisfactory solution of the problem has yet been found, and it is perplexing the minds of many. An outlet for the sewer would necessarily have to be at some point below in the intake for the water works, which would necessitate the building of a long trunk line. This would put the property owners to an enormous expense, and some of them would not receive proportionate benefits.

YESTERDAY A BIG DAY FOR REAL ESTATE MEN

Block of Five Lots and Two Dwellings Changed Hands Through One Agency.

Transactions in East End real estate have commenced with a sudden vim after a sluggish market during the winter months. The predictions of an extensive growth for this section during the summer season are about to be realized. The growth promises to be even more extensive than was at first predicted. During the past week the real estate agents have had many inquiries about East End properties and yesterday was a red letter day for at least one of them. Walter Supplee, who has charge of the Midway Land company's addition and many other interests, closed eight sales yesterday.

The most important of this number was a fine residence on Mulberry street, which was taken by Dr. William J. Grimes, of New Somerset, Jefferson county. The consideration has not been made public. Dr. Grimes will have extensive improvements made on his purchase and when they are completed he will occupy it with his family. Dr. Grimes will locate in the East End for the practice of his profession. Mr. Supplee also sold a three-room cottage in the Purinton Land company's addition and a block of five lots in the Midway company's addition.

Mr. Supplee has responded to a large number of inquiries and he is confident that the market will continue active. Squire L. W. Carman, who is another extensive dealer in realty, has a number of sales partly closed. Alex. Chaffin is making sales of lots almost every day.

BUILDING NEW CHURCH

Work to Be Commenced This Morning on Second Christian Church Edifice on Maple Street.

Work on the foundation of the new Second Christian church edifice was commenced this morning at the lot owned by the church on Maple street. Rev. C. A. Kleeberger assisted in the work of establishing the lines. The members of the congregation have been aroused to a high pitch of enthusiasm through the eloquent appeals of Rev. Mr. Kleeberger, who is conducting a series of special meetings in Larkins' hall, and already quite a sum of money has been pledged. The edifice will not be an expensive one and is only intended to serve for a few years, when a more substantial one is to be built. The work will go forward as rapidly as possible on the new building.

YOUR MONEY RETURNED

If Hyomei Does Not Cure You of Catarrh, Says Will Reed.

In advertising that they will refund the money to any one purchasing a Hyomei outfit who can say that it has done them no good in the treatment of catarrh, Will Reed means exactly what this guarantee says.

Of course the percentage of cures by Hyomei is nearly one hundred or else he could not afford to make this unusual offer. But if the treatment should not be adapted to your case, there will be no questions or quibblings when you go to get your money. That the beginning of catarrh is due to the presence of germs in the air passages is now admitted by every physician. It stands to reason that catarrh cannot be cured unless these germs are first destroyed. The Hyomei treatment kills the catarrh germs even in the minutest air cells, soothes and heals the irritated mucous membrane and makes complete and lasting cures in cases that have resisted the usual methods of treatment.

Catarrh cannot be cured by medicines administered through the stomach. Hyomei is the only natural method and it has made cures that seem miraculous. An outfit costs but $1.00 and consists of an inhaler which will last a lifetime and sufficient Hyomei for more than a month's treatment. Additional bottles of Hyomei can be procured for 50c.

Will Reed gives his personal guarantee with every Hyomei outfit he sells to refund the money if it does not cure. There is no risk whatever to the purchaser of Hyomei.

OLD MAN SEEMS TO HAVE A VERY BAD CASE OF IT

Love Letters to a Neighbor's Wife Part of His Spouse's Divorce Petition.

Lisbon, April 29.—(Special).—

A sensational divorce petition has just been filed here by Attorney Charles S. Speaker in behalf of the plaintiff, Mrs. Emma Swearingen, of West township, who desires legal separation from James B. Swearingen. The plaintiff's husband has been enjoined from disposing of his half interest in a 101-acre farm in West township, the wife having included in her petition a request for alimony.

The petition contains copious extracts from a series of letters alleged to have been exchanged by Mr. Swearingen and Mrs. Harriet Ruff, a neighbor's wife, who is named as the co-respondent. Mrs. Swearingen says she was married to the defendant at East Rochester August 10, 1872. The three daughters born to them survive, two being married. She charges extreme cruelty, alleging in February, 1900, her husband laid violent hands on her and the present month threatened to throw her violently against an out-house and injure her. She has not lived with him since a discovery of a number of letters received from Mrs. Harriet Ruff. She says her husband has been visiting and showing attention to Mrs. Ruff, wife of Daniel Ruff, visiting her as often as four times a day. Stacks of letters passed between the defendant and Mrs. Ruff.

In these letters the defendant expresses his love and admiration for Mrs. Ruff most profusely, declaring that he is frequently in tears when he thinks of her, and of the pain of being separated from her. He says he walks around her house in the night crying bitterly, and that he fears his wife may see the tears trickling down his face. In one of the letters he says he had gone to East Rochester in the hope of seeing her there and then tried to plow, but could not work on account of his love for her. He says: "I am in the woods and it is almost dark, so I will have to write and say good night, my loved one, but I shall think of you all night I see you and write some more tomorrow."

For liver troubles and constipation there's nothing better in creation than Little Early Risers, the famous little pills.

That always effect a cure and save doctor bills. Little Early Risers are different from all other pills. They do not weaken the system, but act as a tonic to the tissues by arousing the secretions and restoring the liver to the full performance of its functions naturally.

May Day Strike Threatened.

Omaha, Neb., April 29.—Nearly 7,000 men, members of trades unions, threaten to strike next Monday unless their demands for increased wages shall be conceded by employers. These unions include teamsters, leather workers, waiters and cooks, brewery workers, structural iron men, freight package handlers, carpenters and plasterers. About 750 are already on strike and 850 teamsters already have declared a strike in case a settlement shall not be reached. Efforts are being made by many of the employers to settle with the men, while others refuse to consider their demands.

THE PREVAILING MODES.

Fawn and Gray Tones Smart-New Cape Ruffles Very Elaborate.

Fawn and pearl gray tones are even more popular than ever this spring. The goods for dressy wear are of smooth surface, while those employed for the little walking costumes are of rough cheviot or Scotch materials. The flat stoles of feathers which are seen in the shops at present will not retain their popularity, for they are utterly unsatisfactory as wraps and too flat and hard to be either graceful or becoming. This summer we shall see elaborate editions of the cape ruffle in velvet or lace and chiffon and in glaze silk with tiny borders of feathers or chenille.

For those who dress their hair high and adopt the present mode of flat shoulders something fussy round the neck is absolutely necessary. The new hats with spreading brims in front also make the broad ruffle indispensable.

The cut shows a smart street costume of the fashionable shades of fawn cloth.

NEW HATS AND FRILLS.

White Silk and Satin Shapes—The New Capes.

Many of the new hats are of the picture order, but have flat crowns, and are trimmed tolerably low with an osprey or egret in front.

The new shapes are shown in silk or satin incrustated with ivory motifs or ecru lace and bound with velvet. Two large choix of satin or two feather pompons are usually placed in front, but feathers droop on the sides of some and large velvet lilies or orchids are wreathed on others.

There are some figures to whom the new capes or pelerines are becoming.

GOWN OF WHITE NUN'S VEILING.

but for the average woman they are in nowise desirable, as they add to the width and detract from the height. Lace will be much used on spring gowns; and the newest motifs and applique designs show a combination of guipure passementerie and embroidery, or chine or pompadour medallions sometimes take the place of the embroidery.

Very smart arrangements of jet intermingled with black chiffon characterize the black lace gowns. Pretty fichus of black chiffon are trimmed with narrow black velvet bows, and these have tiny paste buckles in the center of each bow.

Nun's veiling is a material very much in fashion just now, especially in the paler shades.

The cut shows a gown of this material in white.

A TRUE STORY.

How a Young Wife Regained Her Health and Beauty.

W. E. Birch, Afton, Va., an extensive fruit grower of that place, writes the following letter to the Peruna Medicine Co., of Columbus, Ohio. We print the letter in full:

Afton, Va., June 4, 1900.

Gentlemen—"The country is so flooded with patent medicines of every kind that are worthless and a humbug, that I for one, am glad to be able to say I have found one that is everything and more than is claimed for it.

"My wife was very much run down and out of sorts in every way. She had a pelvic disorder which left her very weak, nervous and no appetite at all.

"One day I happened to be at my father's store, S. A. Birch, Coresville, Alb county, Va., and noticed your medicine he had there for sale.

"I thought it might help my wife, so I bought a bottle of it home and within a week she commenced to eat and now she is hungry all the time and not half the medicine has been taken. We both agree that it beats any medicine to bring on an appetite and to put the nerves in good shape that we have ever had anything to do with. We had our family doctor to give her medicine and he did all he could, but she did not improve the least. She has consumption in her family and she was in such bad shape; so run down, nervous, weak, and could not eat, that I had begun to get very uneasy, but your medicine made an entirely new woman of her. I believe she eats and feels better now than she has for years.

"I have not the slightest doubt but that your medicine has saved her from a long spell of sickness, if nothing more. All my family had begun to get uneasy, but, of course, she did not know it and I have only just told her of it since she has improved so much. I had no idea it would do half what it has and don't think there is another medicine made that will begin to compare with it."—W. E. Birch, Fruit Grower, Afton, Alb county, Va.

EAST END

SEWERAGE SYSTEM IS A PERPLEXING QUESTION

Street Paving Must Wait Until This More Important Matter Is Settled, Say Property Owners.

So great has been the growth of the East End, both in population and business enterprises, that the question of permanent improvements for the principal streets is receiving a great deal of attention. There is a strong sentiment for street paving among the property owners, but not under the present conditions, and any move in this direction will be bitterly opposed until the more important matter of a sewerage system is disposed of.

The topography of the section is such as to demand a system. The entire territory is almost as level as a floor, and there is not a single outlet for sewage. Numerous violations of the health laws of the city are reported to the sanitary officer, but in a great many cases he is powerless to act. These laws contemplate a sewerage system, and as the East End has none they are almost inoperative.

No satisfactory solution of the problem has yet been found, and it is perplexing the minds of many. An outlet for the sewer would necessarily have to be at some point below in the intake for the water works, which would necessitate the building of a long trunk line. This would put the property owners to an enormous expense, and some of them would not receive proportionate benefits.

YESTERDAY A BIG DAY FOR REAL ESTATE MEN

Block of Five Lots and Two Dwellings Changed Hands Through One Agency.

Transactions in East End real estate have commenced with a sudden vim after a sluggish market during the winter months. The predictions of an extensive growth for this section during the summer season are about to be realized. The growth promises to be even more extensive than was at first predicted. During the past week the real estate agents have had many inquiries about East End properties and yesterday was a red letter day for at least one of them. Walter Supplee, who has charge of the Midway Land company's addition and many other interests, closed eight sales yesterday.

The most important of this number was a fine residence on Mulberry street, which was taken by Dr. William J. Grimes, of New Somerset, Jefferson county. The consideration has not been made public. Dr. Grimes will have extensive improvements made on his purchase and when they are completed he will occupy it with his family. Dr. Grimes will locate in the East End for the practice of his profession. Mr. Supplee also sold a three-room cottage in the Purinton Land company's addition and a block of five lots in the Midway company's addition.

Mr. Supplee has responded to a large number of inquiries and he is confident that the market will continue active. Squire L. W. Carman, who is another extensive dealer in realty, has a number of sales partly closed. Alex. Chaffin is making sales of lots almost every day.

Work to Be Commenced This Morning on Second Christian Church Edifice on Maple Street.

Work on the foundation of the new Second Christian church edifice was commenced this morning at the lot owned by the church on Maple street. Rev. C. A. If Hyomei Does Not Cure You of Catarrh, Says Will Reed.

In advertising that they will refund the money to any one purchasing a Hyomei outfit who can say that it has done them no good in the treatment of catarrh, Will Reed means exactly what this guarantee says.

Of course the percentage of cures by Hyomei is nearly one hundred or else he could not afford to make this unusual offer. But if the treatment should not be adapted to your case, there will be no questions or quibblings when you go to get your money.

That the beginning of catarrh is due to the presence of germs in the air passages is now admitted by every physician. It stands to reason that catarrh cannot be cured unless these germs are first destroyed. The Hyomei treatment kills the catarrh germs even in the minutest air cells, soothes and heals the irritated mucous membrane and makes complete and lasting cures in cases that have resisted the usual methods of treatment.

Catarrh cannot be cured by medicines administered through the stomach. Hyomei is the only natural method and it has made cures that seem miraculous. An outfit costs but $1.00 and consists of an inhaler which will last a lifetime and sufficient Hyomei for more than a month's treatment. Additional bottles of Hyomei can be procured for 50c.

Will Reed gives his personal guarantee with every Hyomei outfit he sells to refund the money if it does not cure. There is no risk whatever to the purchaser of Hyomei.

Love Letters to a Neighbor's Wife Part of His Spouse's Divorce Petition.

Lisbon, April 29.—(Special.)—

A sensational divorce petition has just been filed here by Attorney Charles S. Speaker in behalf of the plaintiff, Mrs. Emma Swearingen, of West township, who desires legal separation from James B. Swearingen. The plaintiff's husband has been enjoined from disposing of his half interest in a 101-acre farm in West township, the wife having included in her petition a request for alimony.

The petition contains copious extracts from a series of letters alleged to have been exchanged by Mr. Swearingen and Mrs. Harriet Ruff, a neighbor's wife, who is named as the co-respondent. Mrs. Swearingen says she was married to the defendant at East Rochester August 10, 1872. The three daughters born to them survive, two being married. She charges extreme cruelty, alleging in February, 1900, her husband laid violent hands on her and the present month threatened to throw her violently against an out-house and injure her. She has not lived with him since a discovery of a number of letters received from Mrs. Harriet Ruff. She says her husband has been visiting and showing attention to Mrs. Ruff, wife of Daniel Ruff, visiting her as often as four times a day. Stacks of letters passed between the defendant and Mrs. Ruff.

In these letters the defendant expresses his love and admiration for Mrs. Ruff most profusely, declaring that he is frequently in tears when he thinks of her, and of the pain of being separated from her. He says he walks around her house in the night crying bitterly, and that he fears his wife may see the tears trickling down his face. In one of the letters he says he had gone to East Rochester in the hope of seeing her there and then tried to plow, but could not work on account of his love for her. He says: "I am in the woods and it is almost dark, so I will have to write and say good night, my loved one, but I shall think of you all night till I see you and write some more tomorrow."

For liver troubles and constipation there's nothing better in creation than Little Early Risers, the famous little pills.

That always effect a cure and save doctor bills. Little Early Risers are different from all other pills. They do not weaken the system, but act as a tonic to the tissues by arousing the secretions and restoring the liver to the full performance of its functions naturally.

May Day Strike Threatened.

Omaha, Neb., April 29.—Nearly 2,000 men, members of trades unions, threaten to strike next Monday unless their demands for increased wages shall be conceded by employers. These unions include teamsters, leather workers, waiters and cooks, brewery workers, structural iron men, freight package handlers, carpenters and plasterers. About 750 are already on strike and 850 teamsters already have declared a strike in case a settlement shall not be reached. Efforts are being made by many of the employers to settle with the men, while others refuse to consider their demands.

A daughter was born yesterday to Mr. and Mrs. John Dexter, of High street.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McClure, of Helena, is seriously ill with pneumonia.

Mrs. L. W. Haney, of First avenue, is dangerously ill with an attack of neuralgia of the heart.

Cliver McKinnon, George Harris, Levi Bolton and several others are spending the day fishing in Little Beaver.

Several of the property owners along Ohio avenue will have flag stone paving laid in front of their residences. The material was shipped several weeks ago from Berea and is expected daily.

The social session given by the P. H. C. last evening was thoroughly enjoyed by the large crowd in attendance. An excellent musical and literary program and tempting refreshments added to the pleasures of the evening.

COUNTY AND NEIGHBORHOOD

Joel H. Smith, aged 73, a veteran of the Fifty-second O. V. L., is dead at his home in Smithfield.

C. A. Sims & Co. are about to begin double tracking the C. & P. main line from Wellsville to Alliance.

A bank with $25,000 capital is proposed for Inrondale. A. Solomon, of Columbus, says he will take half of the stock.

Secretary Max P. Goodman, of the Youngstown & Ohio River Railroad & Light company, is endeavoring to lease coal land near Teegarden.

Charles Rudolph, colored, who broke open a store window at Mingo and stole revolvers, was sentenced to the penitentiary for 18 months.

Conductor Thomas Kerr, recently assaulted on a train at Empire, is reported out of danger at Mercy hospital, Pittsburg. He has lost the sight of one eye.

The Martin's Ferry board of education awarded the $60,000 high school bonds to Seasongood & Mayer, of Cincinnati, at their bid of $83,017. Many brokerage firms were in competition.

The eighty-fifth convention of the Middle conference, Pittsburg synod of the Evangelical Lutheran church, will be held in St. Paul's German Lutheran church, Rochester, Pa., Rev. G. A. Fechner, pastor, May 4 to 6.

Hartman Gusto, a wealthy citizen of Cadiz, is dead at the age of 80 years. He was formerly an Ohio river steamboat captain. His remains were taken to McKeesport, Pa., for burial. He recently gained notoriety by giving his young wife $15,000 to go her way.

A Prisoner in Her House.

Mrs. W. H. Lavha, of 1001 Agnes avenue, Kansas City, Mo., has for several years been troubled with severe headaches and at times a hard cough, which she says, "Would keep me in doors for days. I was prescribed for by physicians with no noticeable results. A friend gave me a part of a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with instructions to closely follow the directions and I wish to state that after the first day I could notice a decided change for the better, and at this time after using it for two weeks, have no hesitation in saying I realize that I am entirely cured. From this time on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will be in my house constantly." This remedy is for sale by Alvin H. Bulger.

Lisbon, April 29.—(Special).—

A sensational divorce petition has just been filed here by Attorney Charles S. Speaker in behalf of the plaintiff, Mrs. Emma Swearingen, of West township, who desires legal separation from James B. Swearingen. The plaintiff's husband has been enjoined from disposing of his half interest in a 101-acre farm in West township, the wife having included in her petition a request for alimony.

The petition contains copious extracts from a series of letters alleged to have been exchanged by Mr. Swearingen and Mrs. Harriet Ruff, a neighbor's wife, who is named as the co-respondent. Mrs. Swearingen says she was married to the defendant at East Rochester August 10, 1872. The three daughters born to them survive, two being married. She charges extreme cruelty, alleging in February, 1900, her husband laid violent hands on her and the present month threatened to throw her violently against an out-house and injure her. She has not lived with him since a discovery of a number of letters received from Mrs. Harriet Ruff. She says her husband has been visiting and showing attention to Mrs. Ruff, wife of Daniel Ruff, visiting her as often as four times a day. Stacks of letters passed between the defendant and Mrs. Ruff.

In these letters the defendant expresses his love and admiration for Mrs. Ruff most profusely, declaring that he is frequently in tears when he thinks of her, and of the pain of being separated from her. He says he walks around her house in the night crying bitterly, and that he fears his wife may see the tears trickling down his face. In one of the letters he says he had gone to East Rochester in the hope of seeing her there and then tried to plow, but could not work on account of his love for her. He says: "I am in the woods and it is almost dark, so I will have to write and say good night, my loved one, but I shall think of you all night till I see you and write some more tomorrow."

For liver troubles and constipation there's nothing better in creation than Little Early Risers, the famous little pills.

That always effect a cure and save doctor bills. Little Early Risers are different from all other pills. They do not weaken the system, but act as a tonic to the tissues by arousing the secretions and restoring the liver to the full performance of its functions naturally.

May Day Strike Threatened.

Omaha, Neb., April 29.—Near 2,000 men, members of trades unions, threaten to strike next Monday unless their demands for increased wages shall be conceded by employers. These unions include teamsters, leather workers, waiters and cooks, brewery workers, structural iron men, freight package handlers, carpenters and plasterers. About 750 are already on strike and 850 teamsters already have declared a strike in case a settlement shall not be reached. Efforts are being made by many of the employers to settle with the men, while others refuse to consider their demands.

THE PREVAILING MODES.

Fawn and Gray Tones Smart—New Cape Ruffles Very Elaborate.

Fawn and pearl gray tones are even more popular than ever this spring. The goods for dressy wear are of smooth surface, while those employed for the little walking costumes are of rough cheviot or Scotch materials. The flat stoles of feathers which are seen in the shops at present will not retain their popularity, for they are utterly unsatisfactory as wraps and too flat and hard to be either graceful or becoming. This summer we shall see elaborate editions of the cape ruffe in velvet or lace and chiffon and in glaze silk with tiny borders of feathers or chenille.

For those who dress their hair high and adopt the present mode of flat shoulders something fussy round the neck is absolutely necessary. The new hats with spreading brims in front also make the broad ruffe indispensable.

The cut shows a smart street costume of the fashionable shades of fawn cloth.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

NEW HATS AND FRILLS.

White Silk and Satin Shapes—The New Capes.

Many of the new hats are of the picture order, but have flat crowns, and are trimmed tolerably low with an osprey or egret in front.

The new shapes are shown in silk or satin incrustated with ivory motifs or ecru lace and bound with velvet. Two large choix of satin or two feather pompons are usually placed in front, but feathers droop on the sides of some and large velvet lilies or orchids are wreathed on others.

There are some figures to whom the new capes or pelerines are becoming.

GOWN OF WHITE NUN'S VEILING.

but for the average woman they are in no wise desirable, as they add to the width and detract from the height. Lace will be much used on spring gowns, and the newest motifs and applique designs show a combination of guipure passementerie and embroidery, or chine or pompadour medallions sometimes take the place of the embroidery.

Very smart arrangements of jet intermingled with black chiffon characterize the black lace gowns. Pretty fichus of black chiffon are trimmed with narrow black velvet bows, and these have tiny paste buckles in the center of each bow.

Nun's veiling is a material very much in fashion just now, especially in the paler shades.

The cut shows a gown of this material in white.

Handmade Philosophy.

Ingeniousness in a pretty girl is inquisitiveness to a homely one. Some people show a friendly interest in our affairs, while others are trying to attend to our business.

Some people seem to delight in learning how we are getting along and others want to know too much.

Yet they all ask the same questions.

A TRUE STORY.

How a Young Wife Regained Her Health and Beauty.

W. E. Birch, Afton, Va., an extensive fruit grower of that place, writes the following letter to the Peruna Medicine Co., of Columbus, Ohio. We print the letter in full:

Afton, Va., June 4, 1900.

The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, O.: Gentlemen—"The country is so flooded with patent medicines of every kind that I am glad to be able to say I have found one that is everything and more than is claimed for it.

"My wife was very much run down and out of sorts in every way. She had a pelvic disorder which left her very weak, nervous and no appetite at all. "One day I happened to be at my father's store, S. A. Birch, Coresville, Alb county, Va., and noticed your medicine he had there for sale.

"I thought it might help my wife, so I brought a bottle of it home and within a week she commenced to eat and now she is hungry all the time and not half the medicine has been taken. We both agree that it beats any medicine to bring on an appetite and to put the nerves in good shape that we have ever had anything to do with. We had our family doctor to give her medicine and he did all he could, but she did not improve the least. She has consumption in her family and she was in such bad shape; so run down, nervous, weak, and could not eat, that I had begun to get very uneasy, but your medicine made an entirely new woman of her. I believe she eats and feels better now than she has for years.

"I have not the slightest doubt but that your medicine has saved her from a long spell of sickness, if nothing more. All my family had begun to get uneasy, but, of course, she did not know it and I have only just told her of it since she has improved so much. I had no idea it would do half what it has and don't think there is another medicine made that will begin to compare with it."—W. E. Birch, Fruit Grower, Afton, Alb county, Va.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Said General Miles at the good roads convention in St. Louis: "I know of no one element of civilization in our country that has been more neglected and yet is susceptible of bestowing a greater blessing on people than improvement of our lines of communication and avenues of internal commerce. Our government has expended $500,000,000 for the improvement of our harbors and waterways, and now the attention of the public is being called to our postal roads and avenues of communication that are most useful and important to all our people." General Miles is often criticised for his utterances on military subjects, but here are words to which nobody can take exception. National, state, county and township interests are all involved in the improved roads question. There is beginning to be a lively interest manifested, but still the great popular awakening that will be necessary before any great progress is made seems remote. The fact that the country is many years if not centuries behind the age in this absolute essential to progress should arouse something more than spasmodic effort. There should be more than a national good roads association. County and township leagues should be formed and try to inform themselves as to the best methods of road building and arouse public interest in the matter. The government is doing much in this direction, but it cannot do everything. Those who are not willing to help themselves seldom get help. The people must be taught the benefits and advantages of better roads and the necessity for them. The great convention at St. Louis should have a powerful stimulus in this direction, but the effort must be sustained or the results will be of minor importance.

The Boston Globe, a Democratic organ which perhaps has heaped as much abuse on the head of Senator Hanna as any newspaper in the country, is now constrained to speak in his praise. It says: "Hanna believes in the mutual interest of employer and employe, a proposition that nobody is disposed to deny. The problem is to get them together. But Hanna as an employer himself is a standing rebuke to the nothing-to-arbitrate fraternity, and is doing much good as an industrial pacificator. He should devote some of his beneficent talks to those business men in the west who are organizing for the sole and avowed purpose of preventing honest workmen from organizing."

The little republic of Cuba is in a peculiarly favorable condition. She has had good luck during her eleven months of life as an independent government. She can look forward to annexation to the United States whenever she gives the word. This combination of happy circumstances ought to satisfy the most fastidious of her citizens. Not every new country starts out under such auspicious circumstances. There is good reason to believe that these things are having a pleasing effect on the minds of her thoughtful citizens.

In twenty-five working days the United States mint at Philadelphia coined 2,500,000 silver pesos, the size of a dollar, for the Philippines, together with 100,000 bronze pieces and 3,600,000 nickels, also for the islands. Uncle Sam loses no time in living up to the new geographical requirements.

China cannot resist Russian encroachment without outside aid, and there will be a sad entangling of international alliances if she gets such aid.

Peace with the czar means letting him have his own way.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Harriet Brunt Thompson.

Harriet Brunt Thompson, aged 75 years, the wife of Dr. W. L. Thompson, died at 9:15 o'clock last night at the family home, corner Market and Fourth streets. A little more than a week ago Mrs. Thompson suffered a stroke of paralysis and her general health began to fail. Last Sunday she became unconscious and remained in that condition until death resulted at the hour stated. Mrs. Thompson was a member of one of the pioneer families of this section and had been a resident of this city almost all the years of her life. Her father, William Brunt, Sr., was one of the pioneer pottery manufacturers of the west. Her husband and one child, Mrs. George D. Blackmore, and the following brothers and sister survive her: William and Henry Brunt and Mrs. William Bloor. The funeral services will be held from the residence tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

James Hanlon.

James Hanlon, aged 66 years, a venerable and highly respected citizen, died yesterday afternoon at the home of his son, James P. Hanlon, of Lincoln avenue, after an illness of about six weeks. The funeral services will be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock in St. Aloysius' church, and the interment will follow in St. Aloysius' cemetery. Mr. Hanlon came to this city from Cincinnati in the year 1874, and was employed as a presser in the local potteries until a short time ago. His last employment was at the Pioneer plant in Wellsville. He was known as one of the most skilled workmen in the district. He is survived by three sons, Edward H. and Samuel C., of Tiffin, and James P., of Lincoln avenue.

FRIENDS AND VISITORS

Undertaker C. N. Miller was at Salineville today.

Mrs. Jacob Stein is spending a few days in Pittsburg.

Miss Maude Steele has returned from a visit to Beaver Falls friends.

John West is ill at his home on Bank street, suffering with the grip.

Mrs. Anna Laughlin, mother of Prof. H. F. Laughlin, is seriously ill at the latter's home.

Miss Lillian Miller has been called to her home in Coshocton, owing to the serious illness of her mother.

Mrs. James McKenna, of Denver street, is at Cambridge, O., on account of the illness of Mr. McKenna's mother.

Mrs. Robert Barr, of Seventh street, is very ill. She is afflicted with typhoid fever and it is feared she cannot recover.

R. G. Shenkel, who has been taking treatment at Cambridge Springs for several weeks, is expected home Sunday. Mr. Shenkel is greatly improved in health.

Edward Geon, who has been confined to his home on Lincoln avenue for the past few weeks with an attack of typhoid fever, was able to be out yesterday for the first time.

M. C. Wright, secretary of the Y. M. C. A., continues quite seriously ill. He is suffering from a severe cold and gastric fever and his physician says it will be at least a week before he can leave his room.

Why the Idea?

Mrs. Gossip—It's shameful the way papers are filled with details about other people's affairs.

Mrs. Gusher—I've often thought so too.

Mrs. Gossip (ten minutes later)—Why, this paper hasn't one word about the De Smartes' divorce case.

Mrs. Gusher—Why, how absurd!—Chelsea (Mass.) Gazette.

Why She Stood.

"Madam," said the conductor to the plain and somewhat elderly woman standing up in the street car, "why don't you ask one of these men to give you his seat?"

"Because," she answered, grimly sarcastic, "I haven't the face to do it!"—Chicago Tribune.

Force of Habit.

"Are you the man," she sadly asked, "who sells the monuments?"

"I am," he replied.

"Well, I want to see about getting one for my husband. Could I have it sent out, and if it doesn't fit would you take it back?"—Chicago Record-Herald.

Don't fool with a cold; no one can tell what the end may be. Pneumonia, catarrh, chronic bronchitis and consumption invariably result from neglected colds. Nothing can be compared with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as a quick cure for colds and influenza, and by its use these diseases may be avoided. For sale by Alvin H. Bulger.

CANADA'S INDUSTRIAL OUTLOOK

Invasion of American Capital Promises to Make Present Year Memorable.

Montreal, April 29.—United States Consul General Bittinger says that never before in the history of Canada has the industrial outlook been so bright. American capital promises to make the present year memorable by the establishment of new and immense enterprises and the enlargement of many of those now existing.

American capitalists have started new railroads and banks, and vast tracts of timber land has been purchased by a new company composed principally of Americans. Different companies have begun to mine coal, copper, nickel and gold, and a large company has purchased a tract of land in Montreal on which to erect a paint factory. Syndicates have been formed for the purpose of manufacturing pulp, timber, seedling machines, aluminum, iron, steel and asbestos. Valuable mica properties in the provinces of Ontario and Quebec recently have been purchased by United States capitalists. An American transportation company has begun to build ships to be operated between Duluth, Minn., and Quebec, and many other investments have been made of American capital.

Adventists Heed Prophecies.

Battle Creek, Mich., April 29.—After a fight lasting more than a week the stockholders of the Seventh Day Adventists publishing house here decided to move the plant east, the name of the city not yet decided upon. This action shows that the majority of the stockholders believed in Mrs. Ellen White, a leading prophetess of the society, who predicted disaster if the plant was not moved and the Adventists colonized here do not scatter to various parts of the country. It is believed the action taken will have a tendency to split the denomination into two factions.

Britt Declared Winner.

San Francisco, April 29.—Referee Eddie Grady declared Jimmy Britt the winner of one of the fastest and best fights ever seen in San Francisco. Willie Fitzgerald, of Brooklyn, was the man who put up the good contest against the California wonder. Britt was the cleverest of the men and landed two blows to Fitzgerald's one. With the exception of the last round, when Fitzgerald put the San Francisco boy on his knees with a left swing on the jaw, Britt's superiority was manifested during the entire fight.

Cause of Smallpox.

Boston, April 29.—The announcement of the discovery of the cause of smallpox was made by Dr. William T. Councilman, professor of pathology in the Harvard medical society at a meeting of the Boston society of the medical science. It has been determined that smallpox is caused by a micro-organism representative of the lowest form of animal life. This fact serves to show a relation between smallpox and such diseases as malaria and to distinguish it from many other infectious diseases caused by bacteria.

Laundry Plant Burned.

Philadelphia, April 29.—The seven-story building at Camac street and Columbia avenue, occupied by the Forest laundry, was entirely destroyed by fire. C. J. Miller, the proprietor of the plant, estimated his loss at $100,000, on which there is $50,000 insurance.

Death of Well-Known Horseman.

Louisville, April 29.—"Buck" Franklin, of Tennessee, a widely known horseman, died here of bladder trouble. He trained many winners.

Good For Children.

The pleasant to take and harmless One Minute Cough Cure gives immediate relief in all cases of cough, croup, and lagrippe because it does not pass immediately into the stomach, but takes effect right at the seat of the trouble. It draws out the inflammation, heals and soothes and cures permanently by enabling the lungs to contribute pure life-giving and life-sustaining oxygen to the blood and tissues.

AT THE THEATER

"As You Like It." Alberta Gallatin and her superb Shakespearean company will be seen at the Grand May 5. Already about 200 seats have been sold by the manager, who has been in the city for a week. Miss Gallatin is the acknowledged "Rosalind," according to the best critics of the leading papers of today. The manager of the Grand is to be congratulated after hard efforts to get this delightful comedy.

A straight legitimate farce by the greatest farce writer of the age, H. A. DuSouchet, produced by Myron B. Rice, with all its original contents, "My Friend from India." This comedy, unlike most productions of its class, has a plot of coherence and action and is brimming with clean fun from start to finish. Its engagement here is for next Tuesday at the Grand.

An early attraction at the Grand opera house will be the great religious drama, "The Sign of the Cross," which continues to meet with so much success. The company which will be seen here is composed almost entirely of English artists, and are the same that have been with this attraction both here and in England.

Tolstoi's latest masterpiece, dramatized by Charles W. Chase from the original Russian manuscript, will be presented at the Grand at an early date by an exceptionally clever company. This will undoubtedly be the event of the season.

Stellion Grass.

In Sicily there is a wild grass which, when ripe at the end of summer, is gathered by the peasantry, tied in bundles and set on fire, not, however, to be consumed, but for a mere searching. The flame flies rapidly through the night bushes and beard of the plant and leaves the seeds slightly roasted, in which state they are eaten with considerable relish by numbers of the rural population.

The botanical name of this Sicilian grass is stellion, or goaseye, the Greeks having believed it to be a remedy for a disease that appears in one corner of the eye. There are three or four species growing all around the Mediterranean as well as in the islands, chiefly on the hot, dry, sandy plains near the sea. They flourish even on the scorched volcanic soils, in strange contrast to their arid and barren surroundings, showing that the vital principle in them is unusually energetic and proof against extremes of heat.

Church Notes.

"Didn't the minister feel it when so many in the congregation fell asleep during the sermon?"

"Oh, no. It encouraged him to keep on."

"How so?"

"Why, he was egotistical enough to think they were nodding approval at what he said."

Tame Trout.

An English gentleman had some trout in a piece of water close to his front door. On one occasion he held a worm near the surface of the water. A large trout jumped at the worm and seizing hold of his fingers, cut them to the bone with its teeth by its own weight.

Said General Miles at the good roads convention in St. Louis: "I know of no one element of civilization in our country that has been more neglected and yet is susceptible of bestowing a greater blessing on people than improvement of our lines of communication and avenues of internal commerce. Our government has expended $500,000,000 for the improvement of our harbors and waterways, and now the attention of the public is being called to our postal roads and avenues of communication that are most useful and important to all our people." General Miles is often criticized for his utterances on military subjects, but here are words to which nobody can take exception. National, state, county and township interests are all involved in the improved roads question. There is beginning to be a lively interest manifested, but still the great popular awakening that will be necessary before any great progress is made seems remote. The fact that the country is many years in front of centuries behind the age in this absolute essential to progress should arouse something more than spasmodic effort. There should be more than a national good roads association. County and township leagues should be formed and try to inform themselves as to the best methods of road building and arouse public interest in the matter. The government is doing much in this direction, but it cannot do everything. Those who are not willing to help themselves seldom get help. The people must be taught the benefits and advantages of better roads and the necessity for them. The great convention at St. Louis should have a powerful stimulus in this direction, but the effort must be sustained or the results will be of minor importance.

The Boston Globe, a Democratic organ which perhaps has heaped as much abuse on the head of Senator

Hanna as any newspaper in the country, is now constrained to speak in his praise. It says: "Hanna believes in the mutual interest of employer and employee, a proposition that nobody is disposed to deny. The problem is to get them together. But Hanna as an employer himself is a standing rebuke to the nothing-to-arbitrate fraternity, and is doing much good as an industrial pacifier. He should devote some of his beneficent talks to those business men in the west who are organizing for the sole and avowed purpose of preventing honest workmen from organizing."

The little republic of Cuba is in a peculiarly favorable condition. She has had good luck during her eleven months of life as an independent government. She can look forward to an annexation to the United States whenever she gives the word. This combination of happy circumstances ought to satisfy the most fastidious of her citizens. Not every new country starts out under such auspicious circumstances. There is good reason to believe that these things are having a pleasing effect on the minds of her thoughtful citizens.

In twenty-five working days the United States mint at Philadelphia coined 2,500,000 silver pesos, the size of a dollar, for the Philippines, together with 100,000 bronze pieces and 3,- 600,000 nickels, also for the islands.

Uncle Sam loses no time in living up to the new geographical requirements.

China cannot resist Russian encroachment without outside aid, and there will be a sad entangling of international alliances if she gets such aid.

Peace with the czar means letting him have his own way.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Harriet Brunt Thompson.

Harriet Brunt Thompson, aged 75 years, the wife of Dr. W. L. Thompson, died at 9:15 o'clock last night at the family home, corner Market and Fourth streets. A little more than a week ago Mrs. Thompson suffered a stroke of paralysis and her general health began to fail. Last Sunday she became unconscious and remained in that condition until death resulted at the hour stated. Mrs. Thompson was a member of one of the pioneer families of this section and had been a resident of this city almost all the years of her life. Her father, William

Brunt, Sr., was one of the pioneer pottery manufacturers of the west. Her husband and one child, Mrs. George

D. Blackmore, and the following brothers and sister survive her: William and Henry Brunt and Mrs. William

Bloor. The funeral services will be held from the residence tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

James Hanlon.

James Hanlon, aged 66 years, a venerable and highly respected citizen, died yesterday afternoon at the home of his son, James P. Hanlon, of Lincoln avenue, after an illness of about six weeks. The funeral services will be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock in St. Aloysius' church, and the interment will follow in St. Aloysius' cemetery. Mr. Hanlon came to this city from Cincinnati in the year 1874, and was employed as a presser in the local potteries until a short time ago.

His last employment was at the Poncer plant in Wellsville. He was known as one of the most skilled workmen in the district. He is survived by three sons, Edward H. and Samuel

C., of Tiffin, and James P., of Lincoln avenue.

"Because," she answered, grimly sarcastic, "I haven't the face to do it!"—Chicago Tribune.

Invasion of American Capital Promises to Make Present Year Memorable.

Montreal, April 29.—United States Consul General Bittinger says that never before in the history of Canada has the industrial outlook been so bright. American capital promises to make the present year memorable by the establishment of new and immense enterprises and the enlargement of many of those now existing.

American capitalists have started new railroads and banks, and vast tracts of timber land has been purchased by a new company composed principally of Americans. Difficult companies have begun to mine coal, copper, nickel and gold, and a large company has purchased a tract of land in Montreal on which to erect a paint factory. Syndicates have been formed for the purpose of manufacturing pulp, timber, seedling machines, aluminum, iron, steel and asbestos. Valuable mica properties in the provinces of Ontario and Quebec recently have been purchased by United States capitalists. An American transportation company has begun to build ships to be operated between Duluth, Minn., and Quebec, and many other investments have been made of American capital.

Adventists Heed Prophecies.
Battle Creek, Mich., April 29.—After a fight lasting more than a week the stockholders of the Seventh Day Adventists publishing house here decided to move the plant east, the name of the city not yet decided upon. This action shows that the majority of the stockholders believed in Mrs. Ellen White, a leading prophetess of the society, who predicted disaster if the plant was not moved and the Adventists colonized here do not scatter to various parts of the country. It is believed the action taken will have a tendency to split the denomination into two factions.

Britt Declared Winner.
San Francisco, April 29.—Referee Eddie Grady declared Jimmy Britt the winner of one of the fastest and best fights ever seen in San Francisco. Willie Fitzgerald, of Brooklyn, was the man who put up the good contest against the California wonder. Britt was the cleverest of the men and landed two blows to Fitzgerald's one. With the exception of the last round, when Fitzgerald put the San Francisco boy on his knees with a left swing on the jaw, Britt's superiority was manifested during the entire fight.

Cause of Smallpox.
Boston, April 29.—The announcement of the discovery of the cause of smallpox was made by Dr. William T. Councilman, professor of pathology in the Harvard medical society at a meeting of the Boston society of the medical science. It has been determined that smallpox is caused by a micro-organism representative of the lowest form of animal life. This fact serves to show a relation between smallpox and such diseases as malaria and to distinguish it from many other infectious diseases caused by bacteria.

Laundry Plant Burned.
Philadelphia, April 29.—The seven-story building at Camac street and Columbia avenue, occupied by the Forest laundry, was entirely destroyed by fire. C. J. Miller, the proprietor of the plant, estimated his loss at $100,000, on which there is $50,000 insurance.

Death of Well-Known Horseman.
Louisville, April 29.—"Buck" Franklin, of Tennessee, a widely known horseman, died here of bladder trouble. He trained many winners.

Good For Children.
The pleasant to take and harmless One Minute Cough Cure gives immediate relief in all cases of cough, croup, and larynx because it does not pass immediately into the stomach, but takes effect right at the seat of the trouble. It draws out the inflammation, heals and soothes and cures permanently by enabling the lungs to contribute pure life-giving and life-sustaining oxygen to the blood and tissues.

AT THE THEATER

"As You Like It." Alberta Gallatin and her superb Shakespearian company will be seen at the Grand May 4. Already about 200 seats have been sold by the manager, who has been in the city for a week. Miss Gallatin is the acknowledged "Rosalind," according to the best critics of the leading papers of today. The manager of the Grand is to be congratulated after hard efforts to get this delightful comedy.

A straight legitimate farce by the greatest farce writer of the age, H. A. DuSouchet, produced by Myron B. Rice, with all its original contents, "My Friend from India." This comedy, unlike most productions of its class, has a plot of coherency and action and is brimming with clean fun from start to finish. Its engagement here is for next Tuesday at the Grand.

An early attraction at the Grand opera house will be the great religious drama, "The Sign of the Cross," which continues to meet with so much success. The company which will be seen here is composed almost entirely of English artists, and are the same that have been with this attraction both here and in England.

Tolstol's latest masterpiece, dramatized by Charles W. Chase from the original Russian manuscript, will be presented at the Grand at an early date by an exceptionally clever company. This will undoubtedly be the event of the season.

Stellina Grass.

In Sicily there is a wild grass which, when ripe at the end of summer, is gathered by the peasantry, tied in bundles and set on fire, not, however, to be consumed, but for a mere scorching. The flame flies rapidly through the night bushes and beard of the plant and leaves the seeds slightly roasted, in which state they are eaten with considerable relish by numbers of the rural population.

The botanical name of this Stellina grass is agropyron, or goatgrass. The Greeks having believed it to be a remedy for a disease that appears in one corner of the eye. There are three or four species growing all around the Mediterranean as well as in the islands, chiefly on the hot, dry, sandy plains near the sea. They flourish even on the scorched volcanic soils, in strange contrast to their arid and barren surroundings, showing that the vital principle in them is unusually energetic and proof against extremes of heat.

Church Nods.

"Didn't the minister feel it when so many in the congregation fell asleep during the sermon?"

"Oh, no. It encouraged him to keep on."

"How so?"

"Why, he was egotistical enough to think they were nodding approval at what he said!"

Time Trott.

WELLSVILLE

THE JURORS VIEWED LAND
WANTED FOR DAM SITE

Witnesses Summoned From Wellsville to Testify in the United States Court Today.

The jurors from the United States court at Cleveland were in Wellsville yesterday and viewed the premises which the government appropriated for a dam site. The property is owned by Miss E. P. Hazlett, but is better known as the old Kountz property. Miss Hazlett has brought suit against the government and the case is being tried in Cleveland. The following witnesses were subpoenaed for the government: T. H. Silver, H. E. Nicholson, J. N. Turner, E. H. Riggs and William Perkins; for the defendant, Mrs. George A. Fisher, Charles McGregor, Sr., William Bright, George Wells, Charles Williamson, Watson Johnston, J. G. Kountz, Hiram Kountz, R. D. Beacom and J. A. George.

The representatives of the government made Miss Hazlett an offer for the land in question but it was far below what she thought the land was really worth and she did not feel justified in accepting. The Pennsylvania company paid $10 per foot for land in this vicinity and Miss Hazlett can see no reason why the government asks her to sell her property for less. The case will be tried today.

A BIG STREET FAIR

Proposed For Wellsville—Likewise a Glorious Fourth Celebration.

A plan is being talked of among prominent business men to have a street fair in Wellsville some time during the coming summer. Mayor Pozo has expressed his views on the matter and stated that it would be a great thing for the city. Others also seem to view the matter in the same light. Should the plan materialize it would mean a great amount of business for the merchants during three or four days.

If the street fair proposition is not looked upon with favor by the general public, the instigators of the movement have another scheme. They mean to have a celebration on July 4 such as was never known before. Whether the street fair be held or not the citizens of Wellsville will, on July 4, witness a day of one complete round of pleasure. Brass bands will be engaged to furnish music, races of all kinds will be run, the greased pig will be turned loose, a bank note placed on top of a greased pole and the person succeeding in climbing the pole secures the money. Two good baseball games will be played at the base ball park. Amusements of every description will be on the program. Several addresses by well known and renowned speakers will also be given.

SALOON ROBBED

Thieves Steal Cigars and Liquor From the Place Schlotfeld Vacated.

The saloon in the West End, recently occupied by Gus Schlotfeld, who disappeared about three weeks ago, leaving debts amounting to about $2,500, was entered Monday night and six boxes of cigars and a quantity of whiskey and wine were stolen, in all amounting to about $15.

The thieves gained an entrance by battering in the rear door. Wilfred Rose had been cleaning up the place during the day and when he arrived yesterday morning discovered the loss and at once notified the police. The property stolen belonged to the Crocker City Brewing company. Mr. Rose opened the place this morning.

and a gold watch belonging to his daughter Mame was stolen. The police were at once notified and began a search. Fearing punishment, the thief returned the watch yesterday afternoon and asked that the matter be kept quiet. Miss Kountz was delighted with the return of the watch as it was very highly prized.

BOARD OF HEALTH MEETS

Steps Taken for Rigid Enforcement of Ordinance Relating to Rubbish.

The Wellsville board of health held its regular monthly meeting last evening. Health Officer Tarr gave an interesting report of the convention of health officers of the state held in Columbus on April 9. He stated that this city's board of health was about what it should be according to the views expressed at the convention.

Hereafter the board will rigidly enforce section No. 14, relative to depositing dirt, rubbish or the running of waste water into any street or alley. A number of complaints have been made about this filthy practice and in the future all persons violating this rule will hear from the authorities.

The following is a report of the deaths, births and diseases for March: Deaths, 17; bodies received for burial, 5; bodies sent away for burial, 7; burial permits issued, 17; contagious diseases, 5; scarlet fever, 4; typhoid fever, 1; births, 16, 8 males and 8 females, all white.

EWING-WHITEHILL

Pretty Ceremony at the Bride's Home in Wellsville Today at Noon.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized today at high noon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Ewing, Main street, Wellsville. William Whitehill, of Beaver, Pa., and Miss Nora Ewing, of this city, were the contracting parties. Rev. W. M. Glasgow, of the U. P. church, officiated. After the ceremony the bridal party partook of a fine repast. A large number of beautiful presents were received. The house was very elaborately decorated with flowers and palms for the occasion.

Miss Ewing is a beautiful and accomplished young lady and has a host of friends in the city, all of whom extend their hearty congratulations. Mr. Whitehill is a young man of sterling quality and holds a responsible position in Beaver, where the young couple will make their home.

The Vultures.

The question is asked whether the vulture knows of its quarry by sight or smell. How does it communicate the news of a feast to its fellows? A tiger had been killed.

Colonel Ramsay ordered the carcass of the skinned tiger to be dragged out from under the thick mango trees into the open. Taking out his watch, he asked us to make a guess as to how long the vultures would take to clean the flesh off the bones. Some one said half an hour. As there was not a vulture in sight, this seemed even better.

Colonel Ramsay gave them ten minutes, which proved to be correct. There was one vulture at first seen soaring round and round very high up in the cloudless sky. He closed his wings and dropped on to the carcass with a swoop. In two minutes the sky was full of vultures, all concentrating from every side on the spot, and arriving with all the impetus their drop from a great height gave them as fast as it takes to tell the story. Then there commenced a frightful scene of literal carnage, every one tearing with sharp, hooked bill at the entrails first, then at the flesh, all fighting for room to get a piece and tumbling over one another with frantic haste.

"The Forests of Upper India and Their Inhabitants," by T. W. Webster.

What Holds the Novel.

Frank Norris, author of "The Octopus" and "The Pit," was a most virile writer and a man of decided opinions. He was wont to say of the great factors in molding public opinion that "the pulpit speaks but once a week, the press is read with lightning haste and the morning news is waste paper by noon; but the novel goes in the home to stay."

This opinion was aired by Mr. Norris in the lobby of a hotel in a small town in Illinois. Among those present was a country editor, who was prompted to remark that the novelist's views reminded him of his dog Wolf. Wolf persisted in running away from home, killing chickens and annoying children in the community. At last a method was adopted by which the dog was confined by his own homestead.

"Chained him, eh?" was the thought voiced by several of the company.

"Yes, sir," declared the editor, "and if your modern novel goes into the home to stay let Wolf remind you that it's on account of the binding."

CHESTER BALL TEAM

Has Been Reorganized and Is Playing Crocker City Today.

The Chester base ball team, stronger than ever, is playing the Crocker City at Chester this afternoon and confidently expect to win. The team is in excellent shape, practice having been indulged in for some time.

The home team will line up as follows: Eiland, c; Callem, p; Wells, s; McGee, 1st; Dunn, 2d; Johnston, 3d; Piper, 1; Bridge, m; Allison, r.

The team has just received their uniforms and propose to break them in with a victory. The suits are pearl gray, red belts and black letters. They look very pretty.

CHESTER NOTES.

Joseph Allison left this morning for Steubenville, where he will spend several days visiting friends.

Nellie Brannon and Walter Cunningham, both employed at the Edwin M. Knowles pottery, are visiting friends at Bellaire.

W. E. Mercer left this morning for a trip to the country in the interest of the Chester Hardware company. He expects to furnish a large number of farming implements to the farmers of the county.

Missionary Society Officers.

The following officers have been elected for the new missionary society of the Presbyterian church: President, Mrs. A. J. Glass; vice president, Mrs. E. C. Baxter; secretary, Mrs. John Bernard; treasurer, Mrs. Harper Ralston. A meeting of the society will be held at the home of Mrs. Ralston tomorrow evening and a full attendance is expected.

THE ATTENDANCE SMALL

The clerk had several bills demanding attention, but they could not be acted upon owing to the small attendance. One of these was from the park commissioners and amounted to $1,692.87. A bill for costs in cases in common pleas court to which the city has been a party, was presented from County Clerk J. S. McNutt. It amounted to about $1,200, but no action was taken.

Mr. Peach brought up the question of sewer assessment on Green lane. Samuel Beal had paid a sewer assessment on Lincoln avenue years ago, and when the sewer on Green lane, immediately in the rear of Lincoln avenue, was completed, Mr. Beal also came in for an assessment. It was explained by the solicitor that the assessments were made purely on the benefits to the property. In case a property owner's lot contained two houses, one on the front and the other on the rear, and were connected to two different sewers, he was liable for an assessment on each. It was shown that Mr. Beal had no building on the rear of the lot and could not be assessed for Green lane. Had he interviewed the clerk it was stated he could have been made clear on the point.

Mr. Peach stated there were a number of matters this council would have to attend to before retiring and he wanted them looked after. He referred particularly to the cost of constructing a sewer in Mulberry alley for the accommodation of the Severs China company. The total cost had been over $400, half of which was to have been paid by the company. The clerk will remind the firm that the amount has not yet been paid.

The special light committee made a report showing that little progress had been made, owing to the council not having made an appropriation to cover the cost of an investigation, as suggested by the committee. Mr. Johnston asked that the committee be continued. He had talked with an expert who agreed with him that the city was not getting its money's worth, and it was Mr. Johnston's intention to probe the matter to the bottom.

The report of Wharfmaster W. M. McClure showed expenditures to the amount of $102.10 with receipts aggregating $192. The report was accepted and the council adjourned until next Monday night.

"Now good digestion waits on appetite, and health on both." If it doesn't, try Burdock Blood Bitters.

English Manners.

An English luncheon was found in bed one morning with his throat badly cut. "Why did you do it?" they asked. He replied: "For amusement. I had nothing else to do."

This chimes in curiously with an old French epigram on English manners and customs: Here lies Sir John Plomponding of the Grange. Who hung himself one morning for a change.

A Mystery.

A very small boy was watching his mother sew whalebones in her dress.

"What are they, ma?" he asked. "Bones," she replied.

"Whose?" continued the little fellow. "Mine," she answered.

He regarded her a minute in amazement and then asked solemnly, "How did you get 'em out?"

Keep doing, always doing. Wishing, dreaming, intending, murmuring, talking, sighing and repining are all idle and profitless employments.

Pocketing a Fee.

For a whole year the famous English physician, Dr. Radcliffe, attended a friend without a single fee passing between them. As he was leaving after his last visit the patient said: "Here, doctor, is a purse in which I have put every day's fee. You must not let your kindness get the better of my gratitude; so please take it." The generous physician put out his hand to reject the purse, but the chink of the gold was too much for his amiable resolution, so he put it in his pocket, saying, "Singly, sir, I could have refused them forever, but all together I am afraid they are irresistible."

UNCLE ELI'S FABLES.

[Copyright, 1902, by C. B. Lewis.]

The Sage was sitting under a blue gum tree one day, reflecting on the benefits to be derived from adversity, when a young man appeared before him and said:

"O man of wisdom, I have come many miles to speak with thee and crave advice. My name is Jones, and I am Cashier of the Seventy-second National bank."

"And what's your trouble, Jones?" asked the Sage.

"It is this: I handle large sums of money and fear that the temptation will some day prove too great for me."

"But you must withstand it."

"I have tried, O Sage—I have tried my best."

"But you must keep on trying."

"Alas, but it is useless. I have already succumbed."

"What? Thou art a thief?" exclaimed the Sage.

"I don't exactly know, and that's why I have come to you. If I stole $5,000, I'd be a thief, wouldn't I?"

"You surely would, and despoiled by all men."

"But if the sum was $100,000, O man of profundity?"

"It is here. Am I a thief or not?"

"Of course not—not by a long shot. You are simply a Cashier who has gone wrong, and your tip is to settle with the bank for half the amount of the stolen funds. You can leave a package of $5,000 for me on this shelf while I wander forth and reason on man's inhumanity to man, and anything I can do for you after you get to Canada will be cheerfully done without extra charge."

Moral: The difference between two-dollars and two-dollar-dum has kept many a man out of jail. M. QUAD.

Those Who Read Novels.

"But," we object, speaking to the author who has written a historical novel, "these historical data are absolutely wrong. Why, it's ridiculous to have George Washington fighting three duels, fighting battles he was never in, etc."

"I know I took some liberties with George and history," the author says naively, "but what's the difference? He'll never know, and it won't hurt his feelings."

"But the people who read your book?" we again object.

"Surely you know that people who read historical novels know nothing of history," he explains in just scorn.—Baltimore Herald.

Royal Ends.

"The papers say that Queen Alexandra's hobby is clocks."

"Yes, and I noticed the other day that one of her royal sisters is very fond of fine poultry."

On the Way.

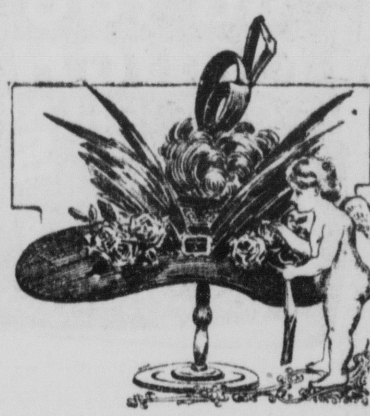

"How does you like de new preacher?" asked Mr. Erastus Pinkley.

"Very much," answered Miss Miami Brown. "He's got a good staht. He knows a heap o' words, an' jes' as soon as he gets 'em arranged in de proper order he'll hab a mighty fine sermon."—Washington Star.

The question is mooted whether the culture knows of its quarry by sight or smell. How does it communicate the news of a feast to its fellows? A tiger had been killed.

Colonel Ramsey ordered the carcass of the skinned tiger to be dragged out from under the thick mango trees into the open. Taking out his watch, he asked us to make a guess as to how long the vultures would take to clean the flesh off the bones. Some one said half an hour. As there was not a vulture in sight, this seemed even better, but Colonel Ramsey gave them ten minutes, which proved to be correct.

There was one vulture at first seen soaring round and round very high up in the cloudless sky. He closed his wings and dropped on to the carcass with a swoop. In two minutes the sky was full of vultures, all concentrating from every side on the spot, and arriving with all the impetus their drop from a great height gave them as fast as it takes to tell the story. Then there commenced a frightful scene of literal carnage, every one tearing with sharp, hooked bill at the entrails first, then at the flesh, all fighting for room to get a piece and tumbling over one another with frantic haste. "The Forests of Upper India and Their Inhabitants," by T. W. Webber.

What Holds the Novel.

Frank Norris, author of "The Octopus" and "The Pit," was a most virile writer and a man of decided opinions. He was wont to say of the great factors in molding public opinion that "the pulpit speaks but once a week, the press is read with lightning haste and the morning news is waste paper by noon; but the novel goes in the home to stay."

This opinion was aired by Mr. Norris in the lobby of a hotel in a small town in Illinois. Among those present was a country editor, who was prompted to remark that the novelist's views reminded him of his dog Wolf. Wolf persisted in running away from home, killing chickens and annoying children in the community. At last a method was adopted by which the dog was confined to his own homestead.

"Chained him, eh?" was the thought voiced by several of the company.

"Yes, sir," declared the editor. "And if your modern novel goes into the home to stay let Wolf remind you that it's on account of the binding."

CHESTER BALL TEAM

Has Been Reorganized and Is Playing Crocker City Today.

The Chester base ball team, stronger than ever, is playing the Crocker City at Chester this afternoon and confidently expect to win. The team is in excellent shape, practice having been indulged in for some time.

The home team will line up as follows: Evland, c; Callem, p; Wells, s; McGee, 1st; Dunn, 2d; Johnston, 3d; Piper, 1; Bridge, m; Allison, r.

The team has just received their uniforms and propose to break them in with a victory. The suits are pearl gray, red belts and black letters. They look very pretty.

CHESTER NOTES.

Joseph Allison left this morning for Steubenville, where he will spend several days visiting friends.

Nellie Brannon and Walter Cunningham, both employed at the Edwin M. Knowles pottery, are visiting friends at Bellaire.

W. E. Mercer left this morning for a trip to the country in the interest of the Chester Hardware company. He expects to furnish a large number of farming implements to the farmers of the county.

Missionary Society Officers. The following officers have been elected for the new missionary society of the Presbyterian church: President, Mrs. A. J. Glass; vice president, Mrs. E. C. Baxter; secretary, Mrs. John Bernard; treasurer, Mrs. Harper Ralston. A meeting of the society will be held at the home of Mrs. Ralston tomorrow evening and a full attendance is expected.

The clerk had several bills demanding attention, but they could not be acted upon owing to the small attendance. One of these was from the park commissioners and amounted to $1,692.87. A bill for costs in cases in common pleas court to which the city has been a party, was presented from County Clerk J. S. McNutt. It amounted to about $1,200, but no action was taken.

Mr. Peach brought up the question of sewer assessment on Green lane. Samuel Beal had paid a sewer assessment on Lincoln avenue years ago, and when the sewer on Green lane, immediately in the rear of Lincoln avenue, was completed, Mr. Beal also came in for an assessment. It was explained by the auditor that the assessments were made purely on the benefits to the property. In case a property owner's lot contained two houses, one on the front and the other on the rear, and were connected to two different sewers, he was liable for an assessment on each. It was shown that Mr. Beal had no building on the rear of the lot and could not be assessed for Green lane. Had he interviewed the clerk it was stated he could have been made clear on the point.

Mr. Peach stated there were a number of matters this council would have to attend to before retiring and he wanted them looked after. He referred particularly to the cost of constructing a sewer in Mulberry alley for the accommodation of the Serres China company. The total cost had been over $100, half of which was to have been paid by the company. The clerk will remind the firm that the amount has not yet been paid.

The special light committee made a report showing that little progress had been made, owing to the council not having made an appropriation to cover the cost of an investigation, as suggested by the committee. Mr. Johnston asked that the committee be continued. He had talked with an expert who agreed with him that the city was not getting its money's worth, and it was Mr. Johnston's intention to probe the matter to the bottom.

The report of Wharfmaster W. M. McClure showed expenditures to the amount of $162.16 with receipts aggregating $102. The report was accepted and the council adjourned until next Monday night.

English Manners.

An English linkkeeper was found in bed one morning with his throat badly cut. "Why did you do it?" they asked. He replied: "For amusement. I had nothing else to do."

This chimes in curiously with an old French epigram on English manners and customs: Here lies Sir John Plomponding of the Who hangs himself one morning for a change.

A Mystery.

A very small boy was watching his mother sew whalebones in her dress. "What are they, ma?" he asked.

"Bones," she replied.

"Whose?" continued the little fellow

"Mine," she answered.

He regarded her a minute in amazement and asked solemnly, "How did you get 'em out?"

Keep doing, always doing. Wishing, dreaming, intending, murmuring, talking, sighing and repining are all idle and profitless employments.

Pocketing a Fee.

For a whole year the famous English physician, Dr. Radcliffe, attended a friend without a single fee passing between them. As he was leaving after his last visit the patient said: "Here, doctor, is a purse in which I have put every day's fee. You must not let your kindness get the better of my gratitude; so please take it." The generous physician put out his hand to reject the purse, but the chink of the gold was too much for his amiable resolution, so he put it in his pocket, saying, "Singly, sir, I could have refused them forever, but all together I am afraid they are irresistible."

UNCLE ELI'S FABLES.

[Copyright, 1902, by C. B. Lewis.]

"The Sage was sitting under a blue gum tree one day, reflecting on the benefits to be derived from adversity, when a young man appeared before him and said:

"O man of wisdom, I have come many miles to speak with thee and crave advice. My name is Jones, and I am Cashier of the Seventy-second National bank."

"And what's your trouble, Jones?" asked the Sage.

"It is this: I handle large sums of money and fear that the temptation will some day prove too great for me."

"But you must withstand it."

"I have tried, O Sage—I have tried my best."

"But you must keep on trying."

"Alas, but it is useless. I have already succumbed."

"What? Thou art a thief?" exclaimed the Sage.

"I don't exactly know, and that's why I have come to you. If I stole $5,000, I'd be a thief, wouldn't I?"

"You surely would, and despised by all men."

"But if the sum was $100,000, O man of profundity?"

"You don't mean that you got away with any such boodle as that?"

"It is here. Am I a thief or not?"

"Of course not—not by a long shot. You are simply a Cashier who has gone wrong, and your tip is to settle with the bank for half the amount of the stolen funds. You can leave a package of $5,000 for me on this shelf while I wander forth and reason on man's inhumanity to man, and anything I can do for you after you get to Canada will be cheerfully done without extra charge."

Those Who Read Novels.

"But," we object, speaking to the author who has written a historical novel, "these historical data are absolutely wrong. Why, it's ridiculous to have George Washington fighting three duels, fighting battles he was never in, etc."

"I know I took some liberties with George and history," the author says naively, "but what's the difference? He'll never know, and it won't hurt his feelings."

"But the people who read your book?" we again object.

"Surely you know that people who read historical novels know nothing of history!" he exclaims in just scorn.

THE JURORS VIEWED LAND
WANTED FOR DAM SITE

Witnesses Summoned From Wellsville to Testify in the United States Court Today.

The jurors from the United States court at Cleveland were in Wellsville yesterday and viewed the premises which the government appropriated for a dam site. The property is owned by Miss E. P. Hazlett, but is better known as the old Kountz property. Miss Hazlett has brought suit against the government and the case is being tried in Cleveland. The following witnesses were subpoenaed for the government: T. H. Silver, H. E. Nicholson, J. N. Turner, E. H. Riggs and William Perkins; for the defendant, Mrs. George A. Fisher, Charles McGregor, Sr., William Bright, George Wells, Charles Williamsen, Watson Johnston, J. G. Kountz, Hiram Kountz, R. D. Beacom and J. A. George.

The representatives of the government made Miss Hazlett an offer for the land in question but it was far below what she thought the land was really worth and she did not feel justified in accepting. The Pennsylvania company paid $10 per foot for land in this vicinity and Miss Hazlett can see no reason why the government asks her to sell her property for less. The case will be tried today.

A BIG STREET FAIR

Proposed For Wellsville—Likewise a Glorious Fourth Celebration.

A plan is being talked of among prominent business men to have a street fair in Wellsville some time during the coming summer. Mayor Fogo has expressed his views on the matter and stated that it would be a great thing for the city. Others also seem to view the matter in the same light. Should the plan materialize it would mean a great amount of business for the merchants during three or four days.

If the street fair proposition is not looked upon with favor by the general public, the instigators of the movement have another scheme. They mean to have a celebration on July 4 such as was never known before. Whether the street fair be held or not the citizens of Wellsville will, on July 4, witness a day of one complete round of pleasure. Brass bands will be engaged to furnish music, races of all kinds will be run, the greased pig will be turned loose, a bank note placed on top of a greased pole and the person succeeding in climbing the pole secures the money. Two good base ball games will be played at the base ball park. Amusements of every description will be on the program. Several addresses by well known and renowned speakers will also be given.

SALOON ROBBED

Thieves Steal Cigars and Liquor From the Place Schlotfeld Vacated.

The saloon in the West End, recently occupied by Gus Schlotfeld, who disappeared about three weeks ago, leaving debts amounting to about $2,500, was entered Monday night and six boxes of cigars and a quantity of whiskey and wine were stolen, in all amounting to about $15.

The thieves gained an entrance by battering in the rear door. Wilfred Reese had been cleaning up the place during the day and when he arrived yesterday morning discovered the loss and at once notified the police. The property stolen belonged to the Crockery City Brewing company. Mr. Reese opened the place this morning.

and a gold watch belonging to his daughter Mame was stolen. The police were at once notified and began a search. Fearing punishment, the thief returned the watch yesterday afternoon and asked that the matter be kept quiet. Miss Kountz was delighted with the return of the watch as it was very highly prized.

BOARD OF HEALTH MEETS

Steps Taken for Rigid Enforcement of Ordinance Relating to Rubbish.

The Wellsville board of health held its regular monthly meeting last evening. Health Officer Tarr gave an interesting report of the convention of health officers of the state held in Columbus on April 9. He stated that this city's board of health was about what it should be according to the views expressed at the convention.

Hereafter the board will rigidly enforce section No. 14, relative to depositing dirt, rubbish or the running of waste water into any street or alley. A number of complaints have been made about this filthy practice and in the future all persons violating this rule will hear from the authorities.

The following is a report of the deaths, births and diseases for March: Deaths, 17; bodies received for burial, 5; bodies sent away for burial, 7; burial permits issued, 17; contagious diseases, 5; scarlet fever, 4; typhoid fever, 1; births, 16, 8 males and 8 females, all white.

EWING-WHITEHILL

Pretty Ceremony at the Bride's Home in Wellsville Today at Noon.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized today at high noon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Ewing, Main street, Wellsville. William Whitehill, of Beaver, Pa., and Miss Nora Ewing, of this city, were the contracting parties. Rev. W. M. Glasgow, of the U. P. church, officiated. After the ceremony the bridal party partook of a fine repast. A large number of beautiful presents were received. The house was very elaborately decorated with flowers and palms for the occasion.

Miss Ewing is a beautiful and accomplished young lady and has a host of friends in the city, all of whom extend their hearty congratulations. Mr. Whitehill is a young man of sterling quality and holds a responsible position in Beaver, where the young couple will make their home.

BANQUET DATE FIXED

Juniors Will Elaborately Entertain the Seniors on May 22.

The Junior class of the Wellsville high school held a business meeting last evening in the central school building and decided that the banquet to be given the Senior class would be held May 22.

The proceeds from the entertainment given some time ago by the Colonial Moving Picture company went to the Junior class and along with other money in the treasury, it has quite a sum on hand. No expense will be spared to make this event one of the most enjoyable.

Samuel Beal had paid a sewer assessment on Lincoln avenue years ago, and when the sewer on Green lane, immediately in the rear of Lincoln avenue, was completed, Mr. Beal also came in for an assessment. It was explained by the solicitor that the assessments were made purely on the benefits to the property. In case a property owner's lot contained two houses, one on the front and the other on the rear, and were connected to two different sewers, he was liable for an assessment on each. It was shown that Mr. Beal had no building on the rear of the lot and could not be assessed for Green lane. Had he interviewed the clerk it was stated he could have been made clear on the point.

Mr. Peach stated there were a number of matters this council would have to attend to before retiring and he wanted them looked after. He referred particularly to the cost of constructing a sewer in Mulberry alley for the accommodation of the Severs China company. The total cost had been over $400, half of which was to have been paid by the company. The clerk will remind the firm that the amount has not yet been paid.

The special light committee made a report showing that little progress had been made, owing to the council not having made an appropriation to cover the cost of an investigation, as suggested by the committee. Mr. Johnston asked that the committee be continued. He had talked with an expert who agreed with him that the city was not getting its money's worth, and it was Mr. Johnston's intention to probe the matter to the bottom.

The report of Wharfmaster W. M. McClure showed expenditures to the amount of $102.16 with receipts aggregating $102. The report was accepted and the council adjourned until next Monday night.

English Manners.

An English innkeeper was found in bed one morning with his throat badly cut. "Why did you do it?" they asked. He replied: "For amusement. I had nothing else to do."

This chimes in curiously with an old French epigram on English manners and customs: Here lies Sir John Plomponding of the Grange. Who hung himself one morning for a change.

A Mystery.

A very small boy was watching his mother sew whalebones in her dress. "What are they, ma?" he asked. "Bones," she replied. "Whose?" continued the little fellow. "Mine," she answered. He regarded her a minute in amazement and then asked solemnly, "How did you get 'em out?"

Keep doing, always doing. Wishing, dreaming, intending, murmuring, talking, sighing and repining are all idle and profitless employments.

Pocketing a Fee.

For a whole year the famous English physician, Dr. Radcliffe, attended a friend without a single fee passing between them. As he was leaving after his last visit the patient said: "Here, doctor, is a purse in which I have put every day's fee. You must not let your kindness get the better of my gratitude; so please take it." The generous physician put out his hand to reject the purse, but the chink of the gold was too much for his amiable resolution, so he put it in his pocket, saying, "Singly, sir, I could have refused them forever, but all together I am afraid they are irresistible."

UNCLE ELI'S FABLES.

[Copyright, 1902, by C. B. Lewis.]

The Sage was sitting under a blue gum tree one day, reflecting on the benefits to be derived from adversity, when a young man appeared before him and said:

"O man of wisdom, I have come many miles to speak with thee and crave advice. My name is Jones, and I am Cashier of the Seventy-second National bank."

"And what's your trouble, Jones?" asked the Sage.

"It is this: I handle large sums of money and fear that the temptation will some day prove too great for me."

"But you must withstand it."

"I have tried, O Sage—I have tried my best."

"But you must keep on trying."

"Alas, but it is useless. I have already succumbed."

"What? Thou art a thief?" exclaimed the Sage.

"I don't exactly know, and that's why I have come to you. If I stole $5,000, I'd be a thief, wouldn't I?"

"You surely would, and despoiled by all men."

"But if the sum was $100,000, O man of profundity?"

"You don't mean that you got away with any such hoodie as that?"

"It is here. Am I a thief or not?"

"Of course not—not by a long shot. You are simply a Cashier who has gone wrong, and your tip is to settle with the bank for half the amount of the stolen funds. You can leave a package of $5,000 for me on this shelf while I wander forth and reason on man's inhumanity to man, and anything I can do for you after you get to Canada will be cheerfully done without extra charge."

Those Who Read Novels.

"Eat," we object, speaking to the author who has written a historical novel, "these historical data are absolutely wrong. Why, it's ridiculous to have George Washington fighting three duels, fighting battles he was never in, etc."

"I know I took some liberties with George and history," the author says naively, "but what's the difference? He'll never know, and it won't hurt his feelings."

"But the people who read your book?" we again object.

"Surely you know that people who read historical novels know nothing of history?" he explains in just scorn. —Baltimore Herald.

Royal Fads.

"The papers say that Queen Alexandra's hobby is clocks."

"Yes, and I noticed the other day that one of her royal sisters is very fond of fine poultry."

"Well, I fancy it requires a much higher degree of intelligence to set a hen than to set a clock."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

"Ere Is What Queered Him. Wantanno—What queered De Wruyter and Miss Rocks?"

Dunno—In writing an ode to her he used the expression "dainty, shell-like ears," and the printers became mystified over De Wruyter's horrible chirography and made it "dirty, shawl-like ears."—Baltimore American.

On the Way.

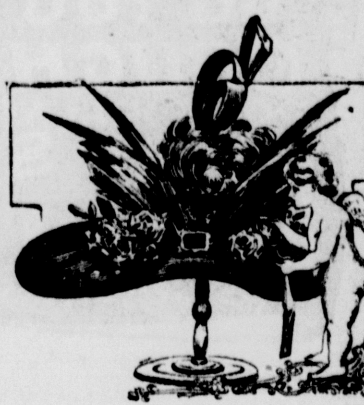

"How does you like de new preacher?" asked Mr. Erastus Pinkley.

"Very much," answered Miss Miami Brown. "He's got a good staid. He knows a heap o' words, an' jes' as soon as he gets 'em arranged in de proper order he'll hab a mighty fine sermon." —Washington Star.

His Shady Observation.

Miss Jones (to Mr. Brown, who has survived three wives)—They must get kind of mixed up in heaven with so many Mrs. Browns about.

Double Whitecapping.
Nashville, Ind., April 29.—A double whitecapping occurred in Johnson township, 16 miles from here. The victims were James Moffett and Ellis worth Hashman, living one mile apart. Shortly after midnight a mob of naked men broke into Moffett's home, dragged him from his bed, tied him to a tree in the yard and gave him 40 lashes on the bare back with hickory switches. He was carried back into the house and in the presence of his wife was told that unless he ceased his visits to a certain house of unsavory reputation in the neighborhood and stopped beating his wife the punishment would be repeated. Moffett promised. The mob quietly went to the Hashman house, where the program was repeated.

COSTLY CHICAGO FIRE

Plant of International Salt Company at South Chicago Destroyed.

ESTIMATED LOSS $1,250,000.

Three Boats in Calumet River Burned. Four Hundred Thousand Tons of Salt Ruined—Fire Under Control After Hard Fight

Chicago, April 29.—The plant of the International Salt company, located at South Chicago, with three boats lying in the Calumet river, were destroyed by fire. The loss is estimated at $1,250,000, that of the International Salt company being placed at $800,000. The buildings of the salt company plant covered nearly 16 acres, extending along the Calumet river. In these buildings were stored 400,000 tons of salt, and the greater part of this is said to have been ruined by fire and water. Included in the company's loss are the docks extending 1,500 feet along the Calumet river.

The fire threatened to spread to a number of grain elevators along the river and to other large manufacturing plants, but after a hard fight the flames were got under control.

About 125 freight cars were consumed. Fifty of the burned cars are said to have belonged to the Michigan Central Railway company.

The fire was discovered by a watchman, who noticed a small flame creeping over the edge of the roof of one of the sheds at the plant. He turned in an alarm, but before the first engines arrived the first of the big sheds was a roaring furnace. The first alarm was followed by several additional calls for engines. Streams of water from every side were poured on the sheds, but as the buildings were constructed of pine and the roofs of tarred paper, the inflammable material fell an easy prey to the flames.

The wind blew the embers against three grain boats tied up in the Calumet river and elevator docks and soon the vessels were on fire from decks to the top of the masts. A fire boat that was pouring water on the salt sheds was summoned to save the boats, but before it could reach them they sank.

Selecting Site for Camp.
Erie, April 29.—Brigadier General John A. Wiley, Second brigade, N. G. P., and the staff officers, arrived in Erie from Pittsburgh to inspect the site offered here for the annual encampment of the Second brigade during the latter part of July. General Wiley and the other officers are very favorably impressed with the beautiful location shown them on the banks of old Lake Erie, and while they declined to say that this city would be chosen for the next encampment, they admitted that the selection of the site lay between Erie and Somerset.

All Selected Carbolite Acid.
Washington, April 29.—Three persons committed suicide in this city and all used carbolite acid as a means of ending life. The three suicides were Leonard H. Mangum, a former clerk in the census office; Guy E. Padgett, a real estate and insurance agent; and Mrs. Sadie Plummer, a young woman whose husband keeps a lunch room on Pennsylvania avenue.

Two Hundred Homeless.
Cleveland, April 29.—A genuine panic existed among 20 Jewish families in the vicinity of Pittsburgh street because of the destruction by fire of their little homes. The fire had started in a nearby cooperage shop and spread to the dwellings before it could be checked. The money loss is placed at $50,000. Two hundred persons are temporarily homeless.

Burglars Blow Safe.
La Grange, N. C., April 29.—The safe of Rouse Bros., bankers, was blown open and about $3,500 taken by burglars, who escaped. Six men were in the gang.

DEAD OF THE DAY.

Atlantic City, N. J., April 29.—Dr. George Dana Boardman, author, orator and preacher, died here after a long illness.

Captain John Stoner.
Detroit, April 29.—Captain John Stoner, a well-known seaman of the Great Lakes, died at his home in Monroe, aged 71 years.

Irving M. Scott.
San Francisco, April 29.—Irving M. Scott, who for many years was vice president and general manager of the Union Iron works, is dead.

Rev. Dennis Kearney.
Pittsburg, April 29.—Rev. Father Dennis Kearney, one of the most widely known Catholic priests in the Pittsburg diocese, died at the rectory of St. Patrick's church of general debility incidental to old age. Father Kearney was born in County Carlow, Ireland, on May 1, 1827.

Governor Deforest Richards.
Cheyenne, Wyo., April 29.—Governor Deforest Richards died at his home in this city of acute kidney disease. The funeral of Governor Richards will take place from the capitol building Thursday afternoon in charge of the Knights Templar. Secretary of State Chatterton has assumed the executive chair which he will retain until a successor shall be named at the next general election in 1904.

REALM OF SPORTS

BASEBALL TALK IS ALL THE RACE

The Local Team a Strong One And Will Be Improved in Many Points.

Base ball among the sporting fraternity of the city is the only topic of conversation. The fans are spending their time in conjecturing as to the success of the local team during the season, and many are the suggestions that are offered. All seem satisfied that the management intends to keep the best team ever organized in the city together and that it will add on to it until every point is as strong as could be wished.

It is conceded by nearly every one that a better outfield could not be picked from the best amateur teams of the country, but there are positions in the infield that the fans think could be bettered. Harry T. Hall, one of the management, states that it is the aim of himself and the remaining two to learn by experience, and that just as soon as they find that a man is not delivering the goods they will farm him and secure a man that will give satisfaction. The twirlers they now have are doing good work, but at least two more good men are needed and negotiations are on for one of the fastest that appeared on local diamonds last season. When he arrives and Maley gets home the pitcher's box will be the strongest point on the field.

The corresponding secretary of the team announces that date have been secured with the All-Professionals, of Philadelphia, and that they will be here May 21, 22 and 23. He attempted to get a date with the West Virginia university team, but it had its book filled and could not possibly accede to the request. It would have been a game of interest to the local lovers of the sport, owing to the fact that Maley would have been with the university boys.

WINNING LAURELS

John Godwin Playing the Game of His Life—His Fielding Sensational and Batting Extraordinary.

Charles Walsh, ex-manager of the East Liverpool base ball team, has received a letter from Kid Barker, who is pitching fine ball for the Bloomington, Ill., team. Barker, among other welcome information, states that John Godwin is playing the game of his life.

"He has not played a game since the opening," says Barker, "that he has not been compelled to doff his hat to the loud applause of the fans as a result of his sensational fielding and timely hits. He has picked up wonderfully in batting and all base ball men state that he has a great future. He has received numerous offers from good teams."

Matched for May 13.
Marvin Hart, of Louisville, and Geo. Gardner, of Lowell, Mass., have been matched to fight at catch weights before the Southern Athletic club, in Louisville, on the night of May 13. The fight is scheduled for 20 rounds. The men will fight somewhere above 170 pounds. Both are already in training.

Junior Champions.
The Brillants, of this city, are claiming the 15-year-old base ball championship of this section and will defend the title against any similar team from the state line to New Cumberland. Any team desiring a game should address the manager, Robert Curran, Jethro street.

Youngs to Fight Again.
Joe Youngs, of Buffalo, has agreed to meet Harry Lemon before the Nonpareil Athletic club at Beaver Falls in a 15-round boxing contest on Wednesday night, May 6, and both men are earnestly training for the bout.

SPORTING MISCELLANY.
Saratoga authorities declare there shall be no gambling at that resort this year.

Detroit horsemen are trying to get a $5,000 appropriation from the city for a speedway.

Pittsburg is out of the lead in the National league race for the third time in two seasons.

Jimmy Sebring, the brilliant fielder of the Pittsburg team, has been sent home, threatened with typhoid fever.

It is said that Bob Fitzsimmons has only a life interest in a Bath Beach house to show for $300,000 won in the prize ring.

J. "Dutch" Wagner has been transferred from short to right field and Kruger will fill the shoes of "Hans" until the return of Sebring.

Horace Fogel says in the Philadelphia

Mrs. Tupman, a prominent lady of Richmond, Va., a great sufferer with woman's troubles, tells how she was cured.

"For some years I suffered with backache, severe bearing-down pains, leucorrhoea, and falling of the womb. I tried many remedies, but nothing gave any positive relief."

"I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in June, 1901. When I had taken the first half bottle, I felt a vast improvement, and have now taken ten bottles with the result that I feel like a new woman. When I commenced taking the Vegetable Compound I felt all worn out and was fast approaching complete nervous collapse. I weighed only 98 pounds. Now I weigh 109 1/2 pounds and am improving every day. I gladly testify to the benefits received."

Mrs. R. C. Tupman, 423 West 30th St., Richmond, Va. — $5000 worth of original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

When a medicine has been successful in more than a million cases, is it justice to yourself to say, without trying it, "I do not believe it would help me?" Surely you cannot wish to remain weak and sick.

Mrs. Pinkham, whose address is Lynn, Mass., will answer cheerfully and without cost all letters addressed to her by sick women. Perhaps she has just the knowledge that will help your case—try her to-day—it costs nothing.

A FORMER JUDGE BRUTALLY ASSAULTED

M. V. B. Croskey Reported Dying at Steubenville—Alleged Assaultant Arrested.

Toronto, April 29.—Former Probate Judge M. V. B. Croskey is dying at his home in Steubenville as a result of a personal encounter with a crowd of loafers who annoyed him. Judge Croskey rushed into the crowd and struck several of them with his cane, among them Morris Albaugh.

A brick, alleged to have been thrown by Albaugh, struck Judge Croskey on the head, crushing the skull. The crowd dispersed and Judge Croskey was carried into his house in an unconscious condition. Officers arrested Albaugh and several of his companions. Judge Croskey is a veteran of the Civil war, and was formerly connected with the Jefferson Sewer Pipe works at Toronto.

Recently he has been greatly annoyed by crowds of loafers about his home. Monday night when they were breaking his shrubbery he became exasperated and rushing among them received the blow that may cause his death. Yesterday Judge Croskey was conscious and suffering great pain. The physicians hold out slight hopes for his recovery.

SALINEVILLE

Salineville, April 29.—William A. Weaver, mayor-elect of East Liverpool, was in town yesterday.

Dr. Bigger, a prominent physician of Cleveland, was called to Salineville Monday to see Miss Hutson, a daughter of the late William Hutson, of Fox township, who has been ill for some time. The venerable doctor returned to Cleveland the same evening.

Aaron Westlake, who has been confined to his home for several months, is able to be on the streets again on crutches. The hip fracture is in a fair way to get well.

Mr. Smith, of East Liverpool, was in town yesterday, setting up a piano for William Maley.

Harvey B. Haverfield, one of the bookkeepers in the Citizens' Banking company, after a brief visit among home folks at Cadiz, returned to Salineville, accompanied by his mother, who is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Thompson. She is a member of the school board of Cadiz.

Samuel C. Kerr, an employee in the pension bureau, is spending his vacation with relatives in Salineville and vicinity. He will return to Washington this week.

Dr. Charles Vasey spent a few days last week in Youngstown. The first kiln of chinaware burned at the Dresden China company's works is pronounced a first-class product.

SSS THE BEST TONIC

In S. S. S. Nature has provided a tonic suited to every requirement of the system when in a debilitated, run down condition. It contains no strong minerals or drugs, but is a pleasant vegetable preparation. You can find no better remedy for toning up the nerves and bringing refreshing, restful sleep when in a low state of health, or sick and worn out with work or worry.

S. S. S. improves the appetite, aids the digestion and reinforces the system, and its good effects are seen almost from the first dose. It acts promptly in cases of chronic dyspepsia, indigestion and all stomach troubles, and does away with the uncomfortable fullness, nausea, shortness of breath, drowsiness and dizziness that so often come after eating.

S. S. S. is not only the best tonic but possesses alternative or purifying properties, and if there is any taint, humor or poison in the blood it searches it out, and removes it. Many times a low state of health is due to a bad condition of the blood and can only be remedied by a blood purifier and tonic combined, or such a remedy as S. S. S.

If you suffer from debility, insomnia, nervousness, loss of appetite, bad digestion, or any of the symptoms of a disordered blood, nothing will so soon put your blood in good condition, invigorate and tone up the system as S. S. S.

Mr. H. K. Mitchell, of New Philadelphia, O., speaks of Life Plant in the following emphatic language:

Life Plant is a wonder. We have used it in our family for nearly a year and find it to be all that is claimed for it in giving tone and vigor to the system. It certainly cures rheumatic trouble. In fact I believe it will cure any disease that is reached through the blood.

We guarantee the genuineness of every TESTIMONIAL. The above was indeed a remarkable cure, but it was simple and easy when the proper method was followed. It is a notable fact in science, that disease germs can not exist in pure matter. There must be some impurity else they die. You might arrest a disease by local application, and take some poisons fatal to disease germs, but you cannot hope for a cure by that system of treatment. You must get at the cause.

Impure blood is the cause of practically ALL diseases. To cure any disease you must by some means purify the BLOOD. Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Rheumatism, Eczema, Hives, Tetters, Catarrh and Asthma, are the most familiar forms of blood diseases. Life Plant purifies the BLOOD. It renews LIFE, it restores the vital element in the BLOOD. That is why it cures diseases, and prevents disease. It is nature's way. It's the common sense way. Try it NOW. DELAY IS DANGEROUS.

HOME AFFAIRS.

Brief Notes of a Personal Nature And of Matters About Town.

W. C. T. U. Meeting.—An important meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance union was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Little, in the Diamond. Several questions of more or less interest were discussed.

Settlement Probable.—Committees from the boys and journeymen blacksmiths met last night to discuss the differences between them as to the new scale. The demands of the latter for an increase to $2.50 and eight hours on Saturdays were thoroughly gone over. The bosses are resisting the latter demand but are willing to make concessions on wages and it is likely that a satisfactory settlement will soon be made.

No Decision Yet.—Squire Rose announces that he may not be able to render his decision tomorrow in the case of Ohio against William Calloun, the street car conductor charged with taking 50 cents of the United Power company's money, owing to the transcripts of the testimony offered at the hearing not having been handed him. This morning only the testimony of one witness had been turned over to the justice.

Two Sams Arrested.—There were two "Sams" arrested by the police last evening. One Sam Martin had wandered out onto the Chester bridge and after singing "I stood on the bridge at midnight" lay down for sweet repose. Officer Woods was summoned to disturb his contentment and lodged him in jail. He paid $5.00 this morning. Sam Cartwright swore that he had been doped when arraigned before the mayor. He said that he only had three drinks of whiskey and on numerous occasions he had consumed a dozen. He was discharged.

Valued His Opinion Highly.—Lawyers, as a class, are often bothered by friends and acquaintances who, in a purely innocent manner, ask their opinions on legal technicalities, with never an idea of paying for the information.

A person of this class received a well merited rebuke recently from a legal luminary of New York. Meeting a lawyer, he drew from his pocket a five dollar bill and said: "Give me your opinion on this note. Is it good?"

The lawyer took it, examined it carefully and then rendered his decision. "It is perfectly good," he said, and in a nonchalant way he folded it up and put it in his pocket.

"And now," said the other, "I'll thank you for the money."

"Oh, no," replied the attorney. "I'll retain it as my fee. To give advice is my profession, and I cannot afford to render an important opinion without pay."

Filling a Large Contract.—"Do you always practice what you preach?" asked the tired deacon of the long winded minister.

"I do, my brother," said the long winded minister solemnly.

"Well," said the tired deacon, with a sigh, "I don't wonder, then, that you don't seem to get any time to make pastoral calls."

MAIN'S BIG CIRCUS ATTRACTS CROWDS

all could see all that was going on. The trained animals adhered to even the smallest details of their respective programs. The elephants were especially on their good behavior and the feats performed by them were truly remarkable. The crowd was not allowed to become fatigued with the show at any time and when all had been circled enough an entire change of program was speedily put on and renewed interest was seen on every countenance.

Miss Essie Fay, with a score or more of trained horses, was prominent among the large class of attractions. A pyramid was formed in the west ring, followed by a beautiful rally, in which the Shetlands, the bronchos, the Norman, French and others contrasted in a pleasing array.

Capt. P. J. Visser, the giant commander—6 feet and 9 inches high—a genuine Boer—commanded the Boer forces in a realistic sham battle with a well organized band of South Africans. The battle lasted about 40 minutes, and the military training on both sides was very commendable. Two elegant and genuine gattling guns were used in the battle, which, with the other parts of the fray, were equally interesting and instructive.

The bicycle races were especially well conducted, and an interesting feature of this was the speeding with a motor cycle.

This afternoon performance of the general exhibition concluded with a thrilling hippodrome race, after which a select concert was at the disposal of all who wished to remain. The evening exhibition will be a little different from that of the afternoon, and will doubtless be attended by a larger crowd.

A few only of the leading attractions of the Main shows have been referred to. One can hardly imagine how such a varied, extensive and pleasing program could be crowded in a little more than two hours' time.

SOCIAL EVENTS

MOTHERS' JEWELS

Children to Be Entertained at Mrs. Fowler's Home on Saturday.

The little children of the Mothers' Jewels society of the First M. E. church are looking forward to an evening of great pleasure on Saturday at the home of Mrs. E. W. Fowler, Jackson and Fifth streets. About 60 invitations have been issued and a large number of the children will be present.

An interesting musical and literary program has been arranged. A sale of candy will also be in progress for the children who are present and the proceeds will be added to the treasury funds of the society.

Mrs. Fowler is well known in the First M. E. church as an able and active worker among the children, and is making every endeavor to make the event pleasurable.

NEW CENTURY CLUB

An Interesting Meeting Held at the Home of Mrs. A. H. Metz Last Evening.

The New Century club met last evening at the home of Mrs. A. H. Metz, Fifth street. Mrs. W. H. Riley read a paper on Europe. Miss Gaver one on China and Japan, and Miss Newell one on the American Republic. It was a most interesting program. Mrs. A. M. Nickle, leader of current events of the day, arranged a musical treat assisted by Misses Huston and McLean. There will be only one more regular meeting and it will be devoted exclusively to the transaction of business, such as the election of officers and accepting the program for the years 1903-4. The last of all will be "A Day with Nature," to be spent with Miss Newell at the old Newell homestead in West Virginia on May 9.

Belmont Club Dance.

The members of the Belmont club completing arrangements for a dance on Thursday evening, May 21, at Rock Springs park. It will be among the brilliant social functions of the spring season. The committee on arrangements are Lawrence Bloor, A. G. Minehart, John Travis, George Stewart, Clarence Bauman. A large number of invitations will be issued.

Select Dance.

A select dance under the management of a committee composed of J. A. Flood, William Hocking and J. H. Maxwell will be given at Rock Springs park tomorrow evening. The Revere orchestra of Pittsburg will furnish music.

When It Suits You Take a Look at Our Suits

But you had better not put it off too long as our Spring Styles are so pleasing and the demand for Moore and Bel's High Grade Clothing is so great it will be impossible to keep up the styles and sizes. Only six months since we introduced this Tailor Made Clothing in the city and now it leads them all. A good new make is better, much better than a has-been. music. About 200 invitations have been issued and the affair is expected to be a very enjoyable one.

Given a Surprise.

Miss Kate Yontz was given a surprise last evening by the appearance at her home on East Fourth street of a number of her young friends. The unexpected guests were given a cordial welcome and all enjoyed a pleasant evening with game and music.

Study the Right Side.

A photographer was asked the other day if there is any special reason why most photographs show the left side of the face and not the right.

"Yes, there is a reason," he answered. "In a majority of cases the left side is the good looking side, and photographers know this and take advantage of it. On the other hand, if you want to get at the real strength and character of a person's face, man or woman, study the right side of it—the ugly side, as some portrait painters call it. There you will find the lines bold and harsh, comparatively so at any rate, with every defect accentuated. On the left side, however, everything is softened down, and the face is at its best."

"Whenever you suspect a man of trickery or deceit, or a woman either for that matter, stand on his right and closely watch his expression. There never was an actor skillful enough to cover up the marks of his real personality, as nature has stamped them on the right side of his face."

Political Economists.

While great fortunes and great industries have almost invariably been created by uneducated men, parvenus unimpaired with learning, who taught themselves what they found necessary to know, we find, on the other hand, that those men who have made commercial science, political economy, their study have not shown any success in business and have remained theorists. Most political economists have had to live on their pen. Mr. Cobden went bankrupt in business. It is true that Ricardo was well off, but he was a stockbroker by trade, and with him political economy was only a hobby, not a serious result. It is strange how few business men of the first rank have a good word to say of political economy.—Nineteenth Century.

The Green Eyed Monster.

"Yes, but it's all very bad."—Philadelphia Press.

Repertee.

Miss Reesday (patronizingly)—Rather embarrassing for you, I should think, always to be blushing when you shouldn't.

Miss Daymore—And equally embarrassing for me, I should think, never to be blushing when you should.—Smart Set.

Not Much Doubt of It.

TWO GREAT HORSES

Among the most conspicuous horses in Ohio at present are Parkville, 6050, and Maple Boy, 33881, record 2:27 1/4, at 3 years. Parkville is the only producing son of the incomparable Electioneer in eastern Ohio, and is the sire of the sensational $6,000 gelding, Quadriga, 2:08 1/4. In 1901 Country Jay, whose dam is by Parkville, swept through the grand circuit and captured $18,500.00 in stakes and purses, retiring with a record of 2:10 1/2. The 3 year old filly, Nelly Jay, by Jay Hawker, dam Paronella by Parkville, met and defeated the best of her age, won the much-coveted Kentucky Futurity, $14,000.00 stake, which was a hard fought race. Nellie Jay finally outlasting her competitors and landed the sixth heat in 2:14 1/4.

Maple Boy, 33,881 Record, 2:27 1/4. This grand young horse is four years old, a rich seal brown, 16 hands high and weighs 1175 pounds. He took his record last fall as a 3-year-old. Thus possessing the four great things so desirable in a stock horse and that which breeders are striving for, i. e., SIZE, FINISH, BREEDING, AND SPEED. On the 12th day of last November, Maple Boy trotted a trial timed by Messrs. Bowman, Rea and Creighton, of Lexington, Ky., in 2:24 1/4, last half in 1:07—a 2:14 gait, and last quarter in 31 seconds—a 2:04 gait. His breeding is the most fashionable in the stud book and he is beyond doubt one of the strongest bred trotting stallions in the world.

Sired by that great race horse and sire Oratorio, 2:13, son of Wilkes Boy, certainly one of George Wilkes' greatest sons, and sire of 78 in 2:30. His dam is Ellie Follie, who took a record of 2:40 1/4 in her yearling form, and one of the greatest colt trotters of her day. Thus, it will be seen that Maple Boy has a double infusion of Mambribo Patchen 58, through the great brood mare Bettie Brown, the dam of Wilkes Boy and the grand dam of Patchen Wilkes, sire of Joe Patchen, 2:01 1/4, the grand sire of Dan Patch, 1:58 1/4. His second, third, fourth, fifth and sixth dams are all producers, placing him far in the lead of any horse in eastern Ohio, and he has been pronounced by all horsemen who have seen him, to be in a class by himself. These horses are the property of A. H. Phillips, Salem, Ohio, where visitors will always be welcome whether intending to breed or not. Send for tabulated pedigree. 101-h

Hard to Answer.

A Chicago dentist tells this story: "Some years ago a young woman recently from the Emerald Isle called at my office to have some dental work done. I examined her teeth and found that among them was one so badly wasted that it was not worth filling. I told her this. 'How long,' she asked, 'do you think it would last if it were filled?' 'I have no idea,' I replied. 'Not very long anyway.' 'Well, how long do you think?' she persisted. 'I cannot say,' I returned. 'I would not guarantee it for any length of time.' Still anxious and determined to secure a favorable and definite answer, she asked, 'Will it last longer than you think it will?'"

Theory and Practice.

Here is a good story from the collection of a German school inspector. The pupils were being examined on the subject of personal hygiene. A boy was asked, "What have you to do in order to keep your teeth sound and white?" "Clean them," was the prompt reply. "When ought you to clean them?" "Morning, noon and night." "What are they to be cleaned with?" "With a toothbrush." "Very good. Have you a toothbrush?" "No, sir." "Has your father a toothbrush?" "No, sir." "Has your mother a toothbrush?" "No, sir." "But how do you know about the use of toothbrushes?" "We sell them, sir."

Overmatched.

"Now, witness," said the lawyer, "you say that your hearing is good?"

"Yes, sir."

"How good? Give me an illustration. Can you hear my watch tick?"

"No, sir. It's three days since I saw you going into the pawnshop, and the watch must have run down by this time."

A Bright Student.

At a medical college some students were being questioned in anatomy, and one of them was asked, "What muscles have their origin in the popliteal space?" The bright student promptly replied, "Well, there's that one with the darned long name, and I don't remember the other two."

It was the oscillation of a chandelier in a cathedral that suggested to Galileo the use of the pendulum, and about the year 1639 he applied it to clocks.

It isn't what a man has, but what he does with it, that counts.—Comfort.

The crowd was not allowed to become fatigued with the show at any time and when all had been circled enough an entire change of program was speedily put on and renewed interest was seen on every countenance.

Miss Essie Fay, with a score or more of trained horses, was prominent among the large class of attractions. A pyramid was formed in the west ring, followed by a beautiful rally, in which the Shetlands, the bronchos, the Norman, French and others contrasted in a pleasing array.

Capt. P. J. Visser, the giant commander—6 feet and 9 inches high—a genuine Boer—commanded the Boer forces in a realistic sham battle with a well organized band of South Africans. The battle lasted about 40 minutes, and the military training on both sides was very commendable. Two elegant and genuine gattling guns were used in the battle, which, with the other parts of the fray, were equally interesting and instructive.

The bicycle races were especially well conducted, and an interesting feature of this was the speeding with a motor cycle.

This afternoon performance of the general exhibition concluded with thrilling hippodrome races, after which a select concert was at the disposal of all who wished to remain. The evening exhibition will be a little different from that of the afternoon, and will doubtless be attended by a larger crowd.

A few only of the leading attractions of the Main shows have been referred to. One can hardly imagine how such a varied, extensive and pleasing program could be crowded in a little more than two hours' time.

SOCIAL EVENTS

MOTHERS' JEWELS

Children to be Entertained at Mrs. Fowler's Home on Saturday.

The little children of the Mothers' Jewels society of the First M. E. church are looking forward to an evening of great pleasure on Saturday at the home of Mrs. E. W. Fowler, Jackson and Fifth streets. About 60 invitations have been issued and a large number of the children will be present.

An interesting musical and literary program has been arranged. A sale of candy will also be in progress for the children who are present and the proceeds will be added to the treasury funds of the society.

Mrs. Fowler is well known in the First M. E. church as an able and active worker among the children, and is making every endeavor to make the event pleasurable.

Study the Right Side.

A photographer was asked the other day if there is any special reason why most photographs show the left side of the face and not the right.

"Yes, there is a reason," he answered. "In a majority of cases the left side is the good looking side, and photographers know this and take advantage of it. On the other hand, if you want to get at the real strength and character of a person's face, man or woman, study the right side of it—the ugly side, as some portrait painters call it. There you will find the lines bold and harsh, comparatively so at any rate, with every defect accentuated. On the left side, however, everything is softened down, and the face is at its best."

"Whenever you suspect a man of trickery or deceit, or a woman either for that matter, stand on his right and closely watch his expression. There never was an actor skillful enough to cover up the marks of his real personality, as nature has stamped them on the right side of his face."

NEW CENTURY CLUB

An Interesting Meeting Held at the Home of Mrs. A. H. Metz Last Evening.

The New Century club met last evening at the home of Mrs. A. H. Metz, Fifth street. Mrs. W. H. Riley read a paper on Europe. Miss Gaver one on China and Japan, and Miss Newell one on the American Republic. It was a most interesting program. Mrs. A. M. Nickle, leader of current events of the day, arranged a musical treat assisted by Misses Huston and McLean.

There will be only one more regular meeting and it will be devoted exclusively to the transaction of business, such as the election of officers and accepting the program for the years 1903-4. The last of all will be "A Day with Nature," to be spent with Miss Newell at the old Newell homestead in West Virginia on May 9.

Political Economists.

While great fortunes and great industries have almost invariably been created by uneducated men, parvenus unembarrassed with learning, who taught themselves what they found necessary to know, we find, on the other hand, that those men who have made commercial science, political economy, their study have not shown any success in business and have remained theorists. Most political economists have had to live on their pen. Mr. Cobden went bankrupt in business. It is true that Ricardo was well off, but he was a stockbroker by trade, and with him political economy was only a hobby, not a serious result. It is strange how few business men of the first rank have a good word to say of political economy.—Nineteenth Century.

TWO GREAT HORSES

Among the most conspicuous horses in Ohio at present are Parkville, 6050, and Maple Boy, 33881, record 2:27 1/4 at 3 years. Parkville is the only producing son of the incomparable Electioneer in eastern Ohio, and is the sire of the sensational $5,000 gelding, Qaudriga, 2:08 1/4. In 1901 Country Jay, whose dam is by Parkville, swept through the grand circuit and captured $18,500.00 in stakes and purses, retiring with a record of 2:10 1/4. The 3 year old filly, Nelly Jay, by Jay Hawker, dam Paronella by Parkville, met and defeated the best of her age, won the much-coveted Kentucky Futurity, $14,000.00 stake, which was a hard fought race. Nelly Jay finally outlasting her competitors and landed the sixth heat in 2:14 1/4.

Maple Boy, 33881, Record, 2:27 1/4.

This grand young horse is four years old, a rich seal brown, 16 hands high and weighs 1175 pounds. He took his record last fall as a 3-year-old. Thus possessing the four great things so desirable in a stock horse and that which breeders are striving for, i. e., SIZE, FINISH, BREEDING, AND SPEED. On the 12th day of last November, Maple Boy trotted a trial timed by Messrs. Bowman, Rea and Creighton, of Lexington, Ky., in 2:24 1/4, last half in 1:07—a 2:14 gait, and last quarter in 31 seconds—a 2:04 gait. His breeding is the most fashionable in the stud book and he is beyond doubt one of the strongest bred trotting stallions in the world. Sired by that great race horse and sire Oratorio, 2:13, son of Wilkes Boy, certainly one of George Wilkes' greatest sons, and sire of 78 in 2:30. His dam is Ellie Follie, who took a record of 2:40 1/4, in her yearling form, and one of the greatest colt trotters of her day. Thus, it will be seen that Maple Boy has a double infusion of Mambri-no Patchen 58, through the great brood mare Bettie Brown, the dam of Wilkes Boy and the grand dam of Patchen Wilkes, sire of Joe Patchen, 2:01 1/4, the grand sire of Dan Patch, 1:59 1/4. His second, third, fourth, fifth and sixth dams are all producers, placing him far in the lead of any horse in eastern Ohio, and he has been pronounced by all horsemen who have seen him, to be in a class by himself.

These horses are the property of A. H. Phillips, Salem, Ohio, where visitors will always be welcome whether intending to breed or not. Send for tabulated pedigree.

Hard to Answer.

A Chicago dentist tells this story: "Some years ago a young woman recently from the Emerald Isle called at my office to have some dental work done. I examined her teeth and found that among them was one so badly wasted that it was not worth filling. I told her this. 'How long,' she asked, 'do you think it would last if I were filled?' 'I have no idea,' I replied. 'Not very long anyway.' 'Well, how long do you think?' she persisted. 'I cannot say,' I returned. 'I would not guarantee it for any length of time.' Still anxious and determined to secure a favorable and definite answer, she asked, 'Will it last longer than you think it will?'"

Theory and Practice.

Here is a good story from the collection of a German school inspector. The pupils were being examined on the subject of personal hygiene. A boy was asked, "What have you to do in order to keep your teeth sound and white?" "Clean them," was the prompt reply. "When ought you to clean them?" "Morning, noon and night." "What are they to be cleaned with?" "With a toothbrush." "Very good. Have you a toothbrush?" "No, sir." "Has your father a toothbrush?" "No, sir." "Has your mother a toothbrush?" "No, sir." "But how do you know about the use of toothbrushes?" "We sell them, sir."

Overmatched.

"Now, witness," said the lawyer, "you say that your hearing is good?"

"Yes, sir."

"How good? Give me an illustration. Can you hear my watch tick?"

"No, sir. It's three days since I saw you going into the pawnshop, and the watch must have run down by this time."

A Bright Student.

At a medical college some students were being questioned in anatomy, and one of them was asked, "What muscles have their origin in the popliteal space?" The bright student promptly replied, "Well, there's that one with the darned long name, and I don't remember the other two."

It was the oscillation of a chandelier in a cathedral that suggested to Galileo the use of the pendulum, and about the year 1630 he applied it to clocks.

It isn't what a man has, but what he does with it, that counts.—Comfort.

Valued His Opinion Highly.

Lawyers, as a class, are often bothered by friends and acquaintances who, in a purely innocent manner, ask their opinions on legal technicalities, with never an idea of paying for the information.

A person of this class received a well merited rebuke recently from a legal luminary of New York. Meeting a lawyer, he drew from his pocket a five dollar bill and said: "Give me your opinion on this note. Is it good?"

The lawyer took it, examined it carefully and then rendered his decision. "It is perfectly good," he said, and in a moment he had folded it up and put it in his pocket.

"And now," said the other, "I'll thank you for the money."

"Oh, no," replied the attorney, "I'll retain it as my fee. To give advice is my profession, and I cannot afford to render an important opinion without pay."

Filling a Large Contract.

"Do you always practice what you preach?" asked the tired deacon of the long winded minister.

"I do, my brother," said the long winded minister solemnly.

"Well," said the tired deacon, with a sigh, "I don't wonder, then, that you don't seem to get any time to make pastoral calls."

HOME AFFAIRS.

Brief Notes of a Personal Nature And of Matters About Town.

W. C. T. U. Meeting.—An important meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance union was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Little, in the Diamond. Several questions of more or less interest were discussed.

Settlement Probable.—Committees from the boss and journeymen blacksmiths met last night to discuss the differences between them as to the new scale. The demands of the latter for an increase to $2.50 and eight hours on Saturdays were thoroughly gone over. The bosses are resisting the latter demand but are willing to make concessions on wages and it is likely that a satisfactory settlement will soon be made.

No Decision Yet.—Squire Rose announces that he may not be able to render his decision tomorrow in the case of Ohio against William Calhoun, the street car conductor charged with taking 50 cents of the United Power company's money, owing to the transcripts of the testimony offered at the hearing not having been handed him. This morning only the testimony of one witness had been turned over to the justice.

Two Sams Arrested.—There were two "Sams" arrested by the police last evening. One Sam Martin had wandered out onto the Chester bridge and after singing "I stood on the bridge at midnight" lay down for sweet repose. Officer Woods was summoned to disturb his contentment and lodged him in jail. He paid $5.00 this morning. Sam Cartwright swore that he had been doped when arraigned before the mayor. He said that he only had three drinks of whiskey and on numerous occasions he had consumed a dozen. He was discharged.

In 2:24 1/4, last half in 1:07—a 2:14 gait, and last quarter in 31 seconds—a 2:04 gait. His breeding is the most fashionable in the stud book and he is beyond doubt one of the strongest bred trotting stallions in the world.

Sired by that great race horse and sire Oratorio, 2:13, son of Wilkes Boy, certainly one of George Wilkes' greatest sons, and sire of 78 in 2:30. His dam is Ellie Follie, who took a record of 2:40 1/4 in her yearling form, and one of the greatest colt trotters of her day. Thus, it will be seen that Maple Boy has a double infusion of Mambri- no Patchen 58, through the great brood mare Bettie Brown, the dam of Wilkes Boy and the grand dam of Patchen Wilkes, sire of Joe Patchen, 2:04 1/4, the grand sire of Dan Patch, 1:59 1/4. His second, third, fourth, fifth and sixth dams are all producers, placing him far in the lead of any horse in eastern Ohio, and he has been pronounced by all horsemen who have seen him, to be in a class by himself. These horses are the property of A. H. Phillips, Salem, Ohio, where visitors will always be welcome whether intending to breed or not. Send for tabulated pedigree. 101-b

JOHN WYMAN THOUGHT TO BE THE MAN WHO WILL BE CHOSEN
AS THE CITY'S CHIEF OF POLICE*The Appointment, If Made by Mayor Weaver,
Will Inspire Terror Among All
Classes of Evil Doers.

It has been generally understood in certain circles for some time that special care would be taken by the new mayor to place a man at the head of the police department who would be feared and respected by evil doers. Either John Wyman or Charles Gill, both Republicans, well known to be such men, are considered likely to fill the office, and for several weeks—ever since the election—friends of both have been active in their behalf with the new administration.

Mayor-elect Weaver has nothing to say on the subject, and has told the News Review repeatedly that he has not yet made a selection. It can be stated at this time with a reasonable degree of certainty, however, that John Wyman will be named. Not that there has been any lack of effort on the part of Gill's supporters, for the have worked every string that is known to politics. It will be a plain case of the Wyman pull being the stronger. His record of a few years ago is still fresh in the minds of many good citizens, and it is presumed that his friends are more numerous and a trifle nearer the mayor.

John Wyman is a Republican and a man with a public record of which he can feel proud. Years ago when a member of the local police force his name was a terror to violators of the law in every walk of life. When he became sheriff of Columbiana county he took up the duties of the office and to the very end of his second term did his full duty in a manner most creditable to both himself and his party. "They all look alike to Wyman," remarked a prominent business man last night, "and if Mr. Weaver makes his selections in other departments with the same good judgment, I guess he will do."

The board of public safety composition is still being speculated upon, and to the present but one man can be said to have a dead sure hold on the job. The News Review is able to say almost to a certainty that Christian Metch will be a member of the board, and strange as it may seem, he is also a life-long Republican. Who the other members of this department will be can only be guessed at.

TEAMSTERS THREATEN TO GO ON A STRIKE*THEY DEMAND $2 FOR WORKING NINE HOURS.

Unless the New Scale Is Agreed to
They Will Quit Work
May 1.

The progress of building operations in East Liverpool may be still further retarded before the week is out by the threatened strike of the teamsters, who will undoubtedly quit work Friday if their demands are not acceded to.

The teamsters have been organized less than a year, but have met with extraordinary success in the matter of interesting the team drivers of the city to affiliate. Now there are few men engaged at this class of work who do not belong to the teamsters' union. Several weeks ago the members of the union concluded to ask a change in the working conditions. The matter was thoroughly discussed, and when the new scale was finally formed it was presented to the bosses.

The new scale provided for a nine-hour day and $2. Formerly the drivers had been working ten hours and receiving whatever pay they could get. The wages asked will be but a slight increase over what they are generally receiving, but the advantage to be gained through its uniformity was thought to be great.

A conference was held last Saturday night, but the only team owner to put in an appearance was a representative of the Pilgrim Bros., coal dealers. He proposed to grant the $2 a day, but desired that the men waive the nine-hour clause. This they refused to do, and the conference ended.

Meantime a committee has been at work making a canvas among the other employers, and a second conference has been arranged for Thursday evening at city hall. At that time the entire question will be gone over, and an effort made by the men to induce their bosses to agree to the terms. In case they refuse the men assert they will strike Friday morning.

SEARCH FOR LIGHT

Convention at Columbus Makes
Many Points in the New Code Clear.

INTELLIGENT DISCUSSION

Assisted By Special Counsel Smith W.
Bennett Will Be of Great Assistance—Half the Solicitors Without Previous Experience.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, April 29.—The city solicitors' convention held in this city yesterday and today was well attended and will undoubtedly be productive of much good, because of the new light obtained by those present as a result of the discussions on the code. The subjects prepared for discussion by Smith W. Bennett, code expert, were divided and apportioned among sub-committees. Several municipal officers were made members of the convention. Smith Bennett called the gathering to order, after which an organization was perfected by choosing U. G. Denman, former member of the house of representatives from Lucas county, chairman, and Phil B. Smythe, of Newark, secretary.

The committees appointed to divide the subjects and distribute them for a more intelligent discussion were as follows: Safety, service, finance, executive and council. A poll showed about one-half of the solicitors present never had experience in municipal affairs. The register showed eastern Ohio to be represented as follows: George E. Davidson, East Liverpool; Charles Boyd, Wellsville; Joseph Smith, Niles; William Dixon, Martin's Ferry; Cash Danforth, Bellaire; J. S. Miller, Alliance; Denver C. Hughes, Canton; S. McGowan, Steubenville. Solicitor Hughes, of Canton, was put on the executive committee. Many disputed points of the code were made clear, and altogether as a result of the meeting the solicitors have a better conception of its provisions and will be able to advise more intelligently regarding its operation.

Five suits were filed in the United States district court in this city against Isaac De Vaux, a ship lumber dealer of Cambridge, Guernsey county, who is charged with the importation of foreigners and aliens, under contract, to perform labor in the United States. The action is for the collection of penalties aggregating $5,000. It is alleged he brought five individuals here from Canada. The penalty is $1,000 for each violation.

The Grand Tribunal, Knights of Pythias of Ohio, is in session here considering appeals filed by lodges and individuals from subordinate bodies. The case of a Martin's Ferry member, who is charged with immorality, is to be heard.

Petition for Partition.

Lisbon, April 29.—(Special.)—Emma M. Swearingin, plaintiff in the divorce suit against James B. Swearingin, of West township, has also brought partition proceedings against her husband, asking that her interest in their 101 acre farm be set off to her. Allen Wickersham, in whose favor Mr. and Mrs. Swearingin executed a $547 mortgage November 9, 1901, is made a party defendant.

Two Cases Disposed Of.

Lisbon, April 29.—(Special.)—The case of Henry Vohwinkel against the American Steel and Wire company, of Salem, assigned in court today, has been settled. The terms are not given out. The case of Margaret Deer against the village of Hanover has been passed out of this assignment.

Memorial Day Orator.

Lisbon, April 29.—(Special.)—Rev. George Fowler, pastor of the Lisbon Christian church, has accepted the invitation of Starr post, G. A. R., to deliver the Memorial day address here. He had a like invitation from the Rogers G. A. R.

Licensed to Wed.

Lisbon, April 29.—(Special.)—Harry Kaufman, of Salem, and Edna C. Aldridge, of Salem township, have been licensed to marry.

John Bobon, of Pittsburg, and Miss Mary Dandar, of Washingtonville, and Leon R. Strobel and Margaretta Vogel, both of East Liverpool, have been licensed to marry.

KEEPING CLOSE WATCH UPON ALL CROOKS

POLICE WILL DO THEIR BEST TO PREVENT THEIVING.

Warning Given That Suspicious Characters Have Been Following
Up the Circus.

In anticipation of the arrival of crooks that usually follow a circus, Chief of Police Thompson issued special orders to the police last evening and every member of the force was on duty today. Some were detailed to watch the crowds at the railroad while the trains were being unloaded, some were at the show grounds all day and some were in the central portion of the city. Special officers were also on duty and if there were any acts of criminal nature enacted by the sharpers it was due to no negligence of the police.

The street cars were guarded more closely than ever before as a result of a tip offered by Mr. Hines, an official of the show, who informed Mayor Davidson early this morning that a crowd had been following the circus that made its prey out of street car passengers. At times suspicious characters were seen to board the cars but no loss of pocketbooks, loose change or jewelry was reported. While the throngs were surging around the Diamond and on other principal thoroughfares tricky looking individuals were also noticed but they did nothing that would warrant arrest.

One attempted steal was reported at central station this morning. A well known resident of the city stated that a smooth looking man had been trying to pass a check on a farmer appearing man, corner of Second and Washington streets. The rustic gentleman had evidently read of gold brick operations and threatened to have the trickster run in. It is thought that the unusual scarcity of depredations reported is due to the warning given the public by the newspapers. The statement was made in the News Review of the coming of the crooks and every one has been wide awake, not allowing any stranger to get in very close range with them. Housewives have also benefited by the warning, locking their back doors securely while the parade was in line.

HANNA INTERESTED

The Senator Would Not Miss the Lisbon Celebration for Anything.

Lisbon, April 29.—(Special.)—At the Salem banquet Monday evening, Senator C. C. Connell had some conversation with Senator Hanna concerning the centennial celebration to be held in June. Senator Hanna manifested the greatest interest and said he would esteem it a great privilege to attend and that he would not miss it for anything. He expressed a wish that as many as possible of the old residents might be present.

The senator will be entertained at the home of ex-Congressman Taylor while here.

Stricken With Paralysis.

Lisbon, April 29.—(Special.)—A. B. King, of Lisbon, aged 72, had a slight stroke of paralysis yesterday which has affected his left side to such a degree that he is unable to get about. Mr. King is the father of Ed A. King, secretary to Congressman James Kennedy, of Youngstown. He is also the father of U. G. King, of East Liverpool.

THE ATTENDANCE SMALL AND IMPORTANT MATTERS
COULD NOT BE CONSIDERED*An Ordinance Introduced Proposing More Salary
For the City Auditor—The Light
Question Again.

On account of the indifference of several of the members of council, the regular meeting of that body last night was so poorly attended that several important matters will have to be brought up at a later date.

Those in attendance were Mr. Howell, presiding, and Messrs. Peach, Orr, McConnell, Bullock and Johnston. The ordinance providing for a steam water sewer on Bradshaw avenue was put on its third reading and passed. The clerk was authorized to advertise for bids. An ordinance establishing grade lines on Maple street was read for the second time, and the measure granting to the C. C. Thompson Pottery company permission to use a portion of the county road also got its second reading.

A petition from the property owners on an unnamed alley on the north side asked that grade lines be fixed. No action was taken in that case, but a like petition from the residents of Martin street was favorably considered.

An ordinance granting to the East Liverpool Brick Manufacturing company permission to use a 20-foot alley near its works received its first reading, and though the company was very anxious to have the matter finally disposed of, there were not enough members present to suspend the rules.

Clerk Davidson read an ordinance providing for and fixing the bond of the city tax commission. The board will consist of four members and the bond of each will be $1,000.

An ordinance increasing the salary of the auditor and allowing the solicitor his expenses while out of town on the city's business received its first reading. The salary of the auditor had been fixed at $1,000 and the ordinance fixed it at $1,200. Upon looking carefully over the new code it had been found that the auditor's duties would be more arduous than had been anticipated at the time the salaries were fixed. It was decided by motion to instruct the solicitor to prepare a repealing ordinance to do away with the measure providing for a clerk for the mayor. This official was to receive $40 per month, and it was found the auditor could perform a part of these duties. The raise in the auditor's salary and the abolishing of the

THE RAILROAD AND THE CITY

TO BE DISCUSSED.

Supt. Scriven, of the C. & P., Will Meet Councilmanic Committee Friday.

Councilman George Peach received word last evening from Supt. Scriven, of the C. & P., stating that he would be in the city Friday to meet the railroad committee of council and perhaps the entire council. Mr. Scriven was notified a few days ago by City Clerk Davidson that council was ready to confer with him on the many matters that have arisen during the past few months, and his ready compliance in arranging to come to the city for that purpose shows that he is willing to have all matters settled amicably and anxiously for an early meeting.

It is not known what the most important topics of discussion will be on the day of the conference. Mr. Peach predicts that the meeting will be one of harmony, and that the demands of council will at least be given fair and just consideration.

CHARGE ENTERED

The Votes For Candidates in the
Race For Prizes Pile Up
Surprisingly.

SEND IN SERIES B COUPONS

Watch them grow! Surprising, isn't it, the way the votes are piling up for some of the candidates in the News Review's popularity contest. The end of the month comes tomorrow, and there may be more surprises in store. At any rate, the speed with which the lists are growing is abundant evidence of the popular interest in the race. The prizes appear even more desirable as hot weather approaches. An ocean voyage to Europe, or a lake trip, on a free ticket, is certainly something worth striving for, and it is no wonder the competition is keen.

Don't forget that Series B coupons expire tomorrow. Send or bring them in before it is too late.

The vote stands as follows:

MAIN'S BIG CIRCUS
ATTRACTS CROWDS

An Imposing Street Parade Followed by a Most Attractive Performance.

MANY NEW FEATURES SEEN

The first train of the big circus arrived in the city at 7:20 this morning. It was greeted by scores of urchins and many grown people who stood at the foot of Broadway and watched intently the unloading. From the railroad to the West End park the wagons were followed, and during all the morning a great crowd watched the maneuvers of the show people, their animals and their followers. It is a sight well worth seeing and East Liverpool people never let the opportunity slip by.

The well arranged street parade, starting from the grounds shortly before 12 o'clock, brought crowds from all parts of the city to the principal thoroughfares, and as the several bands of music in chariots, on horseback and otherwise played popular selections the enthusiasm broadened. It was one of the most interesting and attractive parades ever seen in the city and many who had no intention of seeing the show made up their minds to do so after watching the exceptionally fine and inviting parade. The steam piano merrily tooted a series of familiar roundelays in the rear of the procession, and its strains echoed over many blocks.

The afternoon exhibition opened at 2 o'clock and the big tent was well filled when the first program was produced. Every arrangement was like clock work from the first performance. The side-splitting comedy features were without precedent in the city. The exhibition was so arranged that

NEW POTTERY AT KOKOMO.

The Columbia Pottery & Manufacturing company, of Kokomo, Ind., was incorporated last week with a capital stock of $50,000. The incorporators are: President I. U. Miller; secretary, H. C. Waldman; treasurer, W. W. Drinkwater; superintendent, William Kurlow; assistant superintendent, Charles F. Bourne. Other stockholders are W. A. Russell, C. A. Dolman, B. F. Harbster and George Critchlow. The company will manufacture sanitary and general ware, and operations for the establishment of the plant have already begun. A two-story brick building is already on the site and with little difficulty can be converted into a factory. The main building will be 50x500 feet. Another building, which will be erected at once, is 8x125 feet.

President Miller and Manager Kurlow arrived in East Liverpool last night, and will spend several days here looking over the machinery in the local foundries. They may place the order for the equipment of the new plant in this city.

The company will employ upwards of 200 men, a number of whom will be secured from East Liverpool. Messrs. Kurlow and Bourne are well known practical potters. H. C. Waldman, secretary of the new company, has been an office man in the Great Western pottery at Kokomo for several years.

NEW YORK MARKETS.

While business in the local ware-rooms has fallen off somewhat during the last week, the dullness is generally looked upon as a circumstance to be expected at this season of the year. There are still enough buyers in town, however, to keep everybody quite busy and during this week, a resumption of the former brisk demand is anticipated. Mail orders have been coming in quite freely and a good inquiry is reported by the traveling men. It will soon be time for the summer hotels and cottages to place their orders for supplies, and altogether a good trade from now on may be expected.

Domestic crockery is more than ever in demand and the factories are reported to have more orders on their hands than they can attend to for some time. All the potteries are running on full time and some are even working over time. There seems to be a special demand for the better grades of American ware and this in itself should prove an incentive to the manufacturers to turn out a grade of goods which should compete more favorably with the foreign article.

The same demand as last reported exists for English wares. Sales have been quite heavy, with some importers reporting an increased demand over that of last year. Decorated goods especially have been in marked request, while English china has found a more profitable market here this year than ever before.

NO. 12 MET.

Jiggermen's local No. 12 met last night in Brotherhood hall to give the delegates to the national convention final instructions and transact much other important business. The attendance was large, evidencing the great interest that is being manifested by the men in the affairs of the trade. The candidacy of Frank Gratton, secretary of the local, for national secretary, is meeting with great favor among the men, with whom he is popular. His friends claim for him that a better qualified man for the position cannot be found in the organization.

IMPORT VALUATIONS.

Our importations of dutiable china, porcelain, parian and bisque ware, not decorated or ornamented, for the year ending June 30, 1902, amounted to $955,517 in value as compared with $1,894,577 on the same class of merchandise in 1892. The importations of decorated or ornamental ware for 1902 amount to $8,309,911, while in 1892 the value was $6,344,708. Importations of all other kinds of earthen and china-ware amounted to $414,728 in 1902 and to $469,312 in 1892.

NEW TINTING MACHINE.

An additional tinting machine will be installed at the Severs to better handle the increasing amount of business for this line of ware. The fan for the machine has been received and it will be ready for operation within a few days. The demand for the Severs decorated lines continues and the plant is in full operation.

FELL DOWN STAIRS.

Edward Beardmore, employed as a handmaker at the K. T. & K., fell down a flight of stairs at the plant yesterday morning and was rendered unconscious. He was taken to his home in an ambulance, where he soon recovered. He was not injured, aside from a few bruises and will be able to resume work in a few days.

PAINFULLY BURNED.

Orlando Ralston, decorating kiln fireman at the Severs, is working with his right forearm bandaged on account of severe burns received several days ago. He was taking down the door of one of the kilns when one of the bricks, intensely hot, fell, striking him on the arm, burning him painfully.

BRIEGLER RECOVERING.

Theodore Briegler, who was recently shot by Robert Surles at Sebring, has so far recovered as to be able to resume work, he taking his place at the bench in the French Monday. No arrests were made in the matter of the shooting, and it is not likely that any action of the kind will be taken.

SEBRING WEDDING.

Miss Myrtle Harrington, of Sebring, and James C. Speakman, of Alliance, were married one day last week by Rev. Morris Floyd, of the Sebring M. E. church. Mrs. Speakman was an employee of one of the Sebring plants and has many friends here.

AMONG THE WORKERS.

Charles Malone, of the Severs sagger shop, is laid up with a felon on his hand.

Mrs. Maggie Orr, of the biscuit warehouse at the Severs, is working out her notice.

John Webb, Jiggerman at the Severs, was leaving yesterday, owing to the illness of his mouldrunner.

Rafe O'Brien, mouldrunner at the Severs, has been laid up for the past two weeks with the mumps.

FIERCE FOREST FIRES RACING

Northern Michigan Threatened With Great Loss from Flames—Havoc Is General.

Alpena, Mich., April 29.—Reports from the surrounding country state that forest fires are raging more vigorously than ever, and that if rain does not fall soon the damage will be great. Many small towns along the line of the northern extension of the Detroit and Mackinac railroad are in immediate danger of destruction.

The atmosphere in the vicinity of Alpena and the surrounding country is almost unbearable. A call was sent to Alpena from Onaway for a fire engine to assist in fighting the flames.

Dispatches from Traverse City state that the fire is threatening the summer resort's cottages in that vicinity. Word also comes from Cheboygan that forest fires in that county are raging and many small places are threatened. Both sides of Mullet lake are encompassed with fire. Fierce fires are raging 25 miles from Ishpeming and is doing great damage to farm buildings.

Due Notice is Served.

Due notice is hereby served on the public generally that DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is the only salve on the market that is made from the pure, undiluted witch hazel. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve has cured thousands of cases of piles that would not yield to any other treatment, and this fact has brought out many worthless counterfeits. Those persons who get the genuine DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve are never disappointed, because it cures.

PRACTICAL TEMPERANCE

The most confirmed drunkards have been and are being reclaimed and fully cured by the Oppenheimer Treatment. Our claims are based on ten years' experience in the successful treatment of cases of alcoholism of all kinds.

Patient sleeps normally in three or five days. His system is restored to its normal condition after a few days' treatment, and all craving for whiskey or alcoholic stimulant is absolutely removed. His general health is positively improved. No hypodermics are employed. The patient's occupation is not interfered with. Residence at the Institute is optional in cases of alcoholism.

Drug additions are treated with equal success.

MISS ROSE OWENS,

No. 720 Seventeenth St., WASHINGTON, D. C.

Miss Rose Owens.

"If every suffering woman has the same experience with Wine of Cardui that I had, your medicine will be most popular. About a year ago I began to have a worn out tired feeling with lassitude, pains in the back and head which kept increasing every month. I felt that I needed something, but to get the right medicine was the trouble. I finally decided on your Wine of Cardui and only needed to take three bottles when I was fully recovered."

WHEN Miss Rose Owens, who has a responsible position in the Government service at Washington, D. C., decided to try Wine of Cardui, she made a wise choice. Over a million women have been relieved of female weakness by this same Wine of Cardui. It is not a strong medicine but may be taken every day in the year by any woman with benefit. It does not force results, but corrects derangements of the menstrual organs. It strengthens the nervous system, gives tone to the bodily functions, acts directly on the genital organs, and is the finest tonic for women known to the science of medicine.

If you are a suffering woman we would say to you that Wine of Cardui seldom fails to completely cure any case of female ills. We say emphatically, it never fails to benefit. Every day hundreds of sufferers are writing to our Ladies' Advisory Department. The letters are opened by persons competent to give advice. Mrs. Jones was cured by following the advice which was freely given her by the Ladies' Advisory Department. Miss Owens was cured without advice by just buying a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui from her druggist and taking this great medicine in the privacy of her home. No doctor's examination, treatment or advice is necessary. You have read what these two cured women have written. Is this not enough to lead you to determine to be rid of suffering?

August 13, 1900, Mrs. W. H. Jones, of Cameron, Mo., writes: "I suffered terribly at monthly periods for three years. I would sometimes go for seven months with no flow at all. Now I have my health back again and am expecting to be confined in January. I cannot praise your medicine enough."

WINE of CARDUI

A million suffering women have found relief in Wine of Cardui.

EAST END

SEWERAGE SYSTEM IS A PERPLEXING QUESTION

Street Paving Must Wait Until This More Important Matter Is Settled, Say Property Owners.

So great has been the growth of the East End, both in population and business enterprises, that the question of permanent improvements for the principal streets is receiving a great deal of attention. There is a strong sentiment for street paving among the property owners, but not under the present conditions, and any move in this direction will be bitterly opposed until the more important matter of a sewerage system is disposed of.

The topography of the section is such as to demand a system. The entire territory is almost as level as a floor, and there is not a single outlet for sewage. Numerous violations of the health laws of the city are reported to the sanitary officer, but in a great many cases he is powerless to act. These laws contemplate a sewerage system, and as the East End has none they are almost inoperative.

No satisfactory solution of the problem has yet been found, and it is perplexing the minds of many. An outlet for the sewer would necessarily have to be at some point below in the intake for the water works, which would necessitate the building of a long trunk line. This would put the property owners to an enormous expense, and some of them would not receive proportionate benefits.

YESTERDAY A BIG DAY FOR REAL ESTATE MEN

Block of Five Lots and Two Dwellings Changed Hands Through One Agency.

Transactions in East End real estate have commenced with a sudden vim after a sluggish market during the winter months. The predictions of an extensive growth for this section during the summer season are about to be realized. The growth promises to be even more extensive than was at first predicted. During the past week the real estate agents have had many inquiries about East End properties and yesterday was a red letter day for at least one of them. Walter Supplee, who has charge of the Midway Land company's addition and many other interests, closed eight sales yesterday.

The most important of this number was a fine residence on Mulberry street, which was taken by Dr. William J. Grimes, of New Somerset, Jefferson county. The consideration has not been made public. Dr. Grimes will have extensive improvements made on his purchase and when they are completed he will occupy it with his family. Dr. Grimes will locate in the East End for the practice of his profession. Mr. Supplee also sold a three-room cottage in the Purinton Land company's addition and a block of five lots in the Midway company's addition.

Mr. Supplee has responded to a large number of inquiries and he is confident that the market will continue active. Squire L. W. Carman, who is another extensive dealer in realty, has a number of sales partly closed. Alex. Chafin is making sales of lots almost every day.

BUILDING NEW CHURCH

Work to Be Commenced This Morning on Second Christian Church Edifice on Maple Street.

Work on the foundation of the new Second Christian church edifice was commenced this morning at the lot owned by the church on Maple street. Rev. C. A. Kleeberger assisted in the work of establishing the lines. The members of the congregation have been aroused to a high pitch of enthusiasm through the eloquent appeals of Rev. Mr. Kleeberger, who is conducting a series of special meetings in Larkins' hall, and already quite a sum of money has been pledged.

The edifice will not be an expensive one and is only intended to serve for a few years, when a more substantial one is to be built. The work will go forward as rapidly as possible on the new building.

YOUR MONEY RETURNED

If Hyomei Does Not Cure You of Catarrh, Says Will Reed.

In advertising that they will refund the money to any one purchasing a Hyomei outfit who can say that it has done them no good in the treatment of catarrh, Will Reed means exactly what this guarantee says.

Of course the percentage of cures by Hyomei is nearly one hundred or else he could not afford to make this unusual offer. But if the treatment should not be adapted to your case, there will be no questions or quibblings when you go to get your money.

That the beginning of catarrh is due to the presence of germs in the air passages is now admitted by every physician. It stands to reason that catarrh cannot be cured unless these germs are first destroyed. The Hyomei treatment kills the catarrh germs even in the minutest air cells, soothes and heals the irritated mucous membrane and makes complete and lasting cures in cases that have resisted the usual methods of treatment.

Catarrh cannot be cured by medicines administered through the stomach. Hyomei is the only natural method and it has made cures that seem miraculous. An outfit costs but $1.00 and consists of an inhaler which will last a lifetime and sufficient Hyomei for more than a month's treatment. Additional bottles of Hyomei can be procured for 50c.

Will Reed gives his personal guarantee with every Hyomei outfit he sells to refund the money if it does not cure. There is no risk whatever to the purchaser of Hyomei.

A daughter was born yesterday to Mr. and Mrs. John Dexter, of High street.

Hartman Guice, a wealthy citizen of Cadiz, is dead at the age of 80 years. He was formerly an Ohio river steamboat captain. His remains were taken to McKeesport, Pa., for burial. He recently gained notoriety by giving his young wife $15,000 to go her way.

A Prisoner in Her House.

Mrs. W. H. Lavha, of 1901 Agnes avenue Kansas City, Mo., has for several years been troubled with severe hoarseness and at times a hard cough, which she says, "Would keep me in doors for days. I was prescribed for by physicians with no noticeable results. A friend gave me a part of a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with instructions to closely follow the directions and I wish to state that after the first day I could notice a decided change for the better, and at this time after using it for two weeks, have no hesitation in saying I realize that I am entirely cured. From this time on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will be in my house constantly." This remedy is for sale by Alvin H. Bulger.

OLD MAN SEEMS TO HAVE A VERY BAD CASE OF IT

Lisbon, April 29. — (Special.) — A sensational divorce petition has just been filed here by Attorney Charles S. Speaker in behalf of the plaintiff, Mrs. Emma Swearingen, of West township, who desires legal separation from James B. Swearingen. The plaintiff's husband has been enjoined from disposing of his half interest in a 101-acre farm in West township, the wife having included in her petition a request for alimony.

The petition contains copious extracts from a series of letters alleged to have been exchanged by Mr. Swearingen and Mrs. Harriet Ruff, a neighbor's wife, who is named as the co-respondent. Mrs. Swearingen says she was married to the defendant at East Rochester August 10, 1872. The three daughters born to them survive, two being married. She charges extreme cruelty, alleging in February, 1900, her husband laid violent hands on her and the present month threatened to throw her violently against an out-house and injure her. She has not lived with him since a discovery of a number of letters received from Mrs. Harriet Ruff. She says her husband has been visiting and showing attention to Mrs. Ruff, wife of Daniel Ruff, visiting her as often as four times a day. Stacks of letters passed between the defendant and Mrs. Ruff.

In these letters the defendant expresses his love and admiration for Mrs. Ruff most profusely, declaring that he is frequently in tears when he thinks of her, and of the pain of being separated from her. He says he walks around her house in the night crying bitterly, and that he fears his wife may see the tears trickling down his face. In one of the letters he says he had gone to East Rochester in the hope of seeing her there and then tried to plow, but could not work on account of his love for her. He says: "I am in the woods and it is almost dark, so I will have to write and say good night, my loved one, but I shall think of you all night till I see you and write some more tomorrow."

For liver troubles and constipation there's nothing better in creation than Little Early Risers, the famous little pills.

That always effect a cure and save doctor bills. Little Early Risers are different from all other pills. They do not weaken the system, but act as a tonic to the tissues by arousing the secretions and restoring the liver to the full performance of its functions naturally.

May Day Strike Threatened. Omaha, Neb., April 29.—Near 7,000 men, members of trades unions, threaten to strike next Monday unless their demands for increased wages shall be conceded by employers.

These unions include teamsters, leather workers, waiters and cooks, brewery workers, structural iron men, freight package handlers, carpenters and plasterers. About 750 are already on strike and 850 teamsters already have declared a strike in case a settlement shall not be reached. Efforts are being made by many of the employers to settle with the men, while others refuse to consider their demands.

THE PREVAILING MODES.

Fawn and Gray Tones Smart—New Cape Ruffles Very Elaborate.

Fawn and pearl gray tones are even more popular than ever this spring. The goods for dressy wear are of smooth surface, while those employed for the little walking costumes are of rough cheviot or Scotch materials. The flat stoles of feathers which are seen in the shops at present will not retain their popularity, for they are utterly unsatisfactory as wraps and too flat and hard to be either graceful or becoming. This summer we shall see elaborate editions of the cape ruffle in velvet or lace and chiffon and in glaze silk with tiny borders of feathers or chenille.

For those who dress their hair high and adopt the present mode of flat shoulders something fussy round the neck is absolutely necessary. The new hats with spreading brims in front also make the broad ruffle indispensable.

The cut shows a smart street costume of the fashionable shades of fawn cloth. JUDIC CHOLLET.

NEW HATS AND FRILLS.

White silk and satin shapes—The New Capes.

Many of the new hats are of the picture order, but have flat crowns, and are trimmed tolerably low with an osprey or egret in front.

The new shapes are shown in silk or satin incrustated with ivory motifs or ecru lace and bound with velvet. Two large cloches of satin or two feather pompons are usually placed in front, but feathers droop on the sides of some and large velvet lilies or orchids are wreathed on others.

There are some figures to whom the new capes or peleries are becoming.

GOWN OF WHITE NUN'S VEILING.

but for the average woman they are in nowise desirable, as they add to the width and detract from the height. Lace will be much used on spring gowns; and the newest motifs and applique designs show a combination of guipure passementerie and embroidery, or chine or pompadour medallions sometimes take the place of the embroidery.

Very smart arrangements of jet intermingled with black chiffon characterize the black lace gowns. Pretty fichus of black chiffon are trimmed with narrow black velvet bows, and these have tiny paste buckles in the center of each bow.

Nun's veiling is a material very much in fashion just now, especially in the paler shades.

The cut shows a gown of this material in white. JUDIC CHOLLET.

Handmade Philosophy.

Ingenuously in a pretty girl is inquisitiveness to a homely one. Some people show a friendly interest in our affairs, while others are trying to attend to our business. Some people seem to delight in learning how we are getting along and others want to know too much. Yet they all ask the same questions. —Chicago Tribune.

A TRUE STORY.

How a Young Wife Regained Her Health and Beauty.

W. E. Birch, Afton, Va., an extensive fruit grower of that place, writes the following letter to the Peruna Medicine Co., of Columbus, Ohio. We print the letter in full:

Afton, Va., June 4, 1900. The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, O.: Gentlemen—"The country is so flooded with patent medicines of every kind that are worthless and a humbug, that I for one, am glad to be able to say I have found one that is everything and more than is claimed for it.

"My wife was very much run down and out of sorts in every way. She had a pelvic disorder which left her very weak, nervous and no appetite at all.

"One day I happened to be at my father's store, S. A. Birch, Coresville, Alb county, Va., and noticed your medicine he had there for sale.

"I thought it might help my wife, so I brought a bottle of it home and within a week she commenced to eat and now she is hungry all the time and the medicine has been taken. We both agree that it beats any medicine to bring on an appetite and to put the nerves in good shape that we have ever had anything to do with. We had our family doctor to give her medicine and he did all he could, but she did not improve the least. She has consumption in her family and she was in such bad shape; so run down, nervous, weak, and could not eat, that I had begun to get very uneasy, but your medicine made an entirely new woman of her. I believe she eats and feels better now than she has for years.

"I have not the slightest doubt but that your medicine has saved her from a long spell of sickness, if nothing more. All my family had begun to get uneasy, but, of course, she did not know it and I have only just told her of it since she has improved so much. I had no idea it would do half what it has and don't think there is another medicine made that will begin to compare with it."—W. E. Birch, Fruit Grower, Afton, Alb county, Va.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Said General Miles at the good roads convention in St. Louis: "I know of no one element of civilization in our country that has been more neglected and yet is susceptible of bestowing a greater blessing on people than improvement of our lines of communication and avenues of internal commerce. Our government has expended $500,000,000 for the improvement of our harbors and waterways, and now the attention of the public is being called to our postal roads and avenues of communication that are most useful and important to all our people." General Miles is often criticised for his utterances on military subjects, but here are words to which nobody can take exception. National, state, county and township interests are all involved in the improved roads question. There is beginning to be a lively interest manifested, but still the great popular awakening that will be necessary before any great progress is made seems remote. The fact that the country is many years if not centuries behind the age in this absolute essential to progress should arouse something more than spasmodic effort. There should be more than a national good roads association. County and township leagues should be formed and try to inform themselves as to the best methods of road building and arouse public interest in the matter. The government is doing much in this direction, but it cannot do everything. Those who are not willing to help themselves seldom get help. The people must be taught the benefits and advantages of better roads and the necessity for them. The great convention at St. Louis should have a powerful stimulus in this direction, but the effort must be sustained or the results will be of minor importance.

The Boston Globe, a Democratic organ which perhaps has heaped as much abuse on the head of Senator Hanna as any newspaper in the country, is now constrained to speak in his praise. It says: "Hanna believes in the mutual interest of employer and employe, a proposition that nobody is disposed to deny. The problem is to get them together. But Hanna as an employer himself is a standing rebuke to the nothing-to-arbitrate fraternity, and is doing much good as an industrial pacificator. He should devote some of his beneficent talks to those business men in the west who are organizing for the sole and avowed purpose of preventing honest workmen from organizing."

The little republic of Cuba is in a peculiarly favorable condition. She has had good luck during her eleven months of life as an independent government. She can look forward to annexation to the United States whenever she gives the word. This combination of happy circumstances ought to satisfy the most fastidious of her citizens. Not every new country starts out under such auspicious circumstances. There is good reason to believe that these things are having a pleasing effect on the minds of her thoughtful citizens.

In twenty-five working days the United States mint at Philadelphia coined 2,500,000 silver pesos, the size of a dollar, for the Philippines, together with 100,000 bronze pieces and 3,600,000 nickels, also for the islands. Uncle Sam loses no time in living up to the new geographical requirements.

China cannot resist Russian encroachment without outside aid, and there will be a sad entangling of international alliances if she gets such aid.

Peace with the czar means letting him have his own way.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Harriet Brunt Thompson.

Harriet Brunt Thompson, aged 75 years, the wife of Dr. W. L. Thompson, died at 9:15 o'clock last night at the family home, corner Market and Fourth streets. A little more than a week ago Mrs. Thompson suffered a stroke of paralysis and her general health began to fail. Last Sunday she became unconscious and remained in that condition until death resulted at the hour stated. Mrs. Thompson was a member of one of the pioneer families of this section and had been a resident of this city almost all the years of her life. Her father, William Brunt, Sr., was one of the pioneer pottery manufacturers of the west. Her husband and one child, Mrs. George D. Blackmore, and the following brothers and sister survive her: William and Henry Brunt and Mrs. William Moor. The funeral services will be held from the residence tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

James Hanlon.

James Hanlon, aged 66 years, a venerable and highly respected citizen, died yesterday afternoon at the home of his son, James P. Hanlon, of Lincoln avenue, after an illness of about six weeks. The funeral services will be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock in St. Aloysius' church, and the interment will follow in St. Aloysius' cemetery. Mr. Hanlon came to this city from Cincinnati in the year 1874, and was employed as a presser in the local potteries until a short time ago. His last employment was at the Pioneer plant in Wellsville. He was known as one of the most skilled workmen in the district. He is survived by three sons, Edward H. and Samuel C., of Tiffin, and James P., of Lincoln avenue.

FRIENDS AND VISITORS

Undertaker C. N. Miller was at Solonville today.

Mrs. Jacob Stein is spending a few days in Pittsburgh.

Miss Maude Steele has returned from a visit to Beaver Falls friends.

John West is ill at his home on Bank street, suffering with the grip.

Mrs. Anna Laughlin, mother of Prof. H. F. Laughlin, is seriously ill at the latter's home.

Miss Lillian Miller has been called to her home in Coshocton, owing to the serious illness of her mother.

Mrs. James McKenna, of Denver street, is at Cambridge, O., on account of the illness of Mr. McKenna's mother.

Mrs. Robert Barr, of Seventh street, is very ill. She is afflicted with typhoid fever and it is feared she cannot recover.

R. G. Shenkel, who has been taking treatment at Cambridge Springs for several weeks, is expected home Sunday. Mr. Shenkel is greatly improved in health.

Edward Geon, who has been confined to his home on Lincoln avenue for the past few weeks with an attack of typhoid fever, was able to be out yesterday for the first time.

M. C. Wright, secretary of the Y. M. C. A., continues quite seriously ill. He is suffering from a severe cold and gastric fever and his physician says it will be at least a week before he can leave his room.

Why, the Idea!

Mrs. Gossip—It's shameful the way papers are filled with details about other people's affairs.

Mrs. Gusher—I've often thought so too.

Mrs. Gossip (ten minutes later)—Why, this paper hasn't one word about the De Smarter's divorce case.

Mrs. Gusher—Why, how absurd!—Chelsea (Mass.) Gazette.

Why She Stood.

"Madam," said the conductor to the plain and somewhat elderly woman standing up in the street car, "why don't you ask one of these men to give you his seat?"

"Because," she answered, grimly sarcastic, "I haven't the face to do it!"—Chicago Tribune.

Force of Habit.

"Are you the man," she sadly asked, "who sells the monuments?"

"I am," he replied.

"Well, I want to see about getting one for my husband. Could I have it sent out, and if it doesn't fit would you take it back?"—Chicago Record-Herald.

Don't fool with a cold; no one can tell what the end may be. Pneumonia, catarrh, chronic bronchitis and consumption invariably result from neglected colds. Nothing can be compared with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as a quick cure for colds and influenza, and by its use these diseases may be avoided. For sale by Alvin H. Bulger.

CANADA'S INDUSTRIAL OUTLOOK

Invasion of American Capital Promises to Make Present Year Memorable.

Montreal, April 29.—United States Consul General Bittinger says that never before in the history of Canada has the industrial outlook been so bright. American capital promises to make the present year memorable by the establishment of new and immense enterprises and the enlargement of many of those now existing.

American capitalists have started new railroads and banks, and vast tracts of timber land has been purchased by a new company composed principally of Americans. Diggins companies have begun to mine coal, copper, nickel and gold, and a large company has purchased a tract of land in Montreal on which to erect a paint factory. Syndicates have been formed for the purpose of manufacturing pulp, timber, seedling machines, aluminum, iron, steel and asbestos. Valuable mica properties in the provinces of Ontario and Quebec recently have been purchased by United States capitalists. An American transportation company has begun to build ships to be operated between Duluth, Minn., and Quebec, and many other investments have been made of American capital.

Adventists Heed Prophecies.

Battle Creek, Mich., April 29.—After a fight lasting more than a week the stockholders of the Seventh Day Adventists publishing house here decided to move the plant east, the name of the city not yet decided upon. This action shows that the majority of the stockholders believed in Mrs. Ellen White, a leading prophetess of the society, who predicted disaster if the plant was not moved and the Adventists colonized here do not scatter to various parts of the country. It is believed the action taken will have a tendency to split the denomination into two factions.

Britt Declared Winner.

San Francisco, April 29.—Referee Eddie Grady declared Jimmy Britt the winner of one of the fastest and best fights ever seen in San Francisco. Willie Fitzgerald, of Brooklyn, was the man who put up the good contest against the California wonder. Britt was the cleverest of the men and landed two blows to Fitzgerald's one. With the exception of the last round, when Fitzgerald put the San Francisco boy on his knees with a left swing on the jaw, Britt's superiority was manifested during the entire fight.

Cause of Smallpox.

Boston, April 29.—The announcement of the discovery of the cause of smallpox was made by Dr. William T. Councilman, professor of pathology in the Harvard medical society at a meeting of the Boston society of the medical science. It has been determined that smallpox is caused by a micro-organism representative of the lowest form of animal life. This fact serves to show a relation between smallpox and such diseases as malaria and to distinguish it from many other infectious diseases caused by bacteria.

Laundry Plant Burned.

Philadelphia, April 29.—The seven-story building at Camac street and Columbia avenue, occupied by the Forest laundry, was entirely destroyed by fire. C. J. Miller, the proprietor of the plant, estimated his loss at $100,000, on which there is $50,000 insurance.

Death of Well-Known Horseman.

Good For Children.

The pleasant to take and harmless One Minute Cough Cure gives immediate relief in all cases of cough, croup, and laryngitis because it does not pass immediately into the stomach, but takes effect right at the seat of the trouble. It draws out the inflammation, heals and soothes and cures permanently by enabling the lungs to contribute pure life-giving and life-sustaining oxygen to the blood and tissues.

AT THE THEATER

"As You Like It." Alberta Gallatin and her superb Shakespearan company will be seen at the Grand May 4. Already about 200 seats have been sold by the manager, who has been in the city for a week. Miss Gallatin is the acknowledged "Rosalind," according to the best critics of the leading papers of today. The manager of the Grand is to be congratulated after hard efforts to get this delightful comedy.

A straight legitimate farce by the greatest farce writer of the age, H. A. DuSouchet, produced by Myron B. Rice, with all its original contents, "My Friend from India." This comedy, unlike most productions of its class, has a plot of coherency and action and is brimming with clean fun from start to finish. Its engagement here is for next Tuesday at the Grand.

An early attraction at the Grand opera house will be the great religious drama, "The Sign of the Cross," which continues to meet with so much success. The company which will be seen here is composed almost entirely of English artists, and are the same that have been with this attraction both here and in England.

Tolstol's latest masterpiece, dramatized by Charles W. Chase from the original Russian manuscript, will be presented at the Grand at an early date by an exceptionally clever company. This will undoubtedly be the event of the season.

Stellian Grass.

In Sicily there is a wild grass which, when ripe at the end of summer, is gathered by the peasantry, tied in bundles and set on fire, not, however, to be consumed, but for a mere scorching. The flame flies rapidly through the night bushes and beard of the plant and leaves the seeds slightly roasted, in which state they are eaten with considerable relish by numbers of the rural population.

The botanical name of this Stellian grass is scellips, or goaway, the Greeks having believed it to be a remedy for a disease that appears in one corner of the eye. There are three or four species growing all around the Mediterranean as well as in the islands, chiefly on the hot, dry, sandy plains near the sea. They flourish even on the scorched volcanic soils, in strange contrast to their arid and barren surroundings, showing that the vital principle in them is unusually energetic and proof against extremes of heat.

Church Nods.

"Didn't the minister feel it when so many in the congregation fell asleep during the sermon?"

"Oh, no. It encouraged him to keep on."

"How so?"

"Why, he was egotistical enough to think they were nodding approval at what he said."

Tame Trout.

An English gentleman had some trout in a piece of water close to his front door. On one occasion he held a worm near the surface of the water. A large trout jumped at the worm and, seizing hold of his fingers, cut them to the bone with its teeth by its own weight.

WELLSVILLE

THE JURORS VIEWED LAND
WANTED FOR DAM SITE

Witnesses Summoned From Wellsville to Testify in the United States Court Today.

The jurors from the United States court at Cleveland were in Wellsville yesterday and viewed the premises which the government appropriated for a dam site. The property is owned by Miss E. P. Hazlett, but is better known as the old Kountz property. Miss Hazlett has brought suit against the government and the case is being tried in Cleveland. The following witnesses were subpoenaed for the government: T. H. Silver, H. E. Nicholson, J. N. Turner, E. H. Riggs and William Perkins; for the defendant, Mrs. George A. Fisher, Charles McGregor, Sr., William Bright, George Wells, Charles Williamsen, Watson Johnston, J. G. Kountz, Hiram Kountz, R. D. Beacom and J. A. George.

The representatives of the government made Miss Hazlett an offer for the land in question but it was far below what she thought the land was really worth and she did not feel justified in accepting. The Pennsylvania company paid $10 per foot for land in this vicinity and Miss Hazlett can see no reason why the government asks her to sell her property for less. The case will be tried today.

A BIG STREET FAIR

Proposed For Wellsville—Likewise a Glorious Fourth Celebration.

A plan is being talked of among prominent business men to have a street fair in Wellsville some time during the coming summer. Mayor Fozo has expressed his views on the matter and stated that it would be a great thing for the city. Others also seem to view the matter in the same light. Should the plan materialize it would mean a great amount of business for the merchants during three or four days.

If the street fair proposition is not looked upon with favor by the general public, the instigators of the movement have another scheme. They mean to have a celebration on July 4 such as was never known before. Whether the street fair be held or not the citizens of Wellsville will, on July 4, witness a day of one complete round of pleasure. Brass bands will be engaged to furnish music, races of all kinds will be run, the greased pig will be turned loose, a bank note placed on top of a greased pole and the person succeeding in climbing the pole secures the money. Two good base ball games will be played at the base ball park. Amusements of every description will be on the program. Several addresses by well known and renowned speakers will also be given.

SALOON ROBBED

Thieves Steal Cigars and Liquor From the Place Schlotfeld Vacated.

The saloon in the West End, recently occupied by Gus Schlotfeld, who disappeared about three weeks ago, leaving debts amounting to about $2,500, was entered Monday night and six boxes of cigars and a quantity of whiskey and wine were stolen. In all amounting to about $15.

The thieves gained an entrance by battering in the rear door. Wilfred Rose had been cleaning up the place during the day and when he arrived yesterday morning discovered the loss and at once notified the police. The property stolen belonged to the Crockery City Brewing company. Mr. Rose opened the place this morning.

and a gold watch belonging to his daughter Mame was stolen. The police were at once notified and began a search. Fearing punishment, the thief returned the watch yesterday afternoon and asked that the matter be kept quiet. Miss Kountz was delighted with the return of the watch as it was very highly prized.

BOARD OF HEALTH MEETS

Steps Taken for Rigid Enforcement of Ordinance Relating to Rubbish.

The Wellsville board of health held its regular monthly meeting last evening. Health Officer Tarr gave an interesting report of the convention of health officers of the state held in Columbus on April 9. He stated that this city's board of health was about what it should be according to the views expressed at the convention.

Hereafter the board will rigidly enforce section No. 14, relative to depositing dirt, rubbish or the running of waste water into any street or alley. A number of complaints have been made about this filthy practice and in the future all persons violating this rule will hear from the authorities.

The following is a report of the deaths, births and diseases for March: Deaths, 17; bodies received for burial, 5; bodies sent away for burial, 7; burial permits issued, 17; contagious diseases, 5; scarlet fever, 4; typhoid fever, 1; births, 16, 8 males and 8 females, all white.

EWING-WHITEHILL

Pretty Ceremony at the Bride's Home in Wellsville Today at Noon.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized today at high noon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Ewing, Main street, Wellsville. William Whitehill, of Beaver, Pa., and Miss Nora Ewing, of this city, were the contracting parties. Rev. W. M. Glasgow, of the U. P. church, officiated. After the ceremony the bridal party partook of a fine repast. A large number of beautiful presents were received. The house was very elaborately decorated with flowers and palms for the occasion.

Miss Ewing is a beautiful and accomplished young lady and has a host of friends in the city, all of whom extend their hearty congratulations. Mr. Whitehill is a young man of sterling quality and holds a responsible position in Beaver, where the young couple will make their home.

BANQUET DATE FIXED

Juniors Will Elaborately Entertain the Seniors on May 22.

The Junior class of the Wellsville high school held a business meeting last evening in the central school building and decided that the banquet to be given the Senior class would be held May 22.

The proceeds from the entertainment given some time ago by the Colonial Moving Picture company went to the Junior class and along with other money in the treasury, it has quite a sum on hand. No expense will be spared to make this event one of the most enjoyable.

The Vultures.

The question is mooted whether the vulture knows of its quarry by sight or smell. How does it communicate the news of a feast to its fellows? A tiger had been killed.

Colonel Ramsay ordered the carcass of the skinned tiger to be dragged out from under the thick mango trees into the open. Taking out his watch, he asked us to make a guess as to how long the vultures would take to clean the flesh off the bones. Some one said half an hour. As there was not a vulture in sight, this seemed even better.

Colonel Ramsay gave them ten minutes, which proved to be correct. There was one vulture at first seen soaring round and round very high up in the cloudless sky. He closed his wings and dropped on to the carcass with a swoop. In two minutes the sky was full of vultures, all concentrating from every side on the spot, and arriving with all the impetus their drop from a great height gave them as fast as it takes to tell the story. Then there commenced a frightful scene of literal carnage, every one tearing with sharp, hooked bill at the entrails first, then at the flesh, all fighting for room to get a piece and tumbling over one another with frantic haste.—"The Forests of Upper India and their Inhabitants," by T. W. Webster.

What Holds the Novel.

Frank Norris, author of "The Octopus" and "The Pit," was a most virile writer and a man of decided opinions. He was wont to say of the great factors in molding public opinion that "the pulpit speaks but once a week, the press is read with lightning haste and the morning news is waste paper by noon; but the novel goes in the home to stay."

This opinion was aired by Mr. Norris in the lobby of a hotel in a small town in Illinois. Among those present was a country editor, who was prompted to remark that the novelist's views reminded him of his dog Wolf. Wolf persisted in running away from home, killing chickens and annoying children in the community. At last a method was adopted by which the dog was confined to his own homestead.

"Chained him, eh?" was the thought voiced by several of the company.

"Yes, sir," declared the editor. "And if your modern novel goes into the home to stay let Wolf remind you that it's on account of the binding."

CHESTER BALL TEAM

Has Been Reorganized and Is Playing Crockery City Today.

The Chester base ball team, stronger than ever, is playing the Crockery City at Chester this afternoon and confidently expect to win. The team is in excellent shape, practice having been indulged in for some time.

The home team will line up as follows: Elyand, c; Cullen, p; Wells, s;

McGee, 1st; Dunn, 2d; Johnston, 3d; Piper, 1; Bridge, m; Allison, r.

The team has just received their uniforms and propose to break them in with a victory. The suits are pearl gray, red belts and black letters. They look very pretty.

CHESTER NOTES.

Joseph Allison left this morning for Steubenville, where he will spend several days visiting friends.

Nellie Brannon and Walter Cunningham, both employed at the Edwin M. Knowles pottery, are visiting friends at Bellaire.

W. E. Mercer left this morning for a trip to the country in the interest of the Chester Hardware company. He expects to furnish a large number of farming implements to the farmers of the county.

Missionary Society Officers.

The following officers have been elected for the new missionary society of the Presbyterian church: President, Mrs. A. J. Glass; vice president, Mrs. E. C. Baxter; secretary, Mrs. John Bernard; treasurer, Mrs. Harper Ralston. A meeting of the society will be held at the home of Mrs. Ralston tomorrow evening and a full attendance is expected.

So Sweetly Saracenic.

Mrs. Bertram—You are all the time talking about tact. Now, I should like know what you mean by tact.

Mr. Bertram—Tact, my dear, is the gift of doing disagreeable things gracefully. For example, when your dressmaker told you your style of beauty was peculiarly adapted to high neck gowns.—Boston Evening Transcript.

Oh, For a Leap Year!

Anxious Mother—Why don't you marry young Swansen? He has good looks, good family, wealth and everything to be desired.

Pretty Daughter—But there is one very important thing lacking, mamma.

Anxious Mother—What is that?

Pretty Daughter—A proposal.—Chicago News.

A Good Thing.

Uncle John—I'm glad to hear you say you've got such a nice teacher.

Willie—Yes; she's the best ever.

Uncle John—That's right.

Willie—Yes; she gets sick every other week or so, an' there ain't no school.—Philadelphia Press.

Doubtful Enterprise.

Mr. Jocko—This Japanese scheme for the jungle looked pretty rosy, but that was before I'd had my first passenger.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

The Wherefore.

"Aw—why is it, Miss Keene, that women do not—aw—have any sense of humor?"

"Probably for the same reason, Mr. Sharpless, that some men do not have any sense of any kind."—Kansas City Journal.

Unlucky.

There are men who never roister, yet lead unsuccessful lives; The world may be their oyster.

But they have no oyster knives.—Philadelphia Ledger.

THE ATTENDANCE SMALL

The clerk had several bills demanding attention, but they could not be acted upon owing to the small attendance. One of these was from the park commissioners and amounted to $1,692.87. A bill for costs in cases in common pleas court to which the city has been a party, was presented from County Clerk J. S. McNutt. It amounted to about $1,200, but no action was taken.

Mr. Peach brought up the question of sewer assessment on Green lane. Samuel Beal had paid a sewer assessment on Lincoln avenue years ago, and when the sewer on Green lane, immediately in the rear of Lincoln avenue, was completed, Mr. Beal also came in for an assessment. It was explained by the solicitor that the assessments were made purely on the benefits to the property. In case a property owner's lot contained two houses, one on the front and the other on the rear, and were connected to two different sewers, he was liable for an assessment on each. It was shown that Mr. Beal had no building on the rear of the lot and could not be assessed for Green lane. Had he interviewed the clerk it was stated he could have been made clear on the point.

Mr. Peach stated there were a number of matters this council would have to attend to before retiring and he wanted them looked after. He referred particularly to the cost of constructing a sewer in Mulberry alley for the accommodation of the Severs China company. The total cost had been over $400, half of which was to have been paid by the company. The clerk will remind the firm that the amount has not yet been paid.

The special light committee made a report showing that little progress had been made, owing to the council not having made an appropriation to cover the cost of an investigation, as suggested by the committee. Mr. Johnston asked that the committee be continued. He had talked with an expert who agreed with him that the city was not getting its money's worth, and it was Mr. Johnston's intention to probe the matter to the bottom.

The report of Wharfmaster W. M. McClure showed expenditures to the amount of $102.10 with receipts aggregating $102. The report was accepted and the council adjourned until next Monday night.

"Now good digestion waits on appetite, and health on both." If it doesn't, try Burdock Blood Bitters.

English Manners.

An English innkeeper was found in bed one morning with his throat badly cut. "Why did you do it?" they asked. He replied: "For amusement. I had nothing else to do."

This chimes in curiously with an old French epigram on English manners and customs:

Here lies Sir John Plomponding of the Grange, Who hung himself one morning for a change.

A Mystery.

A very small boy was watching his mother sew whalebones in her dress.

"What are they, ma?" he asked.

"Bones," she replied.

"Whose?" continued the little fellow.

"Mine," she answered.

He regarded her a minute in amazement and then asked solemnly, "How did you get 'em out?"

Keep doing, always doing. Wishing, dreaming, intending, murmuring, talking, sighing and repining are all idle and profitless employments.

Pocketing a Fee.

For a whole year the famous English physician, Dr. Radcliffe, attended a friend without a single fee passing between them. As he was leaving after his last visit the patient said: "Here, doctor, is a purse in which I have put every day's fee. You must not let your kindness get the better of my gratitude; so please take it." The generous physician put out his hand to reject the purse, but the clink of the gold was too much for his amiable resolution, so he put it in his pocket, saying: "Singly, sir, I could have refused them forever, but all together I am afraid they are irresistible."

UNCLE ELI'S FABLES.

[Copyright, 1902, by C. B. Lewis.]

The Sage was sitting under a blue gum tree one day, reflecting on the benefits to be derived from adversity, when a young man appeared before him and said:

"O man of wisdom, I have come many miles to speak with thee and crave advice. My name is Jones, and I am Cashier of the Seventy-second National bank."

"And what's your trouble, Jones?" asked the Sage.

"It is this: I handle large sums of money and fear that the temptation will some day prove too great for me."

"But you must withstand it."

"I have tried, O Sage—I have tried my best."

"But you must keep on trying."

"Alas, but it is useless. I have already succumbed."

"What? Thou art a thief?" exclaimed the Sage.

"I don't exactly know, and that's why I have come to you. If I stole $5,000, I'd be a thief, wouldn't I?"

"You surely would, and despised by all men."

"But if the sum was $100,000, O man of profundity?"

"You don't mean that you got away with any such boodle as that?"

"It is here. Am I a thief or not?"

"Of course not—but by a long shot. You are simply a Cashier who has gone wrong, and your tip is to settle with the bank for half the amount of the stolen funds. You can leave a package of $5,000 for me on this shelf while I wander forth and reason on man's inhumanity to man, and anything I can do for you after you get to Canada will be cheerfully done without extra charge."

Moral.—The difference between tweedledee and tweedledum has kept many a man out of jail. M. QUAD.

Those Who Read Novels.

"But," we object, speaking to the author who has written a historical novel, "these historical data are absolutely wrong. Why, it's ridiculous to have George Washington fighting three duels, fighting battles he was never in, etc."

"I know I took some liberties with George and history," the author says naively. "But what's the difference? He'll never know, and it won't hurt his feelings."

"But the people who read your book?" we again object.

"Surely you know that people who read historical novels know nothing of history!" he exclaims in just scorn.—Baltimore Herald.

Royal Ends.

"The papers say that Queen Alexandra's hobby is clocks."

"Yes, and I noticed the other day that one of her royal sisters is very fond of fine poultry."

"Well, I fancy it requires a much higher degree of intelligence to set a hen than to set a clock."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Duzno—In writing an ode to her he used the expression "dainty, shell-like ears," and the printers became mystified over De Wryuter's horrible chirography and made it "dirty, shawl-like ears."—Baltimore American.

On the Way.

"How does you like de new preacher?" asked Mr. Erastus Pinkley.

"Very much," answered Miss Miami Brown. "He's got a good stabt. He knows a heap o' words, an' jes' as soon as he gits 'em arranged in de proper order he'll hab a mighty fine sermon."

His Shady Observation.

HOME AFFAIRS.

Brief Notes of a Personal Nature And of Matters About Town.

W. C. T. U. Meeting.—An important meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance union was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Little, in the Diamond. Several questions of more or less interest were discussed.

Settlement Probable.—Committees from the boys and journeymen blacksmiths met last night to discuss the differences between them as to the new scale. The demands of the latter for an increase to $2.50 and eight hours on Saturdays were thoroughly gone over. The bosses are resisting the latter demand but are willing to make concessions on wages and it is likely that a satisfactory settlement will soon be made.

No Decision Yet.—Squire Rose announces that he may not be able to render his decision tomorrow in the case of Ohio against William Calhoun, the street car conductor charged with taking 50 cents of the United Power company's money, owing to the transcripts of the testimony offered at the hearing not having been handed him. This morning only the testimony of one witness had been turned over to the justice.

Two Sams Arrested.—There were two "Sams" arrested by the police last evening. One Sam Martin had wandered out onto the Chester bridge and after singing "I lay down for sweet repose. Officer Woods was summoned to disturb his contentment and lodged him in jail. He paid $5.00 this morning Sam Cartwright swore that he had been doped when arraigned before the mayor. He said that he only had three drinks of whiskey and on numerous occasions he had consumed a dozen. He was discharged.

Voiced His Opinion Highly.

Lawyers, as a class, are often bothered by friends and acquaintances who, in a purely innocent manner, ask their opinions on legal technicalities, with never an idea of paying for the information.

A person of this class received a well merited rebuke recently from a legal luminary of New York. Meeting a lawyer, he drew from his pocket a five dollar bill and said: "Give me your opinion on this note. Is it good?"

The lawyer took it, examined it carefully and then rendered his decision. "It is perfectly good," he said, and in a moment he had folded it up and put it in his pocket.

"And now," said the other, "I'll thank you for the money."

"Oh, no," replied the attorney. "I'll retain it as my fee. To give advice is my profession, and I cannot afford to render an important opinion without pay."

Filling a Large Contract.

"Do you always practice what you preach?" asked the third deacon of the long winded minister.

"I do, my brother," said the long winded minister solemnly.

"Well," said the third deacon, with a sigh, "I don't wonder, then, that you don't seem to get any time to make pastoral calls."

all could see all that was going on. The trained animals adhered to even the smallest details of their respective programs. The elephants were especially on their good behavior and the feats performed by them were truly remarkable. The crowd was not allowed to become fatigued with the show at any time and when all had been circled enough an entire change of program was speedily put on and renewed interest was seen on every countenance.

Miss Essie Fay, with a score or more of trained horses, was prominent among the large class of attractions. A pyramid was formed in the west ring, followed by a beautiful rally, in which the Shetlands, the bronchos, the Norman, French and others contrasted in a pleasing array.

Capt. P. J. Visser, the giant commander—6 feet and 9 inches high—a genuine Boer—commanded the Boer forces in a realistic sham battle with a well organized band of South Africans. The battle lasted about 40 minutes, and the military training on both sides was very commendable. Two elegant and genuine gatling guns were used in the battle, which, with the other parts of the fray, were equally interesting and instructive.

The bicycle races were especially well conducted, and an interesting feature of this was the speeding with a motor cycle.

This afternoon performance of the general exhibition concluded with thrilling hippodrome races, after which a select concert was at the disposal of all who wished to remain. The evening exhibition will be a little different from that of the afternoon, and will doubtless be attended by a larger crowd.

A few only of the leading attractions of the main shows have been referred to. One can hardly imagine how such a varied, extensive and pleasing program could be crowded in a little more than two hours' time.

SOCIAL EVENTS

MOTHERS' JEWELS

Children to Be Entertained at Mrs. Fowler's Home on Saturday.

The little children of the Mothers' Jewels' society of the First M. E. church are looking forward to an evening of great pleasure on Saturday at the home of Mrs. E. W. Fowler, Jackson and Fifth streets. About 60 invitations have been issued and a large number of the children will be present.

An interesting musical and literary program has been arranged. A sale of candy will also be in progress for the children who are present and the proceeds will be added to the treasury funds of the society.

Mrs. Fowler is well known in the First M. E. church as an able and active worker among the children, and is making every endeavor to make the event pleasurable.

NEW CENTURY CLUB

An Interesting Meeting Held at the Home of Mrs. A. H. Metz Last Evening.

The New Century club met last evening at the home of Mrs. A. H. Metz, Fifth street. Mrs. W. H. Riley read a paper on Europe, Miss Gaver one on China and Japan, and Miss Newell one on the American Republic. It was a most interesting program. Mrs. A. M. Nickle, leader of current events of the day, arranged a musical treat assisted by Misses Huston and McLean.

There will be only one more regular meeting and it will be devoted exclusively to the transaction of business, such as the election of officers and accepting the program for the years 1903-4. The last of all will be "A Day with Nature," to be spent with Miss Newell at the old Newell homestead in West Virginia on May 9.

Belmont Club Dance.

The members of the Belmont club completing arrangements for a dance on Thursday evening, May 21, at Rock Springs park. It will be among the brilliant social functions of the spring season. The committee on arrangements are Lawrence Bloor, A. G. Minehart, John Travis, George Stewart, Clarence Bauman. A large number of invitations will be issued.

Select Dance.

A select dance under the management of a committee composed of J. A. Flood, William Hocking and J. H. Maxwell will be given at Rock Springs park tomorrow evening. The Roccato orchestra of Pittsburgh will furnish the music.

music. About 200 invitations have been issued and the affair is expected to be a very enjoyable one.

Given a Surprise.

Miss Kate Yontz was given a surprise last evening by the appearance at her home on East Fourth street of a number of her young friends. The unexpected guests were given a cordial welcome and all enjoyed a pleasant evening with game and music.

Study the Right Side.

A photographer was asked the other day if there is any special reason why most photographs show the left side of the face and not the right.

"Yes, there is a reason," he answered. "In a majority of cases the left side is the good looking side, and photographers know this and take advantage of it. On the other hand, if you want to get at the real strength and character of a person's face, man or woman, study the right side of it—the ugly side, as some portrait painters call it. There you will find the lines bold and harsh, comparatively so at any rate, with every defect accentuated. On the left side, however, everything is softened down, and the face is at its best."

"Whenever you suspect a man of trickery or deceit, or a woman either for that matter, stand on his right and closely watch his expression. There never was an actor skillful enough to cover up the marks of his real personality, as nature has stamped them on the right side of his face."

Political Economists.

While great fortunes and great industries have almost invariably been created by uneducated men, parvenus unembarrassed with learning, who taught themselves what they found necessary to know, we find, on the other hand, that those men who have made commercial science, political economy, their study have not shown any success in business and have remained theorists. Most political economists have had to live on their pen. Mr. Cobden went bankrupt in business. It is true that Ricardo was well off, but he was a stockbroker by trade, and with him political economy was only a hobby, not a serious result. It is strange how few business men of the first rank have a good word to say of political economy.—Nineteenth Century.

"Here it is. It's your milliner's bill."—New York Weekly.

Nurich's House Furnishings.

"Well," said Nurich, who had been showing Kander through his new house, "what do you think of the furnishings?"
"They—er—show a great deal of taste," replied Kander.
"Think so?"
"Yes, but it's all very bad."—Philadelphia Press.

TWO GREAT HORSES

Among the most conspicuous horses in Ohio at present are Parkville, 6050, and Maple Boy, 33881, record 2:27 1/4 at 3 years. Parkville is the only producing son of the incomparable Electioneer in eastern Ohio, and is the sire of the sensational $6,000 gelding, Qaudriga, 2:08 1/4. In 1901 Country Jay, whose dam is by Parkville, swept through the grand circuit and captured $18,500.00 in stakes and purses, retiring with a record of 2:10 1/4. The 3 year old filly, Nelly Jay, by Jay Hawker, dam Paronella by Parkville, met and defeated the best of her age, won the much-coveted Kentucky Futurity, $14,000.00 stake, which was a hard fought race, Nelly Jay finally outlasting her competitors and landed the sixth heat in 2:14 1/4.

Parkville is an absolutely sound horse, thoroughly clever in every way and his service fee is lower than any son of Electioneer or any other horse that has sired a 2:10 performer. Maple Boy, 33881, Record, 2:27 1/4. This grand young horse is four years old, a rich seal brown, 16 hands high and weighs 1175 pounds. He took his record last fall as a 3-year-old. Thus possessing the four great things so desirable in a stock horse and that which breeders are striving for, i. e., SIZE, FINISH, BREEDING, AND SPEED. On the 12th day of last November, Maple Boy trotted a trial timed by Messrs. Bowman, Rea and Creighton, of Lexington, Ky., in 2:24 1/4, last half in 1:07—a 2:14 gait, and last quarter in 31 seconds—a 2:04 gait. His breeding is the most fashionable in the stud book and he is beyond doubt one of the strongest bred trotting stallions in the world. Sired by that great race horse and sire Oratorio, 2:13, son of Wilkes Boy, certainly one of George Wilkes' greatest sons, and sire of 78 in 2:30. His dam is Ellie Pollie, who took a record of 2:40 1/4 in her yearling form, and one of the greatest colt trotters of her day. Thus, it will be seen that Maple Boy has a double infusion of Mambri-no Patchen 58, through the great brood mare Bettie Brown, the dam of Wilkes Boy and the grand dam of Patchen Wilkes, sire of Joe Patchen, 2:01 1/4, the grand sire of Dan Patch, 1:59 1/4. His second, third, fourth, fifth and sixth dams are all producers, placing him far in the lead of any horse in eastern Ohio, and he has been pronounced by all horsemen who have seen him, to be in a class by himself. These horses are the property of A. H. Phillips, Salem, Ohio, where visitors will always be welcome whether intending to breed or not. Send for tabulated pedigree. 101-h

Hard to Answer.

A Chicago dentist tells this story: "Some years ago a young woman recently from the Emerald Isle called at my office to have some dental work done. I examined her teeth and found that among them was one so badly wasted that it was not worth filling. I told her this. 'How long,' she asked, 'do you think it would last if it were filled?' 'I have no idea,' I replied. 'Not very long anyway.' 'Well, how long do you think?' she persisted. 'I cannot say,' I returned. 'I would not guarantee it for any length of time.' Still anxious and determined to secure a favorable and definite answer, she asked, 'Will it last longer than you think it will?'"

Theory and Practice.

Here is a good story from the collection of a German school inspector. The pupils were being examined on the subject of personal hygiene. A boy was asked, "What have you to do in order to keep your teeth sound and white?" "Clean them," was the prompt reply. "When ought you to clean them?" "Morning, noon and night." "What are they to be cleaned with?" "With a toothbrush." "Very good. Have you a toothbrush?" "No, sir." "Has your father a toothbrush?" "No, sir." "Has your mother a toothbrush?" "No, sir." "But how do you know about the use of toothbrushes?" "We sell them, sir."

Overmatched.

"Now, witness," said the lawyer, "you say that your hearing is good?" "Yes, sir."
"How good? Give me an illustration. Can you hear my watch tick?"
"No, sir. It's three days since I saw you going into the pawnshop, and the watch must have run down by this time."

A Bright Student.

At a medical college some students were being questioned in anatomy, and one of them was asked, "What muscles have their origin in the popliteal space?" The bright student promptly replied, "Well, there's that one with the durned long name, and I don't remember the other two."

It was the oscillation of a chandelier in a cathedral that suggested to Galileo the use of the pendulum, and about the year 1639 he applied it to clocks.
